

George Fox University High School State Qualifying Band Festival

Thursday & Friday, March 8 & 9, 2018
Bauman Auditorium

The George Fox University Band Festival will be a State Qualifying event. Certified judges will adjudicate the performance providing comments; one judge will be in the sight-reading room. Two awards will be mailed after the festival: one for outstanding band of the day and one for outstanding sight-reading band of the day. We ask that all bands stay to listen to at least two other bands while at the festival.

The cost of the festival will be $250 per band, and each band will receive a digital copy of their performance on a flash drive at the end of the day. A limited number of bands will be added to the schedule on a first respond-first serve basis (Placement in the Festival is dependent on when your application & check arrives). We will use the OBDA forms and the sliding scale depending on school size. There is a 30-minute time limit similar to the OSAA State Championships. Bands will be timed starting when the first band member steps on stage until the stage is empty.
