Notes about use of catalogs

These catalogs are provided for guidance in course selection and program planning. While every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the information in this catalog, in no sense is it to be considered a binding contract, and it may be changed by action of appropriate bodies within the university. Courses listed in these catalogs are subject to change through normal academic process. New courses and changes in existing course work are initiated by the appropriate school, department, or program, and approved by the Office of Academic Affairs and the university faculty. Changes to the curriculum are published on this website and in the schedule of classes.

Graduate Programs

Mission

George Fox University's graduate and professional programs seek to fulfill the university's mission by providing students with accessible, high-quality educational programs that enhance professional skills and foster intellectual and spiritual growth.

The university chooses to fulfill this mission through the following graduate schools:

- Behavioral Science and Health Professions
- College of Business
- College of Education
- Portland Seminary

Basis of Graduate Admission

The university admits applicants who evidence academic interests and ability, moral character, social concern, and who would most likely profit from the curriculum and Christian philosophy of George Fox University. These qualities are evaluated by consideration of each applicant's academic record, test scores, recommendations, writing sample, and in some cases an interview. Applicants with a criminal record may be required to submit additional official paperwork. Admission decisions and processes vary based on academic program.

George Fox University does not discriminate against students on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin, gender, age, disability, or any other status to the extent prohibited under applicable nondiscrimination law in the administration of its admission policies, scholarship and loan programs, educational programs, athletics programs, co-curricular activities, or other university-administered programs.

Change to Another Degree Program

Students whose educational goals change while at George Fox University may apply to change to another degree program. The student should first consult the university catalog to confirm the goals and admissions policy concerning the desired degree program and then should complete a Petition to Change Degree Program available in the admissions office.

Degree programs that require a different application than that completed initially by the student prior to matriculation to the institution may require the completion of a new application for admission. Students may contact the admissions counselor for the program to which they are considering changing for more information.

Changes to degree programs cannot be processed mid-semester, so changes will be made effective at the beginning of the semester following receipt of the approved petition.

Behavioral and Health Sciences

The colleges in behavioral and health sciences are committed to providing high-quality programs that prepare students to care for the overall wellness of diverse individuals and groups by utilizing their expertise in the areas of physical, emotional and spiritual healing.

Programs

Programs offered in behavioral and health sciences include:

College of Clinical Psychology

- Doctor of Psychology (PsyD Degree Requirements)

College of Physical Therapy

- Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT Degree Requirements)

College of Medical Science (Physician Assistant)

- Master of Medical Science (MMSc Degree Requirements)
- Doctorate of Medical Science (DMSc Degree Requirements).

College of Social Work

- Master of Social Work — 2-year Program (MSW 2-Year Degree Requirements)
- Master of Social Work — Advanced Standing Program (MSW Adv. Standing Degree Requirements)

Graduate School of Counseling

- Graduate Counselor Programs

Doctor of Psychology (PsyD Degree)

Purpose

The Doctor of Psychology (PsyD) program follows a professional, competency-based training model and is designed to prepare licensed, health service psychologists. While the PsyD degree provides training in the scientific foundations of psychology and in research methods and statistics, it places emphasis on the development of clinical skills. Since the initial endorsement of the doctor of psychology degree by the American Psychological Association in 1979, the professional model has been incorporated into the training programs of many universities and professional schools. The Graduate School of Clinical Psychology (GSCP) of George Fox University is accredited by the American Psychological Association. (The American Psychological Association's Commission on Accreditation is located at 750 First Street N.E. in Washington, D.C. 20002, (202) 336-5979.)

The central distinctives of the program includes the integration of a Christian worldview and the science of psychology at philosophical, practical, and personal levels as well as psychological aspects of religious or spiritual issues within the other religious communities. A second distinctive is an emphasis on clinical training to serve a diverse population in primary care medical settings.

Degree Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Competently provide psychological services in a wide variety of clinical settings
- Evaluate, implement and apply psychological research

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Become licensed as psychologists
- Commit themselves to the highest standards of professional ethics.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the PsyD program must hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0, and approximately 18 semester hours of psychology or other related social science credits. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Doctor of Psychology application form and application fee
- One official transcript from all colleges or universities attended
- Four references (forms provided in the application materials)
- An in-person interview
- GRE may be required

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 35 hours of credit is allowed toward the Doctor of Psychology program from accredited graduate schools (transfer credit is not allowed toward practicum or internship requirements). Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within seven years of the date of matriculation to the Doctor of Psychology program will be considered for transfer. Consult the program website for specific details concerning the transfer of credit. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the program for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Of the 125 hours required for the Doctor of Psychology program, a minimum of 90 hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the degree must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Graduate School of Clinical Psychology (GSCP) faculty. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admission Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the program.

Course Requirements

The Doctor of Psychology program is generally five years in length with 125 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. This involves 103 hours of psychology coursework, 12 hours of faith integration coursework, and 10 hours of dissertation. In addition, 24 clinical internship hours are required for the degree.

The first two years of the program emphasize study in the scientific foundations of psychology and an introduction to clinical theory and practice. As the student advances in the program, the emphasis shifts toward application of basic knowledge through integration of these areas in clinical practice. Professional training in assessment and psychotherapy begins in the first year with coursework and simulated psychotherapy, clinical training continues incrementally throughout the program, culminating in the clinical internship during the fifth year.

All students receive foundational training and are given the optional opportunity to couple it with specialized training in one of our three tracks:

- Primary Care Psychology
- Child & Adolescent Psychology
- Psychological Assessment

Clinical Training

Clinical training is a central component of the PsyD curriculum. Although it is a distinct part of the curriculum, it is also integrated with the academic coursework throughout the program. The clinical training process begins in the first year and continues throughout the program, ultimately preparing the student for postdoctoral residency training and licensure as a psychologist.

Other Degree Requirements

GSCP Faculty perform an annual evaluation of each student's academic progress, interpersonal relationships, legal and ethical conduct, and clinical skills. Practicum supervisors also provide regular evaluations of students' knowledge, skill, and professional attitudes displayed in clinical settings. Students failing to act in an ethical or professional manner, receiving an unsatisfactory evaluation by practicum or internship supervisors, failing to comply with George Fox University standards of conduct, or showing other evidence of deficiency in professional development may be dismissed from the program.

A Master of Arts in Clinical Psychology degree is normally conferred following successful completion of the first two years of the program and associated requirements. The MA degree is not designed or intended as a terminal degree; consequently, only students intending to complete doctoral study are admitted into the program. The MA degree is conferred following completion of 62 hours of coursework, including 52 hours of psychology coursework, 7 hours of which are Faith Integration coursework, and 6 hours of clinical training. Two hours of Research Vertical Team/ Dissertation are also required.

Continuous Enrollment

Students are expected to maintain continuous enrollment throughout the program. While full-time enrollment normally consists of a minimum of 8 hours each semester, failure to enroll for a minimum of 2 hours each semester (summer term is excepted) will result in suspension from the program. Re-enrollment will require application for readmission.

Professional Standards

Standards for graduate education in psychology, as well as for the practice of psychology, are set by the policies of the American Psychological Association (APA) through its Commission on Accreditation and those of the relevant state laws and administrative rules. In Oregon, these include the Oregon Revised Statutes and Oregon Administrative Rules of the Oregon State Board of Psychologist Examiners. The design, structure, and processes of graduate education at George Fox University are influenced by these statutes and policies. Consequently, in addition to the policies of the university's graduate program, students in the psychology program are expected to know and abide by the professional standards established by these regulatory agencies. Both faculty and students are expected to adhere to the APA Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct (2002).

Additional Information

Additional program information can be obtained on the program website. Among this material is an FAQ page within which can be found information concerning time to completion, program costs, success in internship placement, attrition rates and licensure following graduation.

Graduation Requirements

In order to complete the Doctor of Psychology program students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 125 semester hours of coursework with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
- Retake a designated course if a grade below a B- is received (for more specific information, please refer to the GSCP Handbook)
- Successfully pass the Comprehensive Clinical Exam. The Comprehensive Clinical Exam has two components, a Scientific Foundations Exam (SFE) and Clinical Intervention and Assessment Exam (CIAE). The first component is a Scientific Foundations Exam that ensures a student has acquired a minimal level of achievement related to the scientific and theoretical aspects of academic psychology. Students are required to pass this exam before they can advance to doctoral candidacy, including the scheduling or defense of their preliminary dissertation proposal. The second component is the Clinical Intervention and Assessment Exam, which demonstrates a minimum level of achievement in conceptualization from a specific theoretical orientation, the selection of evidence-based interventions, the use of standardized assessment data to inform their understanding of the client and clinical practice, and the ability to assess and respond to outcome data. The CIAE must be passed before the student begins the internship application process (see GSCP handbook for additional details).
- Complete the equivalent of a one-year full-time clinical internship (normally 50 weeks and 2,000 clock hours; 24 semester hours)
- Successfully defend the doctoral dissertation (minimum of 10 hours) and submit related documentation components (See the GSCP Student/Clinical Training Handbook). A minimum of one credit of dissertation is required each fall and spring of the second through fourth years of the program.

Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT)

Overview

The Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) program consists of a three-year, entry-level professional graduate program that prepares students to be eligible for licensure and entry into contemporary physical therapy practice. The curriculum emphasizes a problem-solving, evidence-based approach to learning in addition to providing a wide variety of clinical experiences that are integrated throughout the program. Our faculty are experts in the areas of manual therapy, orthopedics, biomechanics, research, sports medicine, pediatrics, neuroscience and general physical therapy practice.

Mission

The mission of the Doctor of Physical Therapy Program is to prepare physical therapists to meet the health and wellness needs of their community through innovative practice, passionate commitment, the pursuit of excellence, and generous service.

Accreditation

Effective May 28, 2015, George Fox University has been granted full accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education (1111 North Fairfax Street, Alexandria, VA, 22314; phone: 703-706-3245; email: accreditation@apta.org).

Degree Outcomes

Professional and Educational Outcomes

To enable students to:

- Function as safe, ethical and autonomous practitioners in a variety of settings
- Use effective communication skills in all professional relationships including those with patients, colleagues, other health care professionals and families
- Utilize critical thinking skills and principles of evidence-based practice for making clinical decisions using the patient/client management model
- Demonstrate both societal and professional responsibility through a commitment to life-long learning, professional development and community service
- Contribute to the profession as clinicians, researchers, educators, consultants and advocates
- Apply the concepts of health, wellness, and prevention to promote the best possible function

Admission Requirements

Enrollment is highly competitive and applicants seeking admission to the DPT program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university with a minimum degree GPA of 3.25. Applicants must have completed all prerequisite courses with a minimum GPA of 3.25 prior to entry into the program.

Additional admission criteria include knowledge of the physical therapy profession in a variety of settings. This is evaluated by the number of hours spent either observing or working in the field of physical therapy. Although there is no minimum requirement at present, it's not uncommon to have applicants with well over 100 hours of observation time. Other factors that are included in the admission criteria are letters of recommendation, essay response, content of the application, and service to the community.

Prerequisite Courses

George Fox University offers a kinesiology major, which is an interdisciplinary course of study that includes the prerequisites needed for most physical therapy programs. Although there are benefits to completing those courses at George Fox University, this does not guarantee admission into the program. All prerequisite coursework must be completed with a minimum grade of "C". A general description of prerequisite coursework is listed below.

Anatomy and Physiology: 8 semester credits (or equivalent) required course: human anatomy (with dissection preferred) & physiology. Laboratory sessions are required.

Biological Sciences: 4 semester credits (or equivalent) required courses: Biological sciences can include general biology, neuroscience, genetics, microbiology, advanced anatomy and other upper division classes. Equivalent courses include kinesiology, exercise physiology, and biomechanics.

Physics: 8 semester credits (or equivalent): required course: general physics. The course should reflect a standard two-semester (or equivalent) course which includes a laboratory.

Chemistry: 8 semester credits (or equivalent): required course: general chemistry. Equivalent courses such as organic & biological chemistry courses should reflect standard two-semesters which include a laboratory. Advanced courses such as organic chemistry, physical chemistry and biochemistry are strongly recommended.

Statistics: 2 semester credits (or equivalent): course can be taken as either math or social science credit.

Those students whose first language is not English must meet the required English proficiency standard as demonstrated in passing the following minimum international iBT (Internet-based TOEFL) scores: 25 points in each of the following, reading, writing, speaking and listening.

In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Doctor of Physical Therapy application through PTCAS
- Two references (one academic and one physical therapist) through PTCAS
- An in-person interview

The core faculty and the director have the authority for determining the acceptance of specific undergraduate credits that may fall outside the lines of the traditional prerequisites.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credits and transfer students from other physical therapy programs will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Course Requirements

The Doctor of Physical Therapy program is approximately 2.5 years in length (28 months) with 90 semester hours of didactic coursework required as a minimum for graduation, as well as 37 weeks of full-time clinical internships. The first year of the program emphasizes didactic study in the scientific foundations and evidence-based practice in physical therapy and includes a 4 week introduction to clinical practice during the summer. Students will integrate their didactic knowledge into clinical practice progressing in complexity as they advance through the program.

Clinical Training

A significant part of the program consists of 37 weeks of full-time clinical training. Integrated throughout the didactic component is hands-on clinical training in a variety of settings including private practice, hospital acute care, orthopedics, pediatric and rehabilitation facilities. Students should be prepared to participate in clinical internships outside of the Portland metropolitan area during the clinical education portion of the program. During these out-of-area internships (as well as other internships), students are responsible for living and transportation expenses.

Continuous Enrollment

Students are expected to maintain continuous enrollment throughout the program.

Professional Standards

Standards for graduate education in physical therapy, as well as for the practice of physical therapy, are set by the policies of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA) through its Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education (CAPTE) and those of the relevant state laws and administrative rules. In Oregon, this includes the Oregon Physical Therapy Licensing Board. The design, structure, and processes of graduate education at George Fox University are influenced by these statutes, accreditation criteria, and policies. Consequently, in addition to the policies of the university's graduate program, students in the physical therapy program are expected to know and abide by the professional standards established by these regulatory agencies. Both faculty and students are expected to adhere to the APTA Code of Ethics and Guide for Professional Conduct (2010).

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with a doctor of physical therapy degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 127 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
- Achieve no grade lower than C+ in all but 2 courses. See grading policy for further details.

Grading

The DPT program reserves the right to determine how it defines professional competence and professional behavior, to establish standards of excellence, and to evaluate students. Semester grades are determined by the instructor's evaluation of the student's daily participation in class, performance on periodic tests, work on research papers and class projects, and achievement on final examinations. The DPT program reserves the right to decline or withdraw a student's admission if the student's mental health status indicates that such action is essential for the safety of fellow students, faculty, administrative staff, or patients. The DPT program uses the following percentages for grade determination: A = 93-100%, A- = 90-92%, B+ = 87-89%, B = 83-86%, B- = 80-82%, C+ = 77-79%, C = 73-76%, C- = 72-70%, D = 60-69%, F = 59% or below, P = pass, NP = no pass, I = incomplete.

An incomplete ("I") is given when the student is performing satisfactorily but there may be circumstances beyond the student's control which resulted in the student not completing all of the assignments within the allotted time. If the incomplete work is not completed in the timeframe outlined by the faculty, the grade will be replaced with an "F". Students cannot progress to the next sequenced course until the "I" is replaced with a passing grade. If circumstances arise such that the student is unable to complete the semester they must either apply for a leave of absence, withdraw, or be dismissed

Course grades of D and F are unacceptable and cannot be included as graduate credit and may result in immediate dismissal from the program. Students may appeal grades through the university's academic appeals process. A student will be also dismissed from the program for the following reasons:

1. Repeating more than one clinical affiliation
2. Failure to achieve a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 by the end of the final semester

Clinical Grading

The DCE will assign a grade of "Pass, No Pass or Incomplete" to the clinical education experienced based upon the final APTA web-based Clinical Performance Instrument (CPI) completed by the Clinical Instructor (CI) and student as well as input from the agency CCCE as appropriate. This grade will be determined using the following as a guideline for determining a passing grade. Students are expected to reach the performance by the end of each clinical experience.

- PDPT 581 Beginner to advanced beginner in all criteria
- PDPT 680 Advanced beginner to intermediate in all criteria
- PDPT 780 Intermediate in all criteria
- PDPT 781 Advanced intermediate in all criteria
- PDPT 782 Entry level to above entry level in all criteria

Progression and Academic Standing

For continued matriculation, promotion, and graduation, Doctor of Physical Therapy students must maintain an average GPA of 3.0. If a student's GPA falls below 3.0, the student will be placed on academic warning and the Program Director and faculty will consider the student's potential for continued success. The faculty and Program Director will make recommendations to the course of action to the Dean of the College of Behavioral and Health Sciences. If a student receives a C or C- in a single course, the student will be required to meet with their academic advisor for counseling and/or remediation. If a student receives a C or C- in two designated courses, that student will be subject to academic warning and remediation. The remediation process could take the form of extra written work, retaking examinations (written or lab), or to retaking the course at the consent of the Program Director and faculty. In all circumstances, counseling between the student and academic advisor will be necessary to establish avenues to improve future performance. If a student receives a C or C- in three designated courses, that student may be subject to dismissal.

If a student is not in good academic standing, they may be placed on academic probation or warning, and a recommended course of action for the individual will be made by the Program Director and faculty. Students will remain on academic probation until the deficiency is corrected. Once corrected, the student will be considered in good academic standing.

Should a student fail a clinic experience, they must remediate the failed clinical experience before progressing on to the next more advanced clinical experience. Remediation programs specific to the clinical education experience are designed and implemented on a case by case basis and are determined by the circumstances that led to the failure. The DCE, Program Director and faculty will decide the most appropriate remediation activity that may include instruction in clinical skills under direct supervision of faculty.

Unprofessional conduct will be remediated through review, oral and written testing on the code of ethics and standards of conduct; mentoring with the students' advisor or other designated faculty; and/or counseling with faculty possessing behavioral training expertise.

Academic remediation and probation will be assessed each semester or more frequently as needed. The determination of a plan to resolve the deficiencies will be developed by the Program Director and Faculty. If a student is at risk for dismissal, the Faculty and Program Director will make the final determination. The student's advisor or program director is to notify the student of the concern regarding performance and plan of action for remediation. Scholastic dishonesty (cheating, falsifying, misrepresentation or plagiarism) are also grounds for academic probation or dismissal from the program.

Upon completion of the remediation activity, the Program Director and Faculty will review the results and determine the outcome of the remediation process. Successful completion of the remediation activity will result in restoration of good academic standing, and a new grade will be assigned. Unsuccessful completion may result in retaking the class, reassignment to another cohort, or dismissal.

Leave of absence

If a student must take a leave of absence from the program due to an illness, accident, or other substantial reason that impairs their ability to continue course work at that time, all incomplete coursework must be completed within two years from the date of their original start. If they are unable to complete the program in that time frame, they will be dismissed from the program.

Curriculum Plan

First Year Coursework (44 credits)

Complete the following:

PDPT 500 Professional Practices in Physical Therapy 2 hours
PDPT 503 Basic Patient Care Skills 2 hours
PDPT 504 Principles of Motor Control 2 hours
PDPT 510 Human Anatomy I 4 hours
PDPT 511 Human Anatomy II 3 hours
PDPT 520 Biomechanics and Kinesiology I 3 hours
PDPT 521 Biomechanics and Kinesiology II 3 hours
PDPT 529 Evidence-Based Practice & Clinical Decision Making 2 hours
PDPT 531 Neuroscience 4 hours
PDPT 540 Therapeutic Modalities 2 hours
PDPT 550 Therapeutic Exercise I 2 hours
PDPT 551 Therapeutic Exercise II 2 hours
PDPT 560 Essentials of Research Methods 3 hours
PDPT 570 Applied Physiology 3 hours
PDPT 573 Pathophysiology 3 hours
PDPT 581 Comprehensive Clinical Experience 4 hours

Second Year Coursework (61 credits)

Complete the following:

PDPT 600 Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Therapeutics 3 hours
PDPT 610 Pharmacology for Physical Therapy 3 hours
PDPT 611 Medical Surgical and Integumentary Conditions 3 hours
PDPT 619 Health and Wellness in Physical Therapy 2 hours
PDPT 620 Geriatric Physical Therapy 2 hours
PDPT 630 Neurorehabilitation I 4 hours
PDPT 631 Neurorehabilitation II 3 hours
PDPT 649 Medical Screening and Differential Diagnosis 2 hours
PDPT 650 Orthopedic Assessment and Rehabilitation I 4 hours
PDPT 651 Orthopedic Assessment and Rehabilitation II 4 hours
PDPT 660 Prosthetics and Orthotics 2 hours
PDPT 670 Pediatric Physical Therapy 3 hours
PDPT 680 Clinical Internship II 6 hours
PDPT 690 Diagnostic Imaging for Physical Therapists 2 hours
PDPT 710 Psychosocial Aspects of Patient Care and Disability 1 hour
PDPT 730 Professional Seminar 1 hour
PDPT 750 Professional Research Project I 1 hour
PDPT 751 Professional Research Project II 1 hour
PDPT 752 Professional Research Project III 1 hour
PDPT 760 Professional Duty and Social Responsibility 2 hours
PDPT 770 Special Topics 1 hour
PDPT 780 Clinical Internship III 8 hours
PDPT 781 Clinical Internship IV 2 hours

Third Year Coursework (22 units)

Complete the following:

PDPT 720 Administration in Physical Therapy 3 hours

PDPT 753 Professional Research Proj IV 2 hours

PDPT 781 Clinical Internship IV 7 hours

PDPT 782 Clinical Internship V 10 hours

Master of Medical Science

Overview

The George Fox University 112-credit, 6 continuous semester, Physician Assistant (PA) program awards a Master of Medical Science (MMSc) degree. New cohorts begin every January. Classes are held in person at the university's Newberg campus and affiliated clinic sites.

Mission

The program seeks to develop well-informed, resilient, and compassionate PAs who provide patient centered and service-oriented medical care in diverse environments.

Accreditation

Accreditation for George Fox University MMSc PA program comes from the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA).

Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the PA

The ARC-PA has granted Accreditation-Provisional status to the George Fox University Master of Medical Science – Physician Assistant Program sponsored by George Fox University. Accreditation-Provisional is an accreditation status granted when the plans and resource allocation, if fully implemented as planned, of a proposed program that has not yet enrolled students appear to demonstrate the program's ability to meet the ARC-PA Standards or when a program holding Accreditation Provisional status appears to demonstrate continued progress in complying with the Standards as it prepares for the graduation of the first class (cohort) of students. Accreditation-Provisional does not ensure any subsequent accreditation status. It is limited to no more than five years from matriculation of the first class. The program's accreditation history can be viewed on the ARC-PA website at <http://www.arc-pa.org/accreditation-history-george-fox-university>.

Degree Outcomes

The national organizations representing PAs, including the National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA), the Accreditation Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA), the American Academy of Physician Assistants (AAPA), and the Physician Assistant Education Association (PAEA) worked to develop a set of overarching competencies for PAs and the PA professions. The Competencies were subsequently nationally adopted and intended to serve as a "map" for both the development and the maintenance of professional competencies inherent to PAs and the PA profession.

Some of the competencies are acquired during the PA education process while others are developed and honed throughout a PA's career. The PA program acknowledges the importance of the national competencies and further recognizes that, although excellent benchmarks for PA performance, not all of the competencies can truly be evaluated within a PA education program. As such, the PA Program has adapted the competencies into specific measurable outcomes, each falling within the general heading of the original competencies (e.g., medical knowledge), but reduced to a specific and measurable performance item that best reflects the goals of the PA Program. As a result, the following are the Graduate Competencies for the George Fox MMSc PA Program:

Medical Knowledge (MK): PAs must demonstrate core knowledge about established and evolving biomedical and clinical sciences and the application of this knowledge to patient care in their area of practice. In addition, PAs are expected to demonstrate an investigatory and analytic thinking approach to clinical situations. Outcome expectations for this competency include:

- MK: Demonstrate the ability to effectively recognize, assess, diagnose, and treat patients across the lifespan with a variety of problems to include preventive, emergent, acute, and chronic clinical practice of medicine.

Interpersonal and Communication Skills (ICS): PAs must demonstrate interpersonal and communication skills that result in effective information exchange with patients, their patients' families, physicians, members of the healthcare team, and the healthcare system. Outcome expectations for this competency include:

- ICS1: Demonstrate knowledge and application of effective interpersonal, oral, and written communication skills necessary to elicit and record a medical history, explain and document diagnostic studies, and present an appropriate treatment plan.
- ICS2: Communicate in a patient-centered and culturally responsive manner to accurately obtain, interpret and utilize information and implement a patient-centered management plan.

Patient Care and Clinical Problem Solving (PC): PAs must demonstrate care that is effective, safe, high quality, and equitable; includes patient- and discipline-specific assessment, evaluation, and management. Outcome expectations for this competency include:

- PC1: Demonstrate the ability to perform a new or routine follow-up physical exam.
- PC2: Demonstrate the ability to effectively work within a patient-centered healthcare team.
- PC3: Demonstrate the ability to apply an evidence-based approach to the evaluation and management of patients.

Technical Skills (TS): PAs must demonstrate the ability to obtain informed consent, perform clinical procedures common to primary care, and interpret diagnostic tests. Outcome expectations for this competency include:

- TS: Demonstrate skills including but not limited to: venipuncture, intravenous access, injections, wound care, casting and splinting and interpretation of radiographic images, laboratory studies, and ECGs.

Professionalism (P): Professionalism involves prioritizing the interests of those being served above one's own while acknowledging their professional and personal limitations. Additionally, PAs must demonstrate a high level of responsibility, ethical practice, sensitivity to a diverse patient population, and adherence to legal and regulatory requirements. Outcome expectations for this competency include:

- P1: Demonstrate professionalism in interactions with others including, but not limited to, patients, families, and colleagues.
- P2: Demonstrate knowledge and application of an understanding of the PA role including ethical and professional standards regarding the PA profession.
- P3: Demonstrate knowledge and application of intellectual honesty, academic integrity and professional conduct throughout the program.

Admission Requirements

Applicants are evaluated on multiple criteria to include overall academic aptitude, pre-requisite course aptitude, paid health care experience, provider shadowing, and volunteerism. Additional detail on each is listed here.

Transcripts

All transcripts must be submitted and support completion of a bachelor's degree and required science prerequisites.

Bachelor's Degree and Associated Academic Standards

A bachelor's degree, from a U.S. regionally accredited institution with a 3.0 cumulative GPA minimum is required to matriculate. GFU will consider an applicant whose cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 provided their last 60 SH of academic work produced a 3.0 or higher GPA. Pre-requisites (see below) must still meet the 3.0 per course requirement.

Prerequisite Courses and Associated Academic Standards

All prerequisite courses must be taken at a U.S. regionally accredited institution and EACH course must meet a minimum grade of B, or 3.0 grade points/unit (B- is not acceptable). Prerequisite course completion recommended within last 5 to 7 years.

- Human Anatomy and Physiology I & II - Lecture and Lab (8 semester hours) OR Human Anatomy with Lab (4 semester hours) and Human Physiology (3 semester hours) Note: Successful completion of the Special Operations Combat Medic Course meets the Anatomy and Physiology requirement.
- General Biology with Lab (4 semester hours)
- Other Biology (3 semester hours)
- Microbiology (3 semester hours)
- General Chemistry with Lab (4 semester hours)
- Other Chemistry (3 semester hours)
- Introductory to Psychology or higher (3 semester hours)
- Statistics (3 semester hours)
- Medical Terminology is highly recommended

Note: (1) All labs must be completed in person (no online labs are accepted). (2) Survey courses (100) do not meet prerequisite requirements.

Letters of recommendation

Three letters of recommendation are required (each from a professional source (employer, teacher, and similar); they should not be from a relation or close family friend).

Additional Admissions Information

See Admissions webpage for more specifics regarding admissions recommendations and guidelines.

Transfer Credit

All George Fox courses must be taken as part of the PA cohort, and no advanced placement options are available.

Grading

Students enrolled in GFU's PA Program must maintain adherence to the program standard of academic performance and professionalism. Due to the sequential nature of the curriculum, students must successfully complete all courses for a given semester before becoming eligible to take courses in the subsequent semester.

Didactic grades are given as A, B, C and F. Experiential (clinical) course grades are given as Pass or Fail. No more than 6 credits of a C grade are allowed.

The MMSc PA program has an ongoing 'professionalism' grading component. To receive a passing score, students must receive a 73% or higher rating.

Remediation

The goal of remediation is to identify areas of weaknesses or knowledge gaps and assist the student in overcoming those weaknesses and develop material mastery. Within courses that do not utilize exams, Course Directors may use other tools to evaluate the need for remediation. In all instances, the Course Director, in conversation with the student, will establish the remediation plan and complete the Remediation Form, which will be kept in the student's file. In addition, all active remediation processes will be evaluated (for effectiveness and/or adjustment) during each end of semester Academic Progress and Professionalism Committee meetings. Remediation can be looked at in three areas: (1) Didactic, (2) Clinical, and (3) Professionalism.

Progression

Deceleration

The GFU MMSc PA program's curriculum is delivered on a full-time basis to students in a cohort. There is no formal deceleration plan nor is there an option to complete the curriculum on a part-time basis. In most instances, a student who has previously attended the program and did not complete the program must reapply. The application will be treated in the same manner as all other applications.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with a master of medical science

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 112 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
- A grade of B- or above is acceptable completion of any course. Up to 6 credits with a C grade is allowed. See department student handbook for grading policy.
- Successfully pass all pre-clinical, clinical, and components of the summative evaluation/course.
- Demonstrate they have met all graduate competencies and learning outcomes
- Be in good professional standing.

Curriculum Plan

Didactic Year Courses (12 continuous months)

Complete the following:

MMSC 500 Introduction to the PA Profession .5 hours
MMSC 502 Research and Evidence-based Medicine .5 hours
MMSC 504 Health Care Delivery Systems and Health Policy .5 hours
MMSC 506 Ethics and Social and Behavior Science .5 hours
MMSC 508 Communication, Counseling and Education Techniques .5 hours
MMSC 510 Introduction To Anatomy and Physiology .5 hours
MMSC 512 Introduction to Physical Exams .5 hours
MMSC 514 Introduction to Pharmacology .5 hours
MMSC 520 Behavior Medicine 2 hours
MMSC 530 Human Anatomy and Physiology I 2 hours
MMSC 532 Human Anatomy and Physiology II 2 hours
MMSC 534 Human Anatomy and Physiology III 2 hours
MMSC 540 Pathophysiology I 2.5 hours
MMSC 542 Pathophysiology II 3 hours
MMSC 544 Pathophysiology III 3 hours
MMSC 550 Pharmacotherapy and Patient Management I 2.5 hours
MMSC 552 Pharmacotherapy and Patient Management II 3 hours
MMSC 554 Pharmacotherapy and Patient Management III 3 hours
MMSC 560 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning I 7 hours
MMSC 562 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning II 9 hours
MMSC 564 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning III 9 hours
MMSC 570 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning Lab I 1 hour
MMSC 572 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning Lab II 1 hour
MMSC 574 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning Lab III 1 hour
MMSC 580 Global Health and Special Populations I 2 hours
MMSC 582 Global Health and Special Populations II 2 hours
MMSC 584 Global Health and Special Populations III 2 hours

Experiential (Clinical) Year Courses (11 continuous months)

Complete the following:

MMSC 600 Principles of General Surgery 3 hours

MMSC 602 Principles of Emergency Medicine 3 hours

MMSC 604 Transition to Clerkships 2 hours

MMSC 610 Family Medicine SCPE 4 hours

MMSC 620 Internal Medicine SCPE 4 hours

MMSC 630 Emergency Medicine 4 hours

MMSC 640 Surgery Medicine 4 hours

MMSC 650 Pediatric Medicine 4 hours

MMSC 660 Prenatal and Gynecology Medicine 4 hours

MMSC 670 Behavior and Mental Health 4 hours

MMSC 680 Elective #1 4 hours

MMSC 682 Elective #2 4 hours

Summative (1 continuous month)

MMSC 690 Summative 5 hours

Doctor of Medical Science

Overview

The George Fox University Physician Assistant (PA) program offers a 36-credit Doctor of Medical Science (DMSc) degree. New cohorts in the DMSc begin studies every January during the second year in the PA program. Though connected by overlapping course work, the MMSc PA and DMSc programs are separate degree offerings.

The revolutionary development of this dual degree allows for 12 credit hours of advanced-standing credit from your first year of PA school, to be carried over to the DMSc followed by nine credit hours of dual enrollment during your second year, allowing you to complete the degree with just one additional semester of three online classes (15 credit hours) after successful graduation from the MMSc PA program.

Mission

This program seeks to educate and prepare future Physician Assistants (PAs) to become equitable, spiritually-minded, compassionate healthcare leaders with an emphasis on team-based healthcare delivery, collaboration, human diversity, and patient-centered care.

Program Goals

The goals of the Doctor of Medical Science program are to advance the master's level PA in three areas:

1. Clinical Practice. Develop PAs with an advanced level of competence and confidence in disaster and global healthcare
2. Leadership Development. Equip PAs with advanced skills to become vision-shapers in their local and global healthcare communities
3. Scholarship. Broaden the scope and depth of competence in scholarship to promote self-directed, goal-focused, lifelong scholars and competent and compassionate healthcare providers

Program Core Values

1. Inquiry: Prepare for community engagement through critical thinking and analysis
2. Importance: Understand how knowledge and experience develops skills used in the service of humanity
3. Impression: Connect learning to context while overcoming barriers and challenges with the help of others

Graduate Outcomes

The overall program design is based on four interlaced topic areas. These include (1) global health and humanitarian service, (2) medical practice relevant to underserved areas and populations, (3) research and service, and (4) clinical fellowship in an area of interest. Curriculum in each area is based on (1) course learning goals, (2) course learning outcomes, and (3) course instructional objectives which are linked to each other and the program foundation.

Accreditation

Accreditation for George Fox University's DMSc PA program comes from the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities.

The Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (NWCCU) is recognized by the United States Department of Education (USDE) and the Council on Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) to accredit postsecondary institutions. NWCCU is incorporated as a legally established, private 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation and accredits institutions of higher education in Alaska, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and British Columbia, along with other domestic and international geographic areas. NWCCU recognizes higher education institutions for performance, integrity, and quality to merit the confidence of the educational community and the public. Our accreditation of postsecondary institutions is a voluntary, non-governmental, self-regulatory process of quality assurance and institutional improvement.

Accreditation or pre-accreditation by NWCCU also qualifies institutions and enrolled students for access to Title IV federal funds to support teaching, research, and student financial aid.

The program's accreditation history can be viewed on the NWCCU website at <https://nwccu.org/>.

Curriculum

Applied Research Project I (2 Semester Hours [SH])

This course exposes DMSc students to issues related to underserved and diverse populations, locally and abroad. The course encourages (1) student awareness of the interdependence of health and social issues and (2) awareness of resources available to underserved and diverse populations. In addition, the course helps students identify their community values and view while expanding on ethical care in underserved populations and areas. This project facilitates the integration of George Fox's mission by providing service to a community in need.

Course Outcomes

At the end of this course, students will be able to

1. Demonstrate advanced knowledge in health sciences fields, scholarship, and evidence-based practice.
2. Demonstrate knowledge and skills for designing, conducting, analyzing and disseminating health sciences research.
3. Demonstrate knowledge in critical analytical thinking skills in foundational areas of health sciences.
4. Demonstrate advanced and effective skills in communication, professionalism, ethical practice, systematic thought, and writing.

Applied Research Project II (2 SH)

This course continues where ARP I stopped, exposing DMSc students to issues related to underserved and diverse populations, locally and abroad. The course encourages (1) student awareness of the interdependence of health and social issues and (2) awareness of resources available to underserved and diverse populations. In addition, the course helps students identify their community values and view while expanding on ethical care in underserved populations and areas. This project facilitates integration of George Fox's mission by providing service to a community in need. During APR I, project application will occur and this course runs concurrent with the Humanitarian Service Practicum.

Course Outcomes

At the end of this course, students will be able to

1. Demonstrate advanced knowledge in health sciences fields, scholarship, and evidence-based practice.
2. Demonstrate knowledge and skills for designing, conducting, analyzing and disseminating health sciences research.
3. Demonstrate knowledge in critical analytical thinking skills in foundational areas of health sciences.
4. Demonstrate advanced and effective skills in communication, professionalism, ethical practice, systematic thought, and writing.

Applied Research Project III (2 SH)

This course continues where ARP II stopped, exposing DMSc students to issues related to underserved and diverse populations, locally and abroad. The course encourages (1) student awareness of the interdependence of health and social issues and (2) awareness of resources available to underserved and diverse populations. In addition, the course helps students identify their community values and view while expanding on ethical care in underserved populations and areas. This project facilitates integration of George Fox's mission by providing service to a community in need. During APR III, students will create a project poster board or write a medical paper. In both instances, the poster board or paper must be submitted for review (presented at a conference or published).

Course Outcomes

At the end of this course, students will be able to

1. Demonstrate advanced knowledge in health sciences fields, scholarship, and evidence-based practice.
2. Demonstrate knowledge and skills for designing, conducting, analyzing, and disseminating health sciences research.
3. Demonstrate knowledge in critical analytical thinking skills in foundational areas of health sciences.
4. Demonstrate advanced and effective skills in communication, professionalism, ethical practice, systematic thought, and writing.

Applied Research Project Practicum (3 SH)

The Humanitarian Service Practicum is the application of the Applied Research Project series and occurs in local underserved areas or populations or in a distant population where little to no medical care exists. This may include trips into rural Oregon, inner-city Portland, or countries such as Kenya, Nicaragua, the Dominican Republic, and others. Service may focus on preventive medicine such as hygiene, clean accessible water, open fire cooking, etc. Regardless of the group project, this phase only takes place on well-researched options that are guided by the course faculty and with clearly defined outcomes that are measurable. This course runs concurrently with the ARP II course.

Course Outcomes

At the end of this course, students will be able to

1. Demonstrate advanced knowledge in health sciences fields, scholarship, and evidence-based practice.
2. Demonstrate knowledge and skills for designing, conducting, analyzing, and disseminating health sciences research.
3. Demonstrate knowledge in critical analytical thinking skills in foundational areas of health sciences.
4. Demonstrate advanced and effective skills in communication, professionalism, ethical practice, systematic thought, and writing.

Doctorate Practicum (9 SH)

Students engaged in the DMSc Practicum series will be referred to as a PA Fellow. The Doctoral Practicum provides opportunities for students to develop competent and proficient levels of mastery within their chosen area of medical practice. This will include treatment plans which are patient-centered and inclusive, address medical issues, and reinforce patient education and appropriate consultation and referral. This course can be taken over three semesters or during one semester. If taken over three terms, the PA fellow must complete and submit a minimum of 160 patient encounter hours per term. If taken over one term, the PA fellow must complete and submit a minimum of 480 patient encounter hours per the term.

Course Outcomes

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Apply advanced and specialized knowledge with an emphasis structured beyond general practice to include medical skills applied in a disaster and global health setting:
  - a. Global Health Medical Care
  - b. Emergency Management

Tropical Medicine (3 SH)

This course will provide an in-depth analysis of infectious and tropical disease epidemiology, presentation, treatment, and prevention options. There will also be a discussion of the care of refugees and displaced persons, medical tourism, and traditional healing practices one might encounter.

Course Outcomes

1. Develop an understanding of the presentation, work-up, and treatment of common tropical diseases.
2. Create a strategy to counsel and treat pre- and post-travel patients based on the most current evidence.
3. Outline the essential medical and psychological care of the immigrant or displaced person.
4. Acquire knowledge regarding the concept of medical tourism, including risks and benefits of seeking care outside of the US.
5. Summarize the most common poisonous plants and animals in a given location and describe the treatment.
6. Utilize cultural context regarding traditional healing practices one may encounter when serving overseas.

Disaster Medicine (3 SH)

This course educates individuals about disaster preparedness and emergency medical intervention in a disaster setting. Students will learn how to plan, coordinate, and execute a response to a natural (earthquake, flood, tornado, etc.), industrial (explosions, hazardous materials, etc.), and intentional (bombings, shootings, nuclear, biological, chemical, etc.) disaster. This course will explore the following:

1. Health and disaster
2. Psychological impact of disaster
3. Disaster response concepts
4. Disaster preparation
5. Disaster communications
6. Medical operations in remote and/or urban areas
7. Survival skills
8. Natural, industrial, and manmade disasters
9. Displaced populations

Admission Requirements

See Admissions webpage for more specifics regarding admissions recommendations and guidelines.

Transfer Credit

All George Fox courses must be taken as part of the PA and DMSc cohort, and no advanced placement options are available.

Grading

Students enrolled in GFU's DMSc Program must maintain adherence to the program standard of academic performance and professionalism. Due to the sequential nature of the curriculum, students must successfully complete all courses for a given semester before becoming eligible to take courses in the subsequent semester.

DMSc grades are given as A, B, C and F, including experiential (clinical) course grades

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with a master of medical science

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 36 semester hours of the DMSc curriculum with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- A grade of B- or above is acceptable completion of any course. See department student handbook for grading policy.
- Successfully pass all the components of the DMSc program.
- Demonstrate they have met all graduate competencies and learning outcomes
- Be in good professional standing.

** Semester Hours (SH)

Curriculum Plan

Courses taken as part of the MMSc PA Program curriculum:

MMSC 580 Global Health and Special Populations I 2 hours
MMSC 582 Global Health and Special Populations II 2 hours
MMSC 584 Global Health and Special Populations III 2 hours
MMSC 602 Principles of Emergency Medicine 3 hours
MMSC 600 Principles of General Surgery 3 hours

Courses taken during year 2 of the PA Program:

DMSC 730 Applied Research Project I 2 hours
DMSC 732 Applied Research Project II 2 hours
DMSC 734 Applied Research Project III 2 hours
DMSC 740 Applied Research Project Practicum 3 hours

Courses taken after PA Program graduation:

DMSC 750 Disaster Medicine 3 hours
DMSC 760 Tropical Medicine 3 hours
DMSC 770 Doctoral Practicum 9 hours

Master of Social Work — 2-Year Program

Purpose

The Master of Social Work program offers a 62-semester-hour course of study, and 450+ hours of field internship work per year. The College of Social Work seeks to integrate Christian scholarship within the discipline of social work. Upon completion of the prescribed curriculum, the student should be able to demonstrate mastery of the theories, methods, techniques, and values of the social work profession as prescribed by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) and the National Association of Social Workers (NASW). The student should be able to integrate their personal faith within the program's curriculum and understand how this impacts them both personally and professionally. It is the program's goal that students graduate with the ability to differentiate personal belief systems from their client's beliefs and conduct themselves ethically as advanced practice social workers, working with diverse and vulnerable populations in a variety of settings.

Within the context of a Christian university, this program is dedicated to providing a community environment where each individual is viewed as unique and valuable with varied gifts and abilities to use in service to others.

Mission Statement

The mission of George Fox University's College of Social Work Masters Program is to prepare graduates for worldwide leadership and service as social work professionals who integrate the values, knowledge, and skills of social work with the highest competence and ethical integrity within public and private human service organizations, faith communities, and religiously affiliated agencies.

Degree Outcomes

Students completing the MSW program will be able at an advanced level to:

- Exhibit competence in generalist and advanced social work practice with diverse individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
- Demonstrate critical thinking skills in applying knowledge and ethical principles to social work practice and in evaluating scientific inquiry including practice-based research.
- Consider and apply the values and ethics of the profession in every aspect of practice and understand the ethical integration of Christian faith in practice, including nondiscrimination in the areas of age, class, culture, color, disability, ethnicity, family structure, gender, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, and sexual orientation.
- Enhance the well-being of people and communities locally, regionally, nationally, and around the world.
- Apply an ecological systems perspective, empirically supported theoretical frameworks, and evidence-based social work practice methods to all levels of practice.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the GFU College of Social Work graduate program (MSW)

Admission to the GFU College of Social Work graduate program is conducted by formal application. Qualified students will be admitted regardless of race, color, national or ethnic origin, gender, age, or disability. The applicant's packet will be considered complete when the following parts have been received:

1. A completed online application and application fee; An official transcript from each junior college, college, or university in which baccalaureate coursework was taken.
2. A written response to questions related to the applicant's reason for applying, professional goals and interest, work and/or volunteer experiences, and reflection on case-related materials.
3. Recommendations: Three strong professional references who can attest to the applicant's ability in these areas: intellectual competence; potential for academic success; the ability to work with people around sensitive issues, including people from diverse backgrounds; possession of critical thinking and communication skills; a sense of values and ethics; and potential as a professional social worker. At least one of the recommenders must be an academic reference having been the instructor of the applicant in a classroom setting. Recommenders must submit these directly to the College of Social Work graduate program using the online link provided. If a letter is included, the letters must be written on institutional or business letterhead.
4. Current resume.
5. Sample of scholarly writing from your undergraduate program. Examples include an academic research paper, literature review, report, etc. If scholarly writing is not available, please contact the admissions counselor for an alternate option.

Admission Requirements

The graduate program requires that all applicants have either a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution in the United States or proof of equivalent education at an international institution of higher learning.

The Admissions Committee will only review an application that is missing no more than one prerequisite course. The applicant will be expected to complete all undergraduate prerequisites prior to enrolling in the program.

Applicants are expected to have a record of undergraduate study and experience that is predictive of success in graduate study. A minimum admissible grade point average is 3.0.

A satisfactory grade point average in and of itself does not guarantee admission to a graduate program. Approval for admission is provided after consideration of the assessment and review processes conducted by the graduate admissions committee.

Applicants are evaluated based on the admissions criteria specified in the Admissions Criteria section of the MSW Student Handbook.

The graduate program's letter of admission constitutes the University's official notification of the admission decision. Admitted students will have a maximum of one year from the date of admission within which to enroll. Attempts to enroll after the one-year period will require completion of another application. The University reserves the right to refuse admission to any applicant whose previous academic record and/or readiness for graduate study in social work is deemed unsatisfactory (MSW Student Handbook).

Transfer Credit

For matriculating students who wish to transfer from another CSWE accredited graduate social work program, the MSW program has a written policy stipulating the transfer of credits as follows.

The Director of the Master of Social Work program may approve up to 15 hours of coursework for inclusion into the MSW standard two-year degree requirements or up to 9 hours of coursework in the advanced standing program. Students may only transfer a maximum of 15 semester credits for the 2-year program or 9 semester credits for the advanced standing program in order to preserve the integrity of his/her education at the degree granting institution; field practicum credits will not be transferred.

The Director, in consultation with MSW faculty, will make decisions about acceptance of transfer of credit.

No credit will be given toward required MSW courses unless the following conditions apply:

- The courses were taken in a graduate program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education.
- A course description and syllabus is available and the Director judges the courses to be an appropriate substitution for a specific course in the graduate program.
- Once the Director has advised the student concerning which courses are approved for transfer credit, the student prepares a letter of petition specifying how the courses will be applied to the degree plan.

A petition for transfer credit must fulfill the conditions listed below:

- Students who wish to transfer credits must make the request and present relevant syllabi and transcripts six (6) weeks prior to the beginning of the first semester of matriculation.
- The work must have been done while the student was enrolled in good standing as a graduate student.
- The work must have been done within five years prior to the award of the master's degree from George Fox University.
- The school from which the credits are transferred must be accredited by a regional accreditation agency.
- No earned grade for transfer credit is less than a B.
- None of the transfer coursework consists of extension or workshop courses.
- Petition for transfer of credit occurs after enrollment in the College of Social Work graduate program.

Residence Requirements

Of the 62 credit hours required for the Master of Social Work program, a minimum of 47 credit hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the degree must meet the requirements stated in the program transfer policy.

Leave of Absence

If a student must take a leave of absence from the program due to an illness, accident, or other substantial reason that impairs their ability to continue coursework or field internship they must submit a written request explaining reasons for requesting a leave. All incomplete coursework or fieldwork must be completed within two years from the date of his or her original start. If they are unable to complete the program in that time frame, they will be dismissed from the program.

The director of the School of Social Work must approve leaves of absence for the Master of Social Work program.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the Master of Social Work degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 62 credit hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Maintenance of a minimum average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for all academic courses taken and a minimum grade of C (73) for all academic courses taken.
- Earn a grade of B (83) or higher in all Field Internship courses.
- Earn no more than two "C" grades (73-79) in the program.
- Complete a 480-hour supervised internship in the foundation-year and a 600-hour supervised internship in the concentration-year in an agency setting approved by the College of Social Work.

Master of Social Work — Advanced Standing Program

Purpose

The Advanced Standing Master of Social Work program offers a 32-semester-hour course of study, and 500+ hours of field internship work. The College of Social Work seeks to integrate Christian scholarship within the discipline of social work. Upon completion of the prescribed curriculum, the student should be able to demonstrate mastery of the theories, methods, techniques, and values of the social work profession as prescribed by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) and the National Association of Social Workers (NASW). The student should be able to integrate their personal faith within the program's curriculum and understand how this impacts them both personally and professionally. It is the program's goal that students graduate with the ability to differentiate personal belief systems from their client's beliefs and conduct themselves ethically as advanced practice social workers, working with diverse and vulnerable populations in a variety of settings.

6. A copy of the field evaluation from the baccalaureate social work field experience(s) documenting satisfactory generalist practice experience and skills in the internship.

Admission Requirements

Students who have a baccalaureate degree in social work from George Fox University, as well as students who have earned a baccalaureate degree in social work from another program accredited by the Council on Social Work Education, may apply for admission into the Advanced Standing at George Fox University. If admitted, full-time students can complete their MSW at GFU in 32 semester credit hours of graduate work.

Applicants to the GFU Advanced Standing Program with a degree from an international social work program must provide evidence through CSWE's International Social Work Degree Recognition and Evaluation Service that the program from which they have graduated or anticipate graduating is certified by CSWE.

Preference will be given to admitting to Advanced Standing those students who completed their baccalaureate degrees no more than five years prior to application. If students completed their baccalaureate degree in social work more than five years before applying to the MSW program, they must demonstrate that they have engaged in continuing education and professional social work practice during a majority of the years since their baccalaureate education. Decisions about their admission to Advanced Standing will be based on the following, in addition to the standard graduate social work application:

- An overall grade point average of 3.0 or higher on a 4.0 scale, a grade point average of 3.0 or higher in all social work coursework, to include a minimum grade of B in all practice and field courses.
- A copy of the student's Field Evaluation from baccalaureate social work field experience(s) documenting satisfactory generalist practice experience and skills in the internship is required. (While prospective students may be admitted conditionally based on their performance in the field, full admission is contingent upon receipt of final field evaluation. When the final field evaluation is not available, a positive reference from a social work supervisor familiar with the applicant's skills in social work practice is necessary.)

Transfer Credit

For matriculating students who wish to transfer from another CSWE accredited graduate social work program, the MSW program has a written policy stipulating the transfer of credits as follows.

The Director of the Master of Social Work program may approve up to 15 hours of coursework for inclusion into the MSW standard two-year degree requirements or up to 9 hours of coursework in the advanced standing program. Students may only transfer a maximum of 15 semester credits for the 2-year program or 9 semester credits for the advanced standing program in order to preserve the integrity of his/her education at the degree granting institution; field practicum credits will not be transferred.

Masters (MA) in Clinical Mental Health Counseling

Purpose

The MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program is designed for people who desire graduate study and preparation for the counseling profession. We recognize the clinical training and expertise required for working with individuals, groups, and the broader community. It is therefore intended that the program leading to the MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling degree will assist students in the process of developing such expertise for effective counseling practice.

Accreditation

Accredited by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Educational Programs (CACREP) and approved by the Oregon Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and Therapists.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

- Demonstrate and articulate an understanding of professional identity as a clinical mental health counselor
- Demonstrate knowledge of the primary domains of clinical mental health counseling (i.e., foundations; counseling prevention and intervention, diversity and advocacy; assessment; research and evaluation; diagnosis.)
- Demonstrate clinical competence as a counseling intern, including the skills and practices of assessment, diagnosis, treatment, termination, documentation and ethical practice
- Demonstrate personal awareness, theoretical knowledge and clinical skills needed to engage in multi-culturally sensitive individual and group counseling and advocacy
- Apply relevant research and evaluation methods in the practice of clinical mental health counseling
- Demonstrate reflective and ethical decision making grounded in the knowledge of relevant legal and ethical codes as well as an examination of personal values
- Demonstrate the College of Education Conceptual Framework to Think Critically, Transform Practice, and Promote Justice
- Articulate how personal faith informs one's identity and practice as a clinical mental health counselor

Admission Requirements

- Bachelor's degree from a regionally accredited institution. A cumulative undergraduate grade point average of 3.0 or above is required. The undergraduate degree does not have to be in the field of psychology.
- Completed Application Form at apply.georgefox.edu

- Résumé of work and/or volunteer experience
- Written admission statement addressing the question provided in the Application Form
- One academic reference form and one professional reference form
- An official transcript from each college or university attended
- Group interview with the Admissions Committee. An invitation will be extended to those meeting initial program criteria.

The Admissions Committee will consider each application item and the group interview as part of the admissions decision.

Additional requirements for international students are online here.

Transfer Credit

Up to 18 credit hours from another CACREP Accredited program can be transferred. Credits from Non-CACREP Accredited programs will only be considered as electives. Program directors will determine the number of transferable credits upon admission into the program. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within 10 years of the date of matriculation to the MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program will be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution.

Residence Requirements

Of the 60 hours required for the MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program, a minimum of 42 hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the MA must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires the approval of the Graduate School of Counseling (GSC) Faculty. However, only one such extension may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree. A leave of absence is valid for up to one year after which the student must re-apply to the program.

Course Requirements

The MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program is generally 2-4 years in length with 60 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 6 are in prescribed spiritual integration courses, 48 in prescribed counseling courses, and 6 in clinical internship credits.

Other Degree Requirements

Each student must complete a minimum of 20 clock hours of personal counseling/therapy as part of the MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling program. Additionally, an ongoing review process serves as a way to assess the student's fit for the program; fit for the profession; emotional, psychological, and intellectual ability; as well as maturity level for functioning safely as a mental health professional. Graduate School of Counseling faculty will review students each fall and spring semester. For more specific information, please refer to the student handbook.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the MA in Clinical Mental Health Counseling degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 60 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a required course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook)
- Complete 20 clock hours of personal counseling/therapy
- Complete a 700-hour supervised clinical field internship in counseling that meets the currently articulated criteria for such training, with at least 280 hours of direct client contact
- Successfully complete the Clinical Portfolio (reading fees are assessed during the final semester of clinical internship), in which the student articulates his/her current understanding of counseling and applies the same through an analysis of his/her counseling practice, an evaluation of his/her strengths, and a three-year professional development plan

Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling

Purpose

The Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program is designed to provide to practitioners in the helping professions special training and expertise required for working effectively with couples and families. The certificate program is open to those who already hold a master's degree in mental health or a closely-related discipline and is ideal for helping professionals such as licensed professional counselors, clinical psychologists, social workers, and clergy.

Student Learning Outcomes

Graduates will:

- Demonstrate and articulate an understanding of professional identity as a marriage, couple and family counselor
- Demonstrate knowledge of theories and treatment of individuals, couples, and families, articulating the core dynamics from an integrated systemic perspective (e.g. human development, family dynamics, traditional and contemporary marriage, couple, and family theories, research and cultural context.)
- Demonstrate clinical competence as a marriage, couple and family counseling intern including the skills and practices of individual, couple, and family treatment, systemic assessment and diagnosis, treatment, termination, documentation and ethical practice
- Demonstrate personal awareness, theoretical knowledge, and clinical skills needed to engage in multi-culturally sensitive individual, couple, family and group counseling and advocacy
- Apply relevant research and evaluation methods in the practice of marriage, couple and family counseling
- Demonstrate reflective and ethical decision making grounded in the knowledge of relevant legal and ethical codes as well as in an examination of personal values
- Demonstrate the College of Education Conceptual Framework to Think Critically, Transform Practice, and Promote Justice
- Articulate how personal faith informs one's identity and practice as a marriage, couple and family counselor

Admission Requirements

- Master's or doctoral degree in mental health, seminary, or a closely related discipline from a regionally accredited institution. A cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or above is required.
- Completed Application Form at apply.georgefox.edu
- Résumé of work and/or volunteer experience
- Written admission statement addressing the question provided in the Application Form
- One academic reference form and one professional reference form

- An official transcript from each college or university attended
- Group interview with the Admissions Committee. An invitation will be extended to those meeting initial program criteria.

The Admissions Committee will consider each application item and the group interview as part of the admissions decision.

Additional requirements for international students are online here.

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 12 hours credit is allowed toward the Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program from accredited graduate schools (transfer credit is not allowed toward internship requirements). Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within 10 years of the date of matriculation to the Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program will be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Of the 36 hours required for the Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program, a minimum of 24 hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the certificate must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires the approval of the Graduate School of Counseling (GSC) Faculty. However, only one such extension may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the program. A leave of absence is valid for up to one year after which the student must re-apply to the program.

Course Requirements

The Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program is generally 1-2 years in length with 36 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 15 are in prescribed counseling courses, 15 in prescribed marriage and family therapy courses, and 6 in clinical internship hours.

Other Degree Requirements

Each student must complete a minimum of 20 clock hours of personal counseling/therapy as part of the Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program. Additionally, an ongoing review process serves as a way to assess the student's fit for the program; fit for the profession; emotional, psychological, and intellectual ability; as well as maturity level for functioning safely as a mental health professional. GSC faculty will review students each fall and spring semester. During spring term prior to internship, students must pass a national exam before they can start their internship: the Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE). Only students who pass the national exam may start their internship after having completed all prerequisites. For more specific information, please refer to the student handbook.

Completion Requirements

In order to graduate with the Certificate in Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 36 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a required course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).
- Complete a minimum of 20 one-hour sessions of therapy from a family systems perspective with a licensed marriage and family therapist
- Complete a 700-hour supervised clinical internship in marriage and family therapy that meets the currently articulated criteria for such training, with at least 270 hours of direct client contact (135 hours required with couples and families; 135 with individuals, couples, or families)
- Successfully complete the Clinical Portfolio (reading fees are assessed during the final semester of clinical internship), in which the student articulates his/her current understanding of marriage and family therapy and applies the same through an analysis of his/her counseling practice, an evaluation of his/her strengths, and a three-year professional development plan

Certificate in Trauma Response Services

Purpose

The Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services is designed to train professionals who will advance the field of traumatology, and promote the safe and effective care of individuals and communities impacted by traumatic incidents. The program serves mental health, education, medical, and ministerial professionals seeking demonstrated competency in providing immediate or ongoing trauma-informed services in local, regional, and international settings. Most courses are taught in a blended format (face to face and online meetings). The 12-unit certificate can be earned within 1 calendar year or extended according to the student's own pace.

Student Learning Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To further the development of trauma-informed services by:

- Equipping independent mental health practitioners, school professionals, ministerial, and health care providers (responders) to view and respond to individuals and communities through a neurobiology, attachment, and trauma-informed lens.
- Training responders in the use of best practice strategies relative to the nature of a traumatic event, stage of recovery, and assigned role.
- Preparing responders to serve on multidisciplinary response teams with an understanding of the responder's role within the larger response structure.

Professional Objectives

To further the development of trauma-informed services by:

- Assisting organizations to apply best-practice standards for recruitment, supervising, and debriefing responders.
- Contributing to the understanding and application of professional and ethical standards in trauma-informed care whether providing immediate trauma response or long-term recovery interventions.
- Equipping responders with an understanding of sociocultural factors increasing vulnerability, requiring a multi-systemic response beyond immediate care in the aftermath of an event.
- Strengthening trauma-informed leadership in service to community and organization preparedness and response.

Admission Requirements

TRI courses and the Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services program are open to a variety of current graduate students in qualifying degree programs and post-graduate professionals in qualifying professions. Qualifying graduate degree programs and professions include mental health, education, health sciences, and ministry.

To Enroll in TRI Courses:

Students may enroll in select TRMA courses even though the post-graduate certificate is not being pursued. All current George Fox University graduate students in good standing and post-graduate professionals from a qualifying profession are eligible to enroll in select TRI courses. Post-graduate or graduate students enrolled elsewhere in a qualifying profession are eligible to enroll in TRI courses by completing a special student application.

To Apply for the Certificate Program:

Current George Fox Graduate Students in qualifying degree programs may take eligible TRMA classes without enrolling in the certificate if they are in good standing within their degree program. Admission requirements are as follows:

- Current George Fox Graduate Students
  - # Shortened TRI Application Form
  - # GPA of 3.0 or higher
  - # Good standing in current degree program
- Current Master's Students Attending Other Colleges or Universities
  - # Graduate School of Counseling application form
  - # GPA of 3.0 or higher
  - # Graduate school transcripts verifying completion of a qualifying degree
- Current Post-Graduate Professionals
  - # Graduate School of Counseling application form
  - # GPA of 3.0 or higher
  - # Graduate school transcripts verifying completion of a qualifying degree program

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 2 hours credit from accredited graduate schools is allowed toward the Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within 10 years of the date of matriculation to the Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services will be considered for transfer. Continuing education workshops, seminars, and conferences do not qualify for transfer credit. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Of the 12 hours required for the Certificate in Trauma Response Services, a minimum of 10 credit hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the certificate must be completed within 5 years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Graduate School of Counseling faculty. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the program. A leave of absence is valid for up to one year after which the student must re-apply to the program.

Course Requirements

The Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services can be completed in 1 to 5 years with 12 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for certificate completion. Of those hours, 4 are in foundational knowledge coursework, 4 in best practice strategies, and 4 in trauma research and leadership credits.

Other Program Requirements

TRMA courses are not available for audit. Contact the TRI office for information on available Continuing Education (CE) options.

Completion Requirements

In order to complete the Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services program students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 12 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a required course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

- Master's or doctoral degree in the mental health field from a regionally accredited institution. A cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or above is required. Completed Application Form at apply.georgefox.edu
- Résumé of work and/or volunteer experience
- Written admission statement addressing the question provided in the Application Form
- One academic reference form and one professional reference form
- An official transcript from each college or university attended
- Group interview with the Admissions Committee. An invitation will be extended to those meeting initial program criteria.

The Admissions Committee will consider each application item and the group interview as part of the admissions decision.

Additional requirements for International Students are online here.

Transcripts of previous graduate work and supporting documentation will be evaluated by the GSC faculty committee to verify completion of the following prerequisite courses:

Prerequisite Coursework (15 hours)

GCEP 500 Introduction to Couple and Family Therapy	3
GCEP 504 Child and Adolescent Disorders	3
GCEP 550 Group Theory and Therapy	3
GCEP 554 Addictions	2
GCEP 567 Cultural Foundations and Social Justice	3
GCEP 587 Interpersonal Neurobiology and Pharmacology	1

Any of the prior courses not taken as part of a master's or doctoral training program in a mental health field will be added to the total hours required to complete the program. Waivers of prerequisite coursework* might vary greatly from student to student. In addition to the prerequisite coursework, all students must complete the required 36 semester hours of coursework listed below.

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 11 hours credit is allowed toward the Preliminary School Counseling Licensure Preparation Program from accredited graduate schools. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within 10 years of the date of matriculation to the Preliminary School Counseling Licensure Preparation Program will be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Of the 36 hours required for the Preliminary School Counseling Licensure Preparation Program, a minimum of 23 credit hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the certificate must be completed within 5 years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Graduate School of Counseling (GSC) Faculty. However, only one such extension may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the program. A leave of absence is valid for up to one year after which the student must re-apply to the program.

Course Requirements

The Preliminary School Counseling Licensure Preparation Program is generally 2 to 3 years in length with 36 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those credit hours, 3 are in spiritual integration coursework, 27 in prescribed school counseling core courses (which includes a 100-hour teaching practicum), and 600 internship hours.

Other Degree Requirements

Each student must complete a minimum of 20 hours of personal counseling/therapy. Additionally, an ongoing review process serves as a way to assess the student's fit for the program; fit for the profession; emotional, psychological, and intellectual ability; as well as maturity level for functioning safely as a mental health professional. GSC faculty will review students each fall and spring semester. For more specific information please refer to the student handbook.

Completion Requirements

In order to complete the School Counseling Licensure Preparation Program students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 36 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a required course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).
- Complete a minimum of 20 one-hour sessions of personal therapy—individual, couples, and/or group (no more than 10 sessions may be in group therapy)—with a licensed therapist.
- Complete a minimum of 100 supervised hours in a teaching practicum, including a minimum of 38 clock hours of full responsibility for teaching and classroom management.
- Complete a minimum of 600 supervised internship hours, of which at least 240 hours must be direct client contact hours.
- Successfully complete the School Counseling Portfolio (reading fees are assessed during the final semester of school counseling internship), in which the student articulates his/her current understanding of school counseling and applies the same through an analysis of his/her counseling practice, an evaluation of his/her strengths, and a three-year professional development plan.

DMSC 730 Applied Research Project I

2 hours

This course exposes DMSc students to issues related to underserved and diverse populations, locally and abroad. The course encourages (1) student awareness of the interdependence of health and social issues and (2) awareness of resources available to underserved and diverse populations. In addition, the course helps students identify their community values and view while expanding on ethical care in underserved populations and areas. This project facilitates integration of George Fox's mission by providing service to a community in need.

DMSC 732 Applied Research Project II

2 hours

This course continues where ARP I stopped, exposing DMSc students to issues related to underserved and diverse populations, locally and abroad. The course encourages (1) student awareness of the interdependence of health and social issues and (2) awareness of resources available to underserved and diverse populations. In addition, the course helps students identify their community values and view while expanding on ethical care in underserved populations and areas. This project facilitates integration of George Fox's mission by providing service to a community in need.

DMSC 734 Applied Research Project III

2 hours

This course continues where ARP II stopped, exposing DMSc students to issues related to underserved and diverse populations, locally and abroad. The course encourages (1) student awareness of the interdependence of health and social issues and (2) awareness of resources available to underserved and diverse populations. In addition, the course helps students identify their community values and view while expanding on ethical care in underserved populations and areas. This project facilitates integration of George Fox's mission by providing service to a community in need.

DMSC 740 Applied Research Project Practicum

3 hours

The Humanitarian Service Practicum is the application of the Applied Research Project series and occurs in local underserved areas or populations or in distant population where little to no medical care exists. This may include trips into rural Oregon, inner city Portland, or countries such as Kenya, Nicaragua, the Dominican Republic, and others. Service may focus on preventive medicine such as hygiene, clean accessible water, open fire cooking, etc. Regardless of the group project, this phase only takes place on well researched options that are guided by the course faculty and with clearly defined outcomes that are measurable. This course runs concurrently with the ARP II course.

DMSC 750 Disaster Medicine

3 hours

This course educates individuals about disaster preparedness and emergency medical intervention in a disaster setting. Students will learn how to plan, coordinate, and execute a response to a natural (earthquake, flood, tornado, etc.), industrial (explosions, hazardous materials, etc.), and intentional (bombings, shootings, nuclear, biological, chemical, etc.) disaster.

DMSC 760 Tropical Medicine

3 hours

This course will provide an in-depth analysis of infectious and tropical disease epidemiology, presentation, treatment, and prevention options. There will also be a discussion of the care of refugees and displaced persons, medical tourism, and traditional healing practices one might encounter.

DMSC 770 Doctoral Practicum

9 hours

Students engaged in the DMSc Practicum series will be referred to as a PA Fellow. The Doctoral Practicum provides opportunities for students to develop competent and proficient levels of mastery within their chosen area of medical practice. This will include treatment plans which are patient-centered and inclusive, address medical issues, and reinforce patient education and appropriate consultation and referral. This course can be taken over three semesters or during one semester. If taken over three terms, the PA fellow must complete and submit a minimum of 160 patient encounter hours per term. If taken over one term, the PA fellow must complete and submit a minimum of 480 patient encounter hours per the term.

GCEP Course Descriptions

GCEP 500 Intro to Couple and Family Therapy

3 hours

An examination of key concepts in marital and family systems, including the family life cycle, as well as an introduction to various approaches to marital and family therapy. Core counseling skills as used in systems therapy will be taught and practiced. Prevention services as well as the roles of ethnicity and culture will be studied.

GCEP 501 Principles and Techniques of Counseling

3 hours

This course reviews basic concepts and skills of counseling individuals, including practice in applying those concepts and techniques in counseling situations during class. Emphasis is on conditions for effective helping relationships, attending and interviewing skills, basic theoretical assumptions, ethical principles, and professional orientation.

GCEP 502 Clinical Practicum

3 hours

This course is designed to advance student understanding of theory as it related to clinical practice of counseling and therapy, including intake and assessment skills, the influence of the clinician, the development of interventions, crisis strategies, and treatment plans, consultation, file management, and the ethical treatment of clients, especially those from diverse and/or multicultural populations. Emphasis is placed on understanding the client(s) from systemic and developmental perspectives. Pass/No Pass. Prerequisites: GCEP 500 Introduction to Couple and Family Therapy; GCEP 501 Principles and Techniques of Counseling; GCEP 510 Human Growth and Development; GCEP 520 Personality and Counseling Theory; GCEP 530 Psychopathology and Appraisal; GCEP 540 Professional Orientation; GCEP 550 Group Theory and Therapy. In addition, Clinical Mental Health students are required to have successfully taken GCEP 522 Advanced Clinical Skills and Marriage Couple and Family students are required to have successfully taken GCEP 514 Couple Therapy and GCEP 524 Family Therapy. Students must have (a) completed all prerequisites with a B or better grade, (b) applied and been accepted as an internship candidate, and (c) attended Internship Orientation.

GCEP 503 Risk & Resiliency in Youth

3 hours

This course examines sources of biological and social risk that impede the development of personal wellness, academic achievement, and social competency in children and adolescents. Students explore the prevalence of these risk factors nationwide and in local communities, with emphasis on sources of resiliency that ameliorate risk and are enhanced by community, environmental, institutional, and cultural protective factors and opportunities. Students are exposed to and guided in assessing current, local partnerships between school, county, and community agencies addressing barriers that hinder children's personal, social, and academic functioning. Students also gain an understanding of the multifaceted role school counselors have as advocates for and designers of policies, comprehensive programs, and collaborative services that are equitable and responsive to the needs of diverse children and their families. Legal and ethical issues in working with these populations are addressed throughout the course. For students in School Counseling programs only; others by permission.

GCEP 504 Childhood and Adolescent Disorders

3 hours

The goal of this course is to provide students with an concentrated study of various childhood and adolescent disorders. The etiology, diagnostic criteria, assessment needs, and recommended intervention and treatment strategies of childhood disorders will be presented. A focus will be placed on understanding the disorders in school settings, including the role of Individualized Education (IEP) and 504 Plans. An integrative perspective will be taken that acknowledges biological, psychological, social, and cultural influences and their interdependence, and is guided by the consideration of developmental processes that shape and are shaped by the expression of these disorders. Co-morbidities and developmental norms that help inform diagnostic decisions will also be discussed. For students in School Counseling programs only, others by permission. Prerequisite: GCEP 501

GCEP 505 Foundations in School Counseling

3 hours

This course integrates theory, practice, and research to provide an overview of school counseling models, services, and skills. Students will learn the ASCA National Model and Oregon's Comprehensive Guidance and Counseling Framework. They will become familiar with the roles and functions of the professional school counselor across levels. Students will understand different models of and develop essential skills in consultation, coordination, and collaboration. They will understand how school counselors advocate and take leadership for systemic change. Students will develop skills for designing, implementing, evaluating, and advocating for comprehensive school counseling programs that include all students and meet the needs of diverse student populations. Students will begin to develop a professional identity as school counselors. For students in School Counseling programs only, others by permission.

GCEP 506 Classroom Teaching and Learning

3 hours

This course, first in a sequence of two consecutive courses, is designed to fundamentally prepare students for the required student teaching practicum for Track II school counseling students pursuing an Initial School Counseling License who do not have teaching experience. Students will gain an overview of the historical aspects and progression of the educational system. The fundamentals of how to appropriately plan for student learning, organize curriculum, utilize a variety of instructional strategies, assess learning, and develop techniques for effective classroom management are also addressed. Meeting the needs of diverse learners while promoting academic success, personal/social, and/or career development will be emphasized. Students will plan and develop a 5-day integrated unit of study related to a counseling theme using a variety of instructional strategies that promote critical thinking, problem solving, and performance skills. Pass/No Pass. For students in School Counseling programs only.

GCEP 507 Teaching Practicum

3 hours

This course, the second of two consecutive courses, will partially fulfill requirements for the school counseling licensure criteria established by the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) for prospective school counselors who do not have two years of teaching experience in Oregon or out-of-state public or regionally accredited private schools (Track II). The classroom student teaching practicum will prepare prospective school counselors to work collaboratively with educators by learning about how today's schools operate, what guiding principles educators use, and how research-based practices are effective in the classroom in promoting academic success, personal/social, and/or career development. Prospective school counselors will have the opportunity to integrate educational concepts and instructional strategies within the classroom environment while also addressing the needs of diverse and multicultural learners through planned learning activities. Students will prepare and teach a work sample under the guidance of a cooperating teacher. Both formative and summative assessment will be a key component of the work sample. For students in School Counseling programs only. Prerequisite: GCEP 506 Classroom Teaching and Learning

GCEP 509 Lifestyle and Career Development

3 hours

This course is designed to acquaint students with the foundational issues and resources of career counseling, the lifestyle and career decision making process, and comprehensive career-guidance programs for K-12 populations. Students gain an overview of the historical development of career counseling and a basic understanding of relevant theories. The interrelatedness of lived experience, life roles, and calling in career development for diverse populations is visited. Students are exposed to opportunities to gain both multicultural and social justice advocacy awareness, knowledge, and skills as they relate to lifestyle and career development for all students. Students will also identify the criteria necessary to plan, organize, implement, administrate, and evaluate a comprehensive K-12 career counseling program that addresses the career development of all students, along with an understanding of career and educational planning, placement, follow-up, and evaluation. In addition they are acquainted with cutting edge technology resources and assessment tools used in career counseling in schools. For students in School Counseling programs only. Prerequisite: GCEP 501 Principles and Techniques of Counseling. For students in School Counseling programs only. Recommended prerequisite: GCEP 505 Strategies in School Counseling.

GCEP 510 Human Growth & Development

3 hours

The study of human growth and development recognizes that a complex interplay of biological, intrapsychic, relational, and social dynamics are in constant motion throughout one's lifespan. Therefore, this course examines human development from an ecosystemic perspective by surveying a variety of major developmental theories as applied across the lifespan and identifying the use of those theories in the practice of Counseling and Marriage and Family Therapy. The influence of cultural dynamics on human development is also considered, as expressed through dominant social values shaping our understanding and experience of self, family, gender, race, ethnicity, and spirituality. Emphasis is placed on applying developmental theories in the assessment and diagnosis of individuals, couples, and families, and in the educational environment.

GCEP 511 Ethical and Legal Issues

3 hours

This course is preparatory for students' schoolbased internship experience, and is designed to acquaint students with the professional, legal, and ethical issues with which school counselors and school psychologists grapple. Students will become familiar with the ACA and ASCA or APA and NASP ethical codes, Oregon laws related to licensure and practicing as a school counselor or school psychologist, as well as the legal and professional responsibilities of school counselors and school psychologists, and will understand and experience how their values interact with the implementation of their codes. Students will also understand licensure and certification requirements relevant to their respective fields as part of their ongoing professional identity development. For students in School Counseling and School Psychology Programs only.

GCEP 514 Couple Therapy

3 hours

This course equips the student to function more effectively in providing systemically-oriented conjoint couple therapy. Attention is given to understanding and assessing the couple as an interacting system; treatment planning; developing and maintaining therapeutic balance; and acquiring and practicing specific skills and frameworks for systemic case conceptualization, intervention, and termination. Focus is on an integrative, holistic paradigm of couple functioning, including diversity. A common-factors and core competencies approach to interventions and the use of the therapeutic triangle as the basic structure for conjoint couple counseling are emphasized throughout. Pre-Requisite: GCEP 500 and GCEP 501

GCEP 515 Treatment Planning I

1 hour

Internship is a supervised experiential learning component of the school counseling program. As such, students will gain hands-on experience under the direct supervision of a licensed and experienced school counselor in developing clinical skills for working with a variety of clients in a school setting, and experience in carrying out the full spectrum of tasks in which professional school counselors engage. Students will also participate in campus-based group supervision of the above process. Pass/No Pass. Corequisite: GCEP 512 Internship A: Early Childhood and Elementary School Counseling I or GCEP 516.

GCEP 516 School Counseling Internship I

3 hours

The school counseling internship contributes to the development of a conjoint school counselor identity of both mental health professional and educational leader. It is a supervised experiential learning component of the school counseling program. As such, students will gain hands-on experience under the direct supervision of a licensed and experienced school counselor in developing clinical skills for working with a variety of students in a school setting, and educational leader skills for carrying out the full spectrum of tasks in which professional school counselors engage. Students will also participate in campus-based group supervision of the above process. Pass/No Pass. For Master of Arts in School Counseling students only. Prerequisites: Student must have (a) completed all other coursework with a B or better grade, (b) applied and been accepted as an internship candidate, and (c) attended the Internship Orientation (During spring semester of that year). Corequisites: GCEP 568 Action research Designs I and GCEP 515 Treatment Planning.

GCEP 517 School Counseling Internship II

3 hours

The school counseling internship contributes to the development of a conjoint school counselor identity of both mental health professional and educational leader. It is a supervised experiential learning component of the school counseling program. As such, students will gain hands-on experience under the direct supervision of a licensed and experienced school counselor in developing clinical skills for working with a variety of students in a school setting, and educational leader skills for carrying out the full spectrum of tasks in which school counselors engage. Students will also participate in campus-based group supervision of the above process. Pass/No Pass. For Master of Arts in School Counseling programs only. Prerequisite: GCEP 516 School Counseling Internship I. Corequisites: GCEP 569 Action Research Designs II, GCEP 518 Treatment Planning II, and 519 School Counseling Portfolio.

GCEP 518 Treatment Planning II

1 hour

This course is intended to follow up GCEP 504 Childhood and Adolescent Disorders and operates in conjunction with GCEP 513 Internship A: Early Childhood and Elementary Counseling I or GCEP 517 Internship B: Middle Level and High School Counseling I. The student will explore comprehensive treatment planning strategies, including the development of written statements of cognitive, behavioral, and emotional symptoms; systemic processes; short-term objectives; intervention strategies, appropriate community referrals, and collaboration with the school systems and parents. Various therapeutic methods utilized in treatment and management of mental disorders will be presented. Pass/No Pass. Co-Requisite: GCEP 513 or GCEP 517

GCEP 519 School Counseling Portfolio

1 hour

The School Counseling Portfolio is the capstone of both the degree and licensure only programs, and is done concurrent with the student's final semester of internship. This multidimensional project includes four sections. In Part I the student will prepare a comprehensive paper detailing his or her theory of the nature of persons, the change process, healthy/unhealthy functioning, and the therapeutic process. In Part II the student will demonstrate the application of this theory in an actual case presentation through the use of video, session transcripts, and written reflection, thereby demonstrating perceptual, conceptual, and executive clinical skills. In Part III the student will present a 3- year growth plan, a counselor introduction statement, and a professional résumé. In part IV the student will provide work samples for each of the licensure standards for school counselors set forth by TSPC. This four-part portfolio will be evaluated by a GDC supervisor and a licensed professional school counselor (outside reader) from the community. Pass/No Pass. Co-Requisite: GCEP 513 or GCEP 517. Additional course fee required.

GCEP 520 Personality and Counseling Theory

3 hours

This course is a survey of major contemporary theories of counseling and personality development with particular emphasis on the etiology, assessment, and treatment of psychopathological states as interpreted within various theoretical frameworks. The course surveys the major figures and their theories in the area of personality and counseling modalities. Theorists are examined to discover their views of anthropology, psychopathology, normalcy, behavioral, and relational assessment, in addition to their therapeutic goals and interventions. The course explores each theory in light of social and cultural diversity as well as the integrative impact of spirituality and religiosity on the development of the person. The systemic perspective, which recognizes that personality is embedded in various systems (family, relational, social, community and cultural), is considered throughout.

GCEP 522 Advanced Clinical Skills

2 hours

It is crucial that professional counselors, after a basic framework of counseling is in place and an introspective process has begun, be trained in the advanced clinical skills of helping. To do this well, the counselor must be trained in such topics and skills as: transference and counter-transference, influencing skills, treatment planning, spirituality, and termination. This course will introduce the student to these counseling topics and more. This course builds on GCEP 501 and utilizes the Egan Model of Counseling described in that course. Concurrent with the student's final semester of internship, this multidimensional clinical project involves the student demonstrating perceptual, conceptual, and executive skills; demonstrating minimum practice standards in the legal, ethical and effective treatment of clients. Students are expected to prepare a comprehensive paper detailing their primary theoretical orientation, including perspective of the nature of persons, change and dysfunction, as well as the therapeutic process. Additionally, the portfolio includes video, session transcripts, psychosocial assessment, and written reflection which will be reviewed by the instructor and a licensed mental health professional in the community. Intended for Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling students only. Pass/No Pass. Co-Requisite: GCEP 593. Additional course fee required.

GCEP 591 Clinical Internship

1 hour

The clinical internship is the culminating field experience for students in the Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling programs. This course will be the experiential application of the counseling skills learned in earlier courses, with a focus on clinical, ethical and systemic conceptualization and practice. Students will have an on-site placement in a public or private mental health setting, with the goal of creating the necessary bridge between training and professionalism. The goal of these courses is the attainment of competency equivalent to that of an entry level professional mental health professional, and consists of the primary components of counseling practice under the direct clinical supervision of a site supervisor, and case consultation and supervision facilitated by a university instructor. This course is intended for Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling students only. Pass/No Pass. Prerequisites for CMHC: GCEP 500, GCEP 501, GCEP 502, GCEP 510, GCEP 520, GCEP 530, GCEP 540, GCEP 550. Pre-Requisites for MCFC: GCEP 500, GCEP 501, GCEP 502, GCEP 510, GCEP 514, GCEP 520, GCEP 524, GCEP 530, GCEP 540, GCEP 550. Corequisite for CMHC and MCFC: GCEP 599 Students must have (a) completed all prerequisites with a B or better grade, (b) applied and been accepted as an internship candidate, and (c) attended the Internship Orientation (during spring semester of that year).

GCEP 592 Clinical Internship I

3 hours

The clinical internship is the culminating field experience for students in the Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling programs. This course will be the experiential application of the counseling skills learned in earlier courses, with a focus on clinical, ethical and systemic conceptualization and practice. ## GCEP 595 Special Study In

.5-3 hours

A specially designed and individually tailored course of research involving in-depth study of a particular question, problem, or issue presented by the student. The student must make application for the study prior to registration for the semester in which the study will be carried out. The application must be approved by both the faculty member overseeing the study and the department chair.

GCEP 596 Treatment Planning

1 hour

This course runs concurrently with GCEP 591 Clinical Internship I, and focuses on the development and implementation of treatment plans, reporting and assessing progress of treatment, appropriate referral procedures, and consultation. This course considers traditional and contemporary approaches to assessment, treatment planning, and intervention based in biopsychosocial systems and evidence-based interventions. It is expected that case conceptualization and treatment plans be consistent with diagnosis [DSM-IV-TR] and the counselor's theoretical orientation. The goal is to assist student interns with the development of advanced clinical counseling and case conceptualization skills that are consistent with sound clinical, ethical, and systemic practice. This course is intended for Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling students only. Pass/No Pass.

GCEP 597 Treatment Planning I

1 hour

This course runs concurrently with GCEP 592 Clinical Internship I, and focuses on the development and implementation of treatment plans, reporting and assessing progress of treatment, appropriate referral procedures, and consultation. This course considers traditional and contemporary approaches to assessment, treatment planning, and intervention based in biopsychosocial systems and evidence-based interventions. It is expected that case conceptualization and treatment plans be consistent with diagnosis [DSM-IV-TR] and the counselor's theoretical orientation. The goal is to assist student interns with the development of advanced clinical counseling and case conceptualization skills that are consistent with sound clinical, ethical, and systemic practice. This course is intended for Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling students only. Pass/No Pass. Co-Requisite: GCEP 592

GCEP 598 Treatment Planning II

1 hour

This course runs concurrently with GCEP 593 Clinical Internship I, and focuses on the development and implementation of treatment plans, reporting and assessing progress of treatment, appropriate referral procedures, and consultation. This course considers traditional and contemporary approaches to assessment, treatment planning, and intervention based in biopsychosocial systems and evidence-based interventions. It is expected that case conceptualization and treatment plans be consistent with diagnosis [DSM-IV-TR] and the counselor's theoretical orientation. The goal is to assist student interns with the development of advanced clinical counseling and case conceptualization skills that are consistent with sound clinical, ethical, and systemic practice. This course is intended for Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling students only. Pass/No Pass. Co-Requisite: GCEP 593

GCEP 599 Treatment Planning

1 hour

This course runs concurrently with GCEP 594 Clinical Internship I, and focuses on the development and implementation of treatment plans, reporting and assessing progress of treatment, appropriate referral procedures, and consultation. This course considers traditional and contemporary approaches to assessment, treatment planning, and intervention based in biopsychosocial systems and evidence-based interventions. It is expected that case conceptualization and treatment plans be consistent with diagnosis [DSM-IV-TR] and the counselor's theoretical orientation. The goal is to assist student interns with the development of advanced clinical counseling and case conceptualization skills that are consistent with sound clinical, ethical, and systemic practice. This course is intended for Clinical Mental Health and Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling students only. Pass/No Pass. Co-Requisite: GCEP 591

GCEP 611 Adv School Psych Research I

1 hour

This course will help students learn about and apply emerging research in school psychology, learning, and school improvement. Special emphasis will be placed on diversity issues in each of these research areas. There will be a focus on how this information can help school psychologists be more effective in encouraging student achievement acknowledging individual differences and diversity issues. Prerequisite: hold an Initial School Psychologist License.

GCEP 612 Adv School Psych Research II

2 hours

This course builds upon GCEP 611. It will focus on issues of learning and diversity, and the relevant research on these topics, such as culturally sensitive instruments. The course will be a combination of lecture, group discussion, and student presentations. Students will write a literature review focusing on learning and diversity (preapproved by the professor) of publishable quality. Prerequisites: hold an Initial School Psychologist License and GCEP 611.

GCEP 613 Advanced Leadership, Collaboration, & Advocacy I: With School Personnel, Parents, & the Community

1 hour

This systems course will emphasize the importance of school counselors working from a systems perspective to encourage student success in the classroom. Special focus will be placed on how to work most effectively with colleagues, staff, parents, and the public, separately with each system when appropriate, and when to work collaboratively with two or more systems, and the impact it might have on the student. The role of the school psychologist as a leader, collaborating with others, and advocating for the student will be explored in consideration of ethical and legal guidelines. Prerequisite: hold an Initial School Psychology License.

GCEP 614 Advanced Leadership, Collaboration, & Advocacy II: With Diverse & Special Interest Groups

1 hour

This systems course will explore how to work effectively with culturally, ethnically, and socioeconomically diverse students and/or parents, teachers, school personnel, and communities. There will also be an emphasis on special interest groups and how to work collaboratively with students and/or parents, teachers, school personnel, and communities to encourage student success. It will also consider the role of the school psychologist in taking leadership, collaboration, and advocacy when working with diverse and specialized interest groups. Prerequisites: hold an Initial School Psychologist License and GCEP 612.

GCEP 616 Law and School Psychologist

1 hour

This course is designed for individuals with an Initial Psychologist License. It will address advanced legal issues encountered by school psychologists. Emphasis will be placed on reviewing school law pertaining to school psychologists. Through case discussion, individuals will have an opportunity to apply school law. A legal decision-making process for school psychologists will be introduced and applied in this course. Prerequisite: hold an Initial School Psychologist License.

MMSC Course Descriptions

MMSC 500 Introduction to the PA Profession

.5 hours

This course covers the following topics:

- Profession Issues to include: (1) History of the PA profession, (2) PA professional organizations (3) Physician-PA team and interprofessional practice, (4) Political issues that affect PA practice
- Reimbursement, Documentation of Care, Coding, and Billing
- PA Licensure, Credentialing, and Laws and Regulations Regarding Professional Practice
- Intellectual Honesty and Appropriate Professional Conduct

MMSC 502 Research and Evidence-based Medicine

.5 hours

This course prepares students to interpret and evaluate the medical literature, including its application to individualized patient care. This instruction assists students in maintaining a critical, current and operational knowledge of new medical findings required for the prevention and treatment of disease. Instruction includes:

- Framing of research questions
- Sampling methods
- Limits of medical research.
- Introduction and use of common medical databases

MMSC 504 Health Care Delivery Systems and Health Policy

.5 hours

This course covers the following topics:

- Health Care Delivery Systems to include (1) Coordinated Care Organizations (CCOs), (2) Rural Health
- Health Policy related to Healthcare Workforce
- Concepts of Public Health as they Relate to the Role of the Practicing PA to include (1) Role of Health Care Providers in Prevention of Disease and Maintenance of Population Health, (2) Provider Participation in Disease Surveillance, Reporting, and Intervention, (3) Public Health
- Reimbursement and Billing
- Patient Safety and Medical Errors

MMSC 506 Ethics and Social and Behavior Science

.5 hours

This course covers intellectual Honesty and Appropriate Academic Professional Conduct and Medical Ethics.

MMSC 508 Communication, Counseling and Education Techniques

.5 hours

This course introduces students to communication and counseling techniques. It covers basics of:

- Interpersonal and Communication Skills that result in (1) effective exchange of information and (2) collaboration with patients, their families, and other health care professionals
- Interviewing and eliciting a medical history
- Counseling and Patient Education that is (1) Patient-Centered, (2) Culturally Sensitive and Focused on Helping Patients Cope with Illness, Injury, and Stress, (3) Adhere to Prescribe Treatment Plans, and (4) Designed to Modify Patient Behaviors to More Healthful Patterns

MMSC 510 Introduction To Anatomy and Physiology

.5 hours

This course provides an overview of anatomy, physiology, and genetic and molecular mechanisms of health and disease. In addition, the course will include core knowledge about established and evolving biomedical and clinical sciences and the application of this knowledge to patient care.

MMSC 512 Introduction to Physical Exams

.5 hours

This course develops skills in patient evaluation to include:

- Caring for patients of all ages
  - # Interviewing and eliciting a medical history
  - # Performing complete and focused physical exam
  - # Generating a differential diagnosis
  - # Documenting a patient encounter
- Ordering and interpreting laboratory and diagnostic testing

MMSC 514 Introduction to Pharmacology

.5 hours

This course provides an introduction to pharmacotherapy. In addition, the course will cover acute and longitudinal – pharmaceutical and non-pharmaceutical – patient management that is patient-centered and inclusive while addressing medical issues, patient education and patient safety.

MMSC 520 Behavior Medicine

2 hours

This course covers mental health conditions to include the pathophysiology, neurophysiology, evaluation, diagnosis, detection, and treatment of each. Topics covered include, but are not limited to, abuse and neglect, anxiety disorders, mood disorders, conduct disorders, dissociative disorders, eating disorders, obsessive compulsive disorders, attention deficit, autism, personality disorders, schizophrenia, sleep-wake disorders, somatic symptoms, and trauma-related disorders.

In addition, detection and treatment of (1) substance abuse, (2) human sexuality, (3) issues of death, dying and loss, (4) response to illness, injury and stress, (5) principles of violence identification and prevention, and (6) a few additional key psychiatric/behavioral conditions will be covered.

MMSC 530 Human Anatomy and Physiology I

2 hours

This course provides an overview of anatomy, physiology, and genetic molecular mechanisms of health and disease as they relate to body system diseases and topics covered in this term.

MMSC 532 Human Anatomy and Physiology II

2 hours

This course provides an overview of anatomy, physiology, and genetic and molecular mechanisms of health and disease as they relate to body system diseases and topics covered in this term.

MMSC 534 Human Anatomy and Physiology III

2 hours

This course provides an overview of anatomy, physiology, and genetic and molecular mechanisms of health and disease as they relate to body system diseases and topics covered this term.

MMSC 540 Pathophysiology I

2.5 hours

This course provides a review of organ system topics covered in the Clinical Reasoning and Problem Based Learning and Clinical Reasoning and Problem Based Learning Lab series of courses. In addition, this course will cover topics that are not part of the problem-based learning modules and unique issues seen in special populations (primarily pediatrics and geriatrics). In all instances, the pathophysiology series looks at the disease process and helps to answer the “why” diseases present the way they do by understanding how diseases alter normal physiology.

MMSC 542 Pathophysiology II

3 hours

This course provides a review of organ system topics covered in the Clinical Reasoning and Problem Based Learning and Clinical Reasoning and Problem Based Learning Lab series of courses. In addition, this course will cover topics that are not part of the problem-based learning modules and unique issues seen in special populations (primarily pediatrics and geriatrics). In all instances, the pathophysiology series looks at the disease process and helps to answer the “why” diseases present the way they do by understanding how diseases alter normal physiology.

MMSC 544 Pathophysiology III

3 hours

This course provides a review of organ system topics covered in the Clinical Reasoning and Problem Based Learning and Clinical Reasoning and Problem Based Learning Lab series of courses. In addition, this course will cover topics that are not part of the problem-based learning modules and unique issues seen in special populations (primarily pediatrics and geriatrics). In all instances, the pathophysiology series looks at the disease process and helps to answer the “why” diseases present the way they do by understanding how diseases alter normal physiology.

MMSC 550 Pharmacotherapy and Patient Management I

2.5 hours

This course is designed to provide the link between pharmacology, clinical practice, and prescribing medications. This course sequence will present the pharmacology, pharmacokinetics, side effects, complications, dosages, contraindications, clinical pearls, and patient education for medications related to body systems and diseases covered this term.

MMSC 552 Pharmacotherapy and Patient Management II

3 hours

This course is designed to provide the link between pharmacology, clinical practice, and prescribing medications. This course sequence will present the pharmacology, pharmacokinetics, side effects, complications, dosages, contraindications, clinical pearls, and patient education for medications related to body systems and diseases covered this term.

MMSC 554 Pharmacotherapy and Patient Management III

3 hours

This course is designed to provide the link between pharmacology, clinical practice, and prescribing medications. This course sequence will present the pharmacology, pharmacokinetics, side effects, complications, dosages, contraindications, clinical pearls, and patient education for medications related to body systems and diseases covered this term.

MMSC 560 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning I

7 hours

This course provides instruction related to the development of problem-solving and medical decision-making skills. It develops student knowledge in anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, pharmacology/pharmacotherapeutics, and patient management of organ systems and topics covered during the term. Using student-led problem-based concepts, the course provides instruction in patient assessment (evaluation and diagnosis) and management includes caring for patients of all ages from initial presentation through ongoing follow-up.

Students will develop skills in (1) interviewing and eliciting a medical history; (2) performing complete and focused physical examinations; (3) generating differential diagnoses; and (4) ordering and interpreting diagnostic studies.

Patient management instruction will help students develop treatment plans that are (1) patient centered, (2) inclusive, (3) addressing medical issues, and (4) provide patient education and referral. Instruction will help students develop basic counseling and patient education skills that are (1) Patient-Centered, (2) Culturally Sensitive and Focused on Helping Patients Cope with Illness, Injury, and Stress, (3) Adhere to Prescribe Treatment Plans, and (4) Designed to Modify Patient Behaviors to More Healthful Patterns.

The course covers medical care across the life span in prevention, emergent, acute, chronic and rehabilitative. In most instances, all age groups are addressed (prenatal, infant, children, adolescents, adult, and elderly).

MMSC 562 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning II

9 hours

This course provides instruction related to the development of problem-solving and medical decision-making skills. It develops student knowledge in anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, pharmacology/pharmacotherapeutics, and patient management of organ systems and topics covered during the term. Using student-led problem-based concepts, the course provides instruction in patient assessment (evaluation and diagnosis) and management includes caring for patients of all ages from initial presentation through ongoing follow-up.

Students will develop skills in (1) interviewing and eliciting a medical history; (2) performing complete and focused physical examinations; (3) generating differential diagnoses; and (4) ordering and interpreting diagnostic studies.

The course covers medical care across the life span in prevention, emergent, acute, chronic and rehabilitative. In most instances, all age groups are addressed (prenatal, infant, children, adolescents, adult, and elderly).

MMSC 570 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning Lab I

1 hour

This course takes the PBL session into the laboratory and clinical skills unit where hands-on training further develops patient assessment and management.

Students work in small groups, developing skills in (1) interviewing and eliciting a medical history; (2) performing complete and focused physical examinations; (3) generating differential diagnoses; and (4) ordering, performing, and interpreting diagnostic studies.

Instruction will cover medical care across the life span in prevention, emergent, acute, and chronic management that helps develop treatment plans that are (1) patient-centered, (2) inclusive, (3) addressing medical issues, and (4) provides patient education and referral.

Finally, students will learn about patient safety, quality improvement, prevention of medical errors, and risk management.

MMSC 572 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning Lab II

1 hour

This course takes the PBL session into the laboratory and clinical skills unit where hands-on training further develops patient assessment and management.

Students work in small groups, developing skills in (1) interviewing and eliciting a medical history; (2) performing complete and focused physical examinations; (3) generating differential diagnoses; and (4) ordering, performing, and interpreting diagnostic studies.

Instruction will cover medical care across the life span in prevention, emergent, acute, and chronic management that helps develop treatment plans that are (1) patient-centered, (2) inclusive, (3) addressing medical issues, and (4) provides patient education and referral.

Finally, students will learn about patient safety, quality improvement, prevention of medical errors, and risk management.

MMSC 574 Clinical Reasoning Problem Based Learning Lab III

1 hour

This course takes the PBL session into the laboratory and clinical skills unit where hands-on training further develops patient assessment and management.

Students work in small groups, developing skills in (1) interviewing and eliciting a medical history; (2) performing complete and focused physical examinations; (3) generating differential diagnoses; and (4) ordering, performing, and interpreting diagnostic studies.

Instruction will cover medical care across the life span in prevention, emergent, acute, and chronic management that helps develop treatment plans that are (1) patient-centered, (2) inclusive, (3) addressing medical issues, and (4) provides patient education and referral.

Finally, students will learn about patient safety, quality improvement, prevention of medical errors, and risk management.

MMSC 580 Global Health and Special Populations I

2 hours

This course prepares students to provide medical care to patients from diverse populations both domestically and internationally. It seeks to increase awareness of health disparities and inequities domestically and globally across diverse patient populations and highlight the impact of social determinants of health on individual and population health and wellbeing.

Instruction related to medical care and diversity prepares students to (1) evaluate their own values and avoid stereotyping, (2) become aware of differing health beliefs, values and expectations of patients and other health care professionals and how it impacts (a) communication, (b) decision-making, (c) compliance and (d) health outcomes.

MMSC 582 Global Health and Special Populations II

2 hours

This course provides instruction in medical topics for pediatric, adult and geriatric populations, including preventive care across the lifespan and nutrition and obesity counseling. It also provides an introduction to cultural nutrition and alternative therapies to meet the needs of a diverse patient population.

MMSC 584 Global Health and Special Populations III

2 hours

This course is focused on developing organization, communication and leadership traits. Instruction will look at how individuals and groups think, communicate and interact and analyze what factors enhance these interactions to positively impact the success of the organization, patient-provider relationship, and patient-centered healthcare teams. The purpose of this course is to create a more effective service-oriented clinician. The course will examine some of the primary theories and principles of motivation, communication, leadership attributes, managing conflict, decision making, team building, and quality improvement. It will provide examples of how greater knowledge and understanding of effective leadership skills is vital to successful and sound decision-making, problem-solving, conflict management, team building, and managing change to improve healthcare teams, organizations, and patient care.

MMSC 600 Principles of General Surgery

3 hours

This course covers concepts of surgical assessment, basic surgical skills and procedures, surgical complications, and management of surgical patients. It builds on the foundation of the previous medicine courses and expands on etiology, pathophysiology, clinical manifestation, and diagnosis, and appropriate management of selected surgical conditions including care of acute and chronic patients.

Emphasis is on students developing competency in the principles and practices involved in aseptic and basic surgical techniques, surgical risk assessment, wound closure, wound management, anesthesia, and preoperative, intraoperative and postoperative evaluation and management.

MMSC 602 Principles of Emergency Medicine

3 hours

This course prepares students to recognize, rapidly assess, and effectively manage emergent situations, illness, or injury. Problem-based case studies and team-based activities are used to encourage the development of teamwork, collaboration, and interdisciplinary value. Basic Life Support (BLS) and Advanced Cardiac Life Support (ACLS) are part of this course.

MMSC 604 Transition to Clerkships

2 hours

This course is designed to (1) prepare the student for entering clinical rotations, (2) discuss SCPE expectations and behavior, and (3) promote interprofessional relationships.

MMSC 610 Family Medicine SCPE

4 hours

Supervised clinical practice experiences enable students to meet the program's learning outcomes expected of students, to include (1) preventive, (2) emergent, (3) acute, and (4) chronic patient encounters. Additional outcomes met during the SCPE year include providing (1) medical care across the life span to include, infants, children, adolescents, adults, and the elderly, (2) women's health (to include prenatal and gynecologic care), (3) surgical management to include pre-operative, intra-operative, and post-operative care, and (4) care for behavior and mental health conditions.

In addition, SCPE clerkships should expose students to various care settings to include, (1) outpatient, (2) emergent, (3) inpatient, and the (4) operating room. SCPE clerkships occur with licensed physicians or PAs. In rare instances, vetted non-physician or PA preceptors will be used. PAEA 'end of rotation' exams will be administered for all SCPE clerkships with the exception of the two electives.

Prior to starting the experiential learning, students will attend three intensive courses which includes (1) Principles of General Surgery, (2) Principles of Emergency Medicine, and (3) Transition to Clerkships.

MMSC 620 Internal Medicine SCPE

4 hours

Supervised clinical practice experiences enable students to meet the program's learning outcomes expected of students, to include (1) preventive, (2) emergent, (3) acute, and (4) chronic patient encounters. Additional outcomes met during the SCPE year include providing (1) medical care across the life span to include, infants, children, adolescents, adults, and the elderly, (2) women's health (to include prenatal and gynecologic care), (3) surgical management to include pre-operative, intra-operative, and post-operative care, and (4) care for behavior and mental health conditions.

SCPE clerkships occur with licensed physicians or PAs. In rare instances, vetted non-physician or PA preceptors will be used. PAEA 'end of rotation' exams will be administered for all SCPE clerkships with the exception of the two electives.

Prior to starting the experiential learning, students will attend three intensive courses which includes (1) Principles of General Surgery, (2) Principles of Emergency Medicine, and (3) Transition to Clerkships.

MMSC 660 Prenatal and Gynecology Medicine

4 hours

Supervised clinical practice experiences enable students to meet the program's learning outcomes expected of students, to include (1) preventive, (2) emergent, (3) acute, and (4) chronic patient encounters. Additional outcomes met during the SCPE year include providing (1) medical care across the life span to include, infants, children, adolescents, adults, and the elderly, (2) women's health (to include prenatal and gynecologic care), (3) surgical management to include pre-operative, intra-operative, and post-operative care, and (4) care for behavior and mental health conditions.

In addition, SCPE clerkships should expose students to various care settings to include, (1) outpatient, (2) emergent, (3) inpatient, and the (4) operating room. SCPE clerkships occur with licensed physicians or PAs. In rare instances, vetted non-physician or PA preceptors will be used. PAEA 'end of rotation' exams will be administered for all SCPE clerkships with the exception of the two electives.

MMSC 690 Summative

5 hours

The summative phase measures mastery in the GFU MMSc PA graduate competencies and outcomes, associated ARC-PA Standards, and NCCPA Blueprint items. The evaluation will consider each Graduate Competency category below:

1. Medical knowledge (MK)
2. Interpersonal and communication skills (ICS)
3. Patient care and clinical problem solving (PC)
4. Technical skills (TS)
5. Professionalism (P)

This phase is 1 month in duration and represents the final stage of the program and includes the following 'summative' evaluations:

- Written examination covering the knowledge base content associated with all the basic medical and clinical sciences and its application to the practice of medicine (testing aptitude of competency and outcomes relevant to [1] Medical Knowledge and [3] Patient Care and Clinical Problem Solving.
- Objective Structured Clinical Examination (OSCE), which is used to evaluate direct patient care skills including obtaining the medical history, physical examination skills, communication, and professionalism - testing aptitude of competency and outcomes relevant to [1] Medical Knowledge, [2] Interpersonal and Communication Skills, [3] Patient Care and Clinical Problem Solving, and [5] Professionalism.

- Skill Specific Testing, which is used to assess the student's ability to perform and/or interpret the diagnostic and therapeutic skills - testing aptitude of competency and outcomes are relevant to [1] Medical Knowledge, [2] Interpersonal and Communication Skills, [3] Patient Care and Clinical Problem Solving, [4] Technical Skills, and [5] Professionalism.

Additional instruction will include:

- A review of patient safety, quality improvement, prevention of medical errors, and risk management
- Instruction about PA licensure, credentialing, and laws and regulations of professional practice
- In addition, the program curriculum will include instruction in the PA profession and current trends to include:
  - Physician-PA team relationship
  - Political issues that affect PA practice
  - PA professional organizations

Finally, students will also engage in preparation for the PANCE exam, Curriculum Vitae creation, and preparation for job interviews.

PDPT Course Descriptions

PDPT 500 Professional Practices in Physical Therapy

2 hours

This course introduces the student to current federal, state and local regulations regarding physical therapy practice. It also introduces the student to the history of the physical therapy profession and the role it has in health care including topics such as professional behavior, learning methods, ethical practice, professional writing and documentation, medical terminology, and functions of an autonomous practitioner. Emphasis is placed on developing effective attitudinal, interpersonal and communication skills within the health care system. Through class lectures and small group discussions students also explore his/her own moral values, teaching, and learning styles. Course also includes faculty directed application of skills and service to the community. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 503 Basic Patient Care Skills

2 hours

This course introduces the student to basic skills necessary for the practice of physical therapy to include taking a history, documentation, body mechanics, goniometry, vital signs, assistive equipment, patient movement and transfers, positioning, patient safety. Additional information includes the effects of inactivity, infection control, total joint arthroplasty and wound care. Principles from the Guide to Physical Therapy Practice are incorporated into the skills. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 504 Principles of Motor Control

2 hours

This course covers current theories in normal and abnormal motor development and motor control as it relates to the neuromuscular system. Topics include plasticity, skeletal muscle fatigue, neural mechanisms of muscle strengthening, spinal circuitry, reflexes, spasticity, rigidity, and balance and posture. Changes in motor development and motor control as aging occurs will also be discussed. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 510 Human Anatomy I

4 hours

This is the first of a two-term intensive course in gross human anatomy. This course includes advanced study of gross human anatomy utilizing cadaver dissection and includes lecture and laboratory sessions. Emphasis is placed on the musculoskeletal, cardiovascular, respiratory, and nervous systems. Utilization of additional methodologies such as radiographic, computerized tomographic, and magnetic resonance imaging is also included. Emphasis is also placed on head and neck, upper extremity, thorax and abdominal wall including bones, joints, nerves, and connective tissue. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 511 Human Anatomy II

3 hours

This is the second of a two-term intensive course in gross human anatomy. This course includes advanced study of gross human anatomy utilizing cadaver dissection and includes lecture and laboratory sessions. Emphasis is placed on the musculoskeletal, cardiovascular, respiratory, and nervous systems. Utilization of additional methodologies such as radiographic, computerized tomographic, and magnetic resonance imaging is also included. Emphasis is also placed on spine, pelvis, hip, knee, ankle, and foot, including bones, joints, nerves, and connective tissue. Prerequisite: Successful completion of PDPT 510

PDPT 520 Biomechanics and Kinesiology I

3 hours

This is the first of a two-term course in clinical biomechanics. This course investigates normal and pathological movement based on an understanding of muscle and joint mechanics as well as muscle testing and function. It is also designed to examine basic evaluation and clinical physical therapy skills such as range of motion, manual muscle testing, goniometry, stretching, and palpation. This course also includes medical and surgical management of orthopedic conditions. Kinesiology is studied from a clinical and functional approach and emphasis is placed on the head and neck, upper extremity, thorax and abdominal wall. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 521 Biomechanics and Kinesiology II

3 hours

This is the second of a two-term course in clinical biomechanics. This course investigates normal and pathological movement based on an understanding of muscle and joint mechanics as well as muscle testing and function. It is also designed to examine basic evaluation and clinical physical therapy skills such as range of motion, stretching, goniometry, manual muscle testing, and palpation. This course also includes medical and surgical management of orthopedic conditions. Kinesiology is studied from a clinical and functional approach and emphasis is placed on the spine, pelvis, hip, knee, ankle, and foot. Additional content such as gait analysis, posture assessment, and scoliosis will also be covered. Prerequisite: Successful completion of PDPT 520

PDPT 529 Evidence-Based Practice & Clinical Decision Making

2 hours

This course includes lecture, small group discussions and simulated patient-client clinical examination. Emphasis is placed on clinical cases and clinical problems using student-centered, problem-based learning format including evidence-based practice objectives. This course introduces the student to evidence-based practice and the process of critical inquiry. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 531 Neuroscience

4 hours

This course introduces the student to the fundamentals and essential concepts of neuromuscular function and includes an in-depth study of the anatomical and physiological study of the nervous system. Emphasis is placed on neuroanatomy, neurophysiology, and neurodevelopment. This course includes topics such as the peripheral and central nervous systems, and the auditory, visual, and vestibular systems and emphasizes disorders commonly found in physical therapy practice. Both acute and chronic pain mechanisms will also be discussed. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 540 Therapeutic Modalities

2 hours

This course is designed to provide the student with the knowledge and skills necessary to understand the physiology of pain and inflammation and how it relates to the selection and use of physical agents, mechanical modalities and electrotherapeutic modalities. Students will learn safety and evidence based reasoning for the selection and implementation of modalities. Lectures, small group discussion and hands on lab sessions will include thermal agents, cryotherapy, hydrotherapy, soft tissue mobilization, traction, compression, electrotherapeutic modalities and ultrasound. Students will be introduced to electromyography, nerve conduction, and fire-wire EMG. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 550 Therapeutic Exercise I

2 hours

This course is intended to provide basic patient care and clinical skills such as assistive devices and gait, bed mobility, draping, positioning, transfer training, dynamic stretching, strengthening, and principles of therapeutic exercise progression. Emphasis is placed on patient safety and handling, proper and safe body mechanics, patient communication and documentation for the therapist. This course also introduces the student to patient assessment and treatment through small group interaction, clinically-based studies and case study presentations. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 551 Therapeutic Exercise II

2 hours

This course is a continuation of PDPT 550 and emphasizes the principles of therapeutic exercise progression from the pediatric patient to the geriatric patient while utilizing exercise for injury prevention and reducing functional impairments. Current concepts in fitness evaluation and health education will be discussed. This course also introduces the student to the concepts of wellness and nutrition including education and prevention programs for individuals, groups, and communities. Prerequisite: Successful completion of PDPT 550

PDPT 560 Essentials of Research Methods

3 hours

This course is intended to provide students with fundamental knowledge of statistical design with emphasis on statistical methodology specific to the biological sciences. Introduction to evidence-based practice that includes question formation and analysis as it relates to current literature and physical therapy practice will also be discussed. The course will also include a review of current statistical models and provide a critical review of published literature with the students beginning to developing their individual or group professional research project. The student will also develop competence in understanding and applying the principles of research into clinical practice. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 570 Applied Physiology

3 hours

This course is a study of human physiology starts at the cellular level of function and progresses to looking at the interrelationships between organ systems. Areas stressed are the autonomic nervous, cardiovascular, renal, hematologic, immune, integumentary, pulmonary, gastrointestinal, endocrine, and skeletal systems. In addition the physiologic effects of pregnancy as well as organ histology are covered. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 573 Pathophysiology

3 hours

This course covers pathophysiology starting with the molecular and cellular processes that result in structural and functional pathophysiologic changes. Topics covered include cell and tissue injury, healing and repair, inflammation, infection, and cancer. Diseases of the endocrine metabolic, gastrointestinal, renal, musculoskeletal, genital, cardio-pulmonary, hematologic, nervous systems over the life-span are covered. Disease definition, incidence, etiology, pathogenesis, clinical manifestations and treatment approaches are discussed. Embryology is reviewed and congenital conditions covered. Prerequisite: Admission to the program or authorized by program director

PDPT 581 Comprehensive Clinical Experience

4 hours

This course is a 4-week comprehensive residency based clinical experience. Students will work in groups under direct supervision of a clinical faculty. Collaborative care may also be utilized with local physicians, licensed physical therapists, GFU DPT 2nd year students, as well as students from GFU Physician Assistant program. Groups will rotate through various simulated settings: outpatient physical therapy clinic, pediatrics, rehabilitation clinic, and acute care. Students are also expected to attend and present at GFU PT Health and Wellness Week as well as grand rounds type case presentations.

PDPT 600 Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Therapeutics

3 hours

This course covers normal human physiology of body systems and students receive instruction and practice skills associated with conditions related to the cardiopulmonary system. Special emphasis is placed on the body systems most directly affected by the practice of physical therapy. This course also applies the basic concepts and techniques in the management of patients with acute and chronic cardiac and pulmonary disorders. The student gains experience in the interpretation of EKG, heart and lung sounds, and hematological and serum chemistry analysis. Students will demonstrate proper techniques in laboratory sessions. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 610 Pharmacology for Physical Therapy

3 hours

This course covers the general principles of pharmacology. This includes pharmacokinetics, how drugs are administered, absorbed, metabolized and excreted by the body, and pharmacodynamics, how the drugs have their effects on cells. For each organ system the pharmacologic treatment of disease processes will be explored, looking at the mechanism of action, indications, adverse effects, and drug interactions of the major drugs commonly used. Impact of different agents on exercise is considered. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 611 Medical Surgical and Integumentary Conditions

3 hours

This course covers physical therapy examination and intervention for the medical surgical and integumentary systems. Also included are the concepts of the inflammatory process, types and classification of wounds and wound care, patient education and prevention will also be addressed. Medical and surgical interventions of burns, surgical incisions and wounds, as well as other integumentary procedures such as debridement and non-surgical protocols will be discussed. In addition, physical therapy evaluation and treatment procedures for the management of selected systems such as genitourinary, renal, immune, gastrointestinal, and endocrine will also be covered. Client care problems are emphasized with a problem-solving/case-study format. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 619 Health and Wellness in Physical Therapy

2 hours

Concepts of nutrition, health, and wellness are addressed. Topics include diabetes, heart disease, obesity, with emphasis on prevention and wellness. Clinical nutrition as it relates to post-surgical conditions, chronic illness and disease will also be discussed. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 620 Geriatric Physical Therapy

2 hours

This course is designed to provide an intense study of geriatric physical therapy and related issues. Specific emphasis is given to the normal development process of aging, preventative care and management of pathological aging. Additionally, this course includes a holistic approach to the geriatric patient as an active participant in their health care. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 630 Neurorehabilitation I

4 hours

This didactic and laboratory-based course requires students to apply principles of motor control and neuroscience to the clinical care of adults with neurologic health conditions resulting from acquired disorders of the central nervous system. Using current evidence, students will engage in a systematic clinical decision-making approach to the physical therapy examination, movement system diagnosis/ prognosis, and management of these individuals. This approach will guide students to integrate their knowledge of a patient's neurologic health condition with data derived from the patient's medical history, relevant standardized tests and measures, and functional task analyses, enabling them to develop and evaluate causal hypotheses and generate goals addressing body structure/ function impairments, activity limitations, and participation restrictions. Design, progression, and outcomes assessment of the physical therapy plan of care will be considered, guided by current concepts of neuroplasticity and neurotherapeutics. A holistic, interdisciplinary team approach to neurorehabilitation will be emphasized. Prerequisites: Successful completion of year 1 coursework or authorization by Program Director

PDPT 631 Neurorehabilitation II

3 hours

This didactic and laboratory-based course continues to build on the principles of motor control and neuroscience previously taught, and expands on concepts introduced in PDPT 630. This course will focus on the application of a systematic clinical decision-making approach to the physical therapy care of adults with neurologic health conditions resulting from specific acquired disorders of both the central and peripheral nervous systems. Students will be required to integrate their knowledge of current evidence addressing each neurologic disease / disorder with the patient's medical history, interdisciplinary examination findings, and results of tests and measures examining body structure / function impairments, activity limitations, and participation restrictions. Clinical decisions addressing the areas of examination, movement system diagnosis, goal-setting, design and progression of the physical therapy plan of care, and outcomes assessment will be considered as they relate to each health condition. Prerequisites: Successful completion of PDPT 630

PDPT 649 Medical Screening and Differential Diagnosis

2 hours

This course is designed to equip the student with the skills necessary to perform a medical screening and differential diagnosis. Lectures and hands on lab sessions will include algorithms for problem solving, systems review of pathology, integration of diagnostic imaging and laboratory testing in diagnosis, palpation and observation. Prerequisite: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 650 Orthopedic Assessment and Rehabilitation I

4 hours

This course addresses the examination, evaluation, diagnosis, prognosis, and intervention of orthopedic/musculoskeletal injuries of the upper and lower extremities. Medical screening and differential diagnosis will also be covered. Students will plan, initiate, develop, and implement appropriate therapeutic treatments including manual techniques, outcome assessment, and patient education. This course will also consist of laboratory sessions where the students must demonstrate techniques under the direct supervision of a faculty member. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 651 Orthopedic Assessment and Rehabilitation II

4 hours

This course addresses the examination, evaluation, diagnosis, prognosis, and intervention of orthopedic/musculoskeletal injuries of the cervical, thoracic, lumbar, and pelvic regions as well as TMJ. Students will plan, initiate, develop, and implement appropriate therapeutic treatments including manual techniques, outcome assessment, and patient education. This course will also consist of laboratory sessions where the students must demonstrate techniques under the direct supervision of a faculty member. Prerequisites: Successful completion of PDPT650

PDPT 660 Prosthetics and Orthotics

2 hours

This course covers the examination, evaluation, diagnosis, prognosis, and intervention for individuals with upper and lower limb amputations or impairments requiring external stabilization such as orthotics, splints, or prosthetics. This course will also consist of laboratory sessions where the students must demonstrate techniques under the direct supervision of a faculty member. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 670 Pediatric Physical Therapy

3 hours

Students receive instruction in the examination, evaluation, diagnosis, prognosis, and intervention of children with musculoskeletal and neuromuscular disorders. Emphasis will be placed on school-based practice, early intervention, age-specific standardized developmental tests and assessments, and the psychosocial needs of the child and family. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 680 Clinical Internship II

6 hours

This course is a 6 week full time clinical experience. Students will be under direct supervision of a clinical instructor at an assigned outpatient physical therapy clinic, rehabilitation clinic, or acute care facility. Clinical sites vary in their location and it is the student's responsibility for travel and living expenses if they occur. Prerequisites: Successful completion of PDPT 580 and preparedness approval

PDPT 690 Diagnostic Imaging for Physical Therapists

2 hours

Students receive instruction in the various imaging techniques used in the diagnosis of musculoskeletal and neuromuscular disorders including x-ray, computerized tomography, magnetic resonance, ultrasound and radioisotope imaging. The class covers the principles of each technique, discusses the advantages and disadvantages of each and focuses on the clinical interpretation and implications for rehabilitation. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 1 or authorized by program director

PDPT 710 Psychosocial Aspects of Patient Care and Disability

1 hour

This course covers issues related to the culture of disability, social and behavioral effects of illness and injury and the influence disability has on families and patients. Issues relating with coping, dying, living with, and acquiring a disability will also be discussed. Emphasis will be placed on the interpersonal relationship between the healthcare provider and the patient and family. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 2 or authorized by program director

PDPT 720 Administration in Physical Therapy

3 hours

This course introduces students to various aspects of physical therapy practice management. Topics include: demographic analysis and feasibility study, business plan design, contract negotiation, marketing strategies and practice building, daily operations, billing and productivity, liability, personnel management, human resources and community service. Elements unique to private practice, hospital and skilled care facilities will be analyzed. Current topics in government health care policy will be discussed. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 2 or authorized by program director

PDPT 730 Professional Seminar

1 hour

This course covers professional licensure, comprehensive examination, preparation for the national exam, continuing education requirements, and post-graduate opportunities in teaching and research. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 2 or authorized by program director

PDPT 750 Professional Research Project I

1 hour

In this course students will develop a scholarly professional research project. The professional research project may take the form of: assisting faculty in their on-going research, developing and delivering an educational program for a specific audience, evidence-based clinical research, patient-related outcomes research, and other projects proposed by the student which is agreed upon by their faculty research advisor. Prerequisites: Successful completion of prior coursework or authorized by program director

PDPT 751 Professional Research Project II

1 hour

In this course students will develop a scholarly professional research project. The professional research project may take the form of: assisting faculty in their on-going research, developing and delivering an educational program for a specific audience, evidence-based clinical research, patient-related outcomes research, and other projects proposed by the student which is agreed upon by their faculty research advisor. Prerequisites: Successful completion of prior coursework or authorized by program director

PDPT 752 Professional Research Project III

1 hour

In this course students will develop a scholarly professional research project. The professional research project may take the form of: assisting faculty in their on-going research, developing and delivering an educational program for a specific audience, evidence-based clinical research, patient-related outcomes research, and other projects proposed by the student which is agreed upon by their faculty research advisor. Prerequisites: Successful completion of prior coursework or authorized by program director

PDPT 753 Professional Research Proj IV

2 hours

In this course students will complete a scholarly professional research project. The professional research project may take the form of: assisting faculty in their on-going research, developing and delivering an educational program for a specific audience, evidence-based clinical research, patient-related outcomes research, and other projects proposed by the student which is agreed upon by their faculty research advisor. Students are expected to successfully pass and defend the professional research project. Prerequisites: Successful completion of prior coursework or authorized by program director

PDPT 760 Professional Duty and Social Responsibility

2 hours

This course emphasizes service learning. During this course, the students will identify community needs, develop a service-learning project in conjunction with a community partner, and carry out the project. Ideas related to social responsibility, advocacy and professionalism are explored through class room activities, formal papers, reflective journaling, readings and a final project presentation. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 2 or authorized by program director

PDPT 770 Special Topics

1 hour

Students receive instruction in topics of current interest and provide advanced study in specific areas such as running, orthotics, casting and bracing for pediatrics, 3-D motion analysis, footwear design, endurance training, athletic taping, educational strategies, fatigue, and other areas related to physical therapy. Prerequisites: Successful completion of coursework year 2 or authorized by program director

PDPT 780 Clinical Internship III

8 hours

This course is an 8 week full time clinical experience. Students will be under direct supervision of a clinical instructor at an assigned outpatient physical therapy clinic, rehabilitation clinic, pediatric facility, or acute care facility. Clinical sites vary in their location and it is the student's responsibility for travel and living expenses if they occur. Prerequisite: Successful completion of PDPT 680 and preparedness approval

PDPT 781 Clinical Internship IV

2-9 hours

This course is a 9 week full time clinical experience. Students will be under direct supervision of a clinical instructor at an assigned outpatient physical therapy clinic, rehabilitation clinic, pediatric facility, or acute care facility. Clinical sites vary in their location and it is the student's responsibility for travel and living expenses if they occur. Prerequisite: Successful completion of PDPT 780

PDPT 782 Clinical Internship V

10 hours

This course is a 10 week full time clinical experience. Students will be under direct supervision of a clinical instructor at an assigned outpatient physical therapy clinic, rehabilitation clinic, pediatric facility, or acute care facility. Clinical sites vary in their location and it is the student's responsibility for travel and living expenses if they occur. Prerequisite: Successful completion of PDPT 781

PDPT 795 Independent Study

1-3 hours

Individual research and/or plans of study completed under the supervision of a College of Physical Therapy faculty member. Permission required from the professor and program director. Pass/No Pass.

PSYD Course Descriptions

PSYD 501 Theories Of Pers/Psychotherapy

3 hours

Focuses on the major theories of personality, their authors, and the systems of psychotherapy associated with those personality theories. This course provides an understanding of the basic principles of personality development, structure, dynamics, and process. The course also serves as a survey of the major systems of psychotherapy. Significant research on personality and psychotherapy outcome and process will be reviewed.

PSYD 502 Psychopathology

3 hours

Focuses on understanding the basic processes and distinguishing features among the major categories of mental disorders and becoming familiar with standard diagnostic categories and systems. Assessment and case reports using DSM IV criteria are emphasized.

PSYD 503 Learning, Cognition & Emotion

3 hours

Examines contemporary perspectives on thought, learning, memory, emotion, and other higher mental processes. After a review of theoretical perspectives on learning, cognition, and emotion, cognition-emotion interaction and the development of this interaction will be discussed.

PSYD 504 Social Psychology

2 hours

An overview of some of the major theories, concepts, and research topics in social psychology. The social aspects of the individual's behavior are studied, with special reference to the social agencies involved in shaping behavior.

PSYD 505 Lifespan Development

3 hours

An overview of the important psychological developments that occur throughout the life span. Contemporary research and developmental theories will provide a structure for understanding the change of people from infancy to senescence. Central issues of human functioning such as intelligence, social relations, motor functions, gender, faith, morality, and selfhood will be discussed in order to provide a normative and foundational basis for understanding people.

PSYD 507 Diversity II: History & Systems of Psych

3 hours

An overview of the development of psychology via prominent historical figures and systems from the early Greek philosophers to the 21st century. Current developments from these roots will be critically evaluated.

PSYD 509 Bio Basis Behavior

3 hours

An overview of human neuroscience is provided, with emphasis on those areas of importance to the clinical psychologist.

PSYD 510 Psychopharmacology

2 hours

An introduction to the foundations and principles of clinical psychopharmacology for psychologists in clinical settings (prerequisite: PsyD 509, Biological Basis of Behavior.)

PSYD 511 Psychometrics

3 hours

A survey of theory and methods of test construction, with emphasis on professional standards for evaluating published tests and application of test results. Concepts of test development will be examined, including scaling, item analysis, standardization, measurement error, reliability, and validity. Basic statistics and statistical software related to correlational analyses will also be included. Commonly used psychology tests will be used as psychometric examples (especially cognitive scales). Issues of test use among ethnic and special populations will also receive attention.

PSYD 512 Statistics

3 hours

This course emphasizes a review of basic statistics (univariate statistics such as Pearson  $r$ ,  $t$ -tests, and ANOVA), then generalizes these to the case of multiple dependent variables. Numerous methods of comparing and combining results will be discussed including test assumptions, methods for tests of significance, and effect sizes.

PSYD 513 Research Design

3 hours

A rigorous examination of the spectrum of methods available for research in the clinical domain, ranging from basic to applied, and including descriptive, traditional experimental research, and strategies used in evaluating the effectiveness of intervention programs in a variety of mental health settings. Topics include the principles of experimental and quasiexperimental design and an introduction to qualitative research. Data analyses include MANOVA, MANCOVA, Discriminate Analysis, Meta-analysis, Factor Analysis, and an examination of the assumptions of each.

PSYD 516 Child and Adolescent Treatment

2 hours

This course will build on PSYD 505 Human Development. The course provides advanced training in evidence-based interventions for children and adolescents. Interventions taught will center on common referrals including behavior disorders, attention deficit disorders, autism spectrum disorders, depressive and anxiety disorders, adjustment disorders, and pediatric concerns such as toileting and sleep problems.

PSYD 517 Ethics For Psychologists

3 hours

Examines the American Psychological Association's "Ethical Principles of Psychologists and Code of Conduct," federal and state laws relevant to the practice of psychology, the related ethical and practical considerations involved in qualifying for licensure, and establishing and conducting a professional practice.

PSYD 518 Professional Issues

2 hours

In addition to assisting toward internship application, this course focuses on contemporary issues within the field of psychology; guidelines and procedures for referral and interprofessional collaboration are reviewed; and legal, ethical, and professional issues involved in working in a multidisciplinary managed care context are discussed. Establishing a professional practice and the professional and personal life of the therapist also receive attention. Students will be expected to bring examples of curriculum vitae, marketing strategies, as well as management problems and issues from their current practice settings. Prerequisite: fourth-year standing.

PSYD 520 Neuropsychological Assessment

3 hours

An introduction to the anatomical, empirical and clinical aspects of neuropsychology, with an emphasis upon assessment administration and scoring competencies. Fixed, flexible and process battery approaches will be demonstrated in a weekly practice lab component of the course. Course also includes a focus on the appropriate techniques for interpretation, report writing and feedback of neuropsychological assessments.

Prerequisites: PSYD 521 Personality Assessment, PSYD 557 Cognitive Assessment: Adult and PSYD 558 Cognitive Assessment: Child and Adolescent. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 521 Personality Assessment

3 hours

Introduces the basic statistical concepts of measurement and objective and projective personality assessment. Administration, scoring, and interpretation of objective personality measures will be emphasized as well as preparing written reports of test results. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 523 Projective Assessment

2 hours

Introduces the basic concepts of projective assessment and the administration, interpretation, and report writing for a variety of projective techniques, such as the House-Tree-Person, Thematic Apperception Test, and Rotter Incomplete Sentences. The Rorschach Inkblot Test and the Comprehensive System of John E. Exner (revised) will be emphasized. Additional course fee required. Prerequisite: PSYD 521 Personality Assessment.

PSYD 524 Comprehensive Psych Assessment

3 hours

Reviews major instruments already learned in Personality, Projectives, Cognitive, and Achievement assessment. Discusses further instrument selection as well as interpretation and synthesis of test findings in writing psychological reports. Specific applications of comprehensive psychological assessments in settings such as schools and forensics are also discussed. Prerequisites: PSYD 521 Personality Assessment, PSYD 557 Cognitive Assessment: Adult and PSYD 558 Cognitive Assessment: Child & Adolescent. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 526 Child & Adolescent Assessment

2 hours

This course will build on PSYD 505 Human Development, PSYD 521 Personality Assessment, PSYD 557 Cognitive Assessment: Adult and PSYD 558 Cognitive Assessment: Child & Adolescent. The class provides advanced training in the administration, interpretation and integration of personality, cognitive and behavioral assessment measures for children and adolescents. Assessment techniques include both broad-band measures applicable across diagnostic presentation, as well as disorder-specific assessments designed for: autism spectrum disorders, behavior disorders, attention deficit disorders, mood and anxiety disorders, and stress-related disorders. The course focuses on integrating multiple assessment measures to provide clinically relevant treatment recommendations.

PSYD 530 Clinical Foundations I

3 hours

This two-semester sequence prepares the student for the Practicum I training experience. It is a two semester sequence that includes weekly lecture and coursework; in addition, participation in weekly lab groups is required. The experiential component begins with simulated clinical during the first month and culminates in two long-term clients during the second semester. The clinical sessions integrate course theory and practice and are taped and closely supervised. The clinical sessions provide a laboratory experience in which students learn interpersonal communication and empathy skills using role-play techniques and audio and video feedback. In addition to weekly lectures, students are expected to participate in weekly, vertical, clinical team meeting with students from all cohorts, weekly, small group lab meetings with students from their own cohort, and didactics to introduce them to the legal and ethical issues of practice, the administrative structure and functioning of clinical settings, and the practical issues of assessment, psychotherapy, case management, and record keeping. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 531 Clinical Foundations II

3 hours

Pre-requisite: PSYD 530 Clinical Foundations I

PSYD 532 Practicum I

3 hours

This is a sequence of at least two semesters that builds on PSYD 530-531 Clinical Foundations of Treatment and emphasizes practical training in assessment, diagnosis, psychotherapy, and case management through supervised practice in a variety of clinical settings. Students also participate in team meetings, didactics, and oversight training groups. Prerequisites: PSYD 517 Ethics for Psychologists and PSYD 530-531 Clinical Foundations of Treatment. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 533 Practicum I

3 hours

This is a sequence of at least two semesters that builds on PSYD 530-531 Clinical Foundations of Treatment and emphasizes practical training in assessment, diagnosis, psychotherapy, and case management through supervised practice in a variety of clinical settings. Students also participate in team meetings, didactics, and oversight training groups. Prerequisites: PSYD 517 Ethics for Psychologists and PSYD 530-531 Clinical Foundations of Treatment.

PSYD 535 Practicum II

3 hours

This is an advanced practicum sequence that builds on Practicum I. Students are placed in various community settings to perform psychological assessments and interventions under the supervision of licensed psychologists. Students also receive weekly clinical oversight on campus by faculty members. Prerequisite: PSYD 532-533 Practicum I. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 536 Practicum II

3 hours

This is an advanced practicum sequence that builds on Practicum I. Students are placed in various community settings to perform psychological assessments and interventions under the supervision of licensed psychologists. Students also receive weekly clinical oversight on campus by faculty members. Prerequisite: PSYD 532-533 Practicum I.

PSYD 538 Preinternship

3 hours

This sequence emphasizes development of more advanced skills in assessment, diagnosis, psychotherapy, and case management through supervised practice in a variety of field settings. This sequence seeks to develop skills in supervising others and to prepare students for internship. Students continue to participate in team meetings, oversight training groups, and didactics in a seminar format. Prerequisite: PSYD 535-536 Practicum II. Co-Requisite: PSYD 805. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 539 Preinternship

3 hours

This sequence emphasizes development of more advanced skills in assessment, diagnosis, psychotherapy, and case management through supervised practice in a variety of field settings. This sequence seeks to develop skills in supervising others and to prepare students for internship. Students continue to participate in team meetings, oversight training groups, and didactics in a seminar format. Prerequisite: PSYD 535-536 Practicum II. Co-Requisite: PsyD 805.

PSYD 551 Psychodynamic Psychotherapy

3 hours

This class explores the theory and practice of psychodynamic psychotherapy, including analytic, object relations, and self psychologies. Major theorists and assessment techniques are critically appraised, and process and outcome research related to these approaches is examined. Case studies will be required of current clients, whom the student treats in his or her practice setting, examining them from a psychodynamic perspective. Prerequisite: PSYD 501 Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy.

PSYD 552 Cognitive/Behav Psychotherapy

3 hours

This class provides an introduction to cognitive-behavioral techniques, explores their application in short-term and longer-term psychotherapy, and examines process and outcome research findings related to the use of these approaches. Case studies are used to develop skills in planning cognitive behavioral interventions, establishing behavioral objectives, and measuring outcomes of treatment. Consistencies and tensions with Christian beliefs and worldviews will be explored, and practical strategies for using cognitive-behavioral interventions with religious clients are examined.

PSYD 556 Contemporary Psychoanalytic Therapy

2 hours

An advanced course in contemporary psychoanalytic theories and techniques. Though this is not a practicum course, ideally the student should be involved in working in a counseling setting in which applications of this psychodynamic approach may be tested in practice. Prerequisites: PSYD 501 Theories of Personality and Psychotherapy and PSYD 551 Psychodynamic Psychotherapy.

PSYD 557 Cognitive Assessment: Adult

2 hours

An introduction to the individualized assessment of adults and young adults including measures of intellectual and other selected cognitive functions, memory and academic achievement with emphasis on empirically supported, culturally consistent measures. Theoretical, conceptual, and clinical aspects of test administration and interpretation will be emphasized. A weekly one-hour lab practicum experience is included in order to provide practice with and coaching on the most common cognitive test instruments. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 558 Cognitive Assessment: Child & Adolescent

2 hours

An introduction to the individualized assessment of Children and Adolescents including measures of intellectual and other selected cognitive functions, memory and academic achievement with emphasis on empirically supported, culturally consistent measures. Theoretical, conceptual, and clinical aspects of test administration and interpretation will be emphasized. A weekly one-hour lab practicum experience is included in order to provide practice with and coaching on the most common cognitive test instruments. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 561 Group Psychotherapy

1-3 hours

Theory and application of small-group process in clinical settings; laboratory practice in selection of participants, leadership, and interaction methods; and design and implementation of short-term focal groups. Can be taken as a variable credit course.

PSYD 563 Family Therapy in a Diverse Culture

3 hours

This is a survey course of the major theoretical developments in family and couples therapy. Leading theories, concepts, assessment strategies, and intervention techniques will be discussed and demonstrated. A systems perspective on health and dysfunction will be contrasted with individual approaches to psychotherapy. The process and outcome research literature will be reviewed. An emphasis is placed on understanding the diversity of family structures and styles in contemporary society, as well as the ways many Christians understand marriage and family relationships. Several issues relevant to clinical work with Christian families and couples will be discussed.

PSYD 571 Integrative Approaches To Psyc

3 hours

An introductory exploration of faith integration in psychology and psychotherapy, emphasizing the historical conversations between Christian theology, psychology, and spiritual formation as well as contemporary conversations about religion, spirituality, science, culture, and psychotherapy. Implications for health service psychology are emphasized.

PSYD 575 Neuropsychological Topics

2 hours

This course content will vary. It is designed to prepare students to provide neuropsychological assessments across populations and settings. In addition topics will include specialized areas for neuropsychology including neuroanatomy basics. Selection and interpretation of assessments emphasizes empirically supported, culturally consistent measures with a focus on geriatric populations. Work with virtual assessments may also be included. The weekly sessions include didactics, demonstrations and practice for administration competencies.

PSYD 579 Spirit & Rel Issues in Psych

2 hours

In this integration capstone course, major themes of Christian theology are considered with regard to their implications for the life and work of a professional psychologist.

PSYD 582 Substance Abuse

2 hours

A survey of the literature on substance abuse and chemical dependency. Emphasis is placed on psychological assessment and intervention for persons with substance abuse disorders.

PSYD 585 Selected Topics

1-3 hours

A seminar dealing with various topics as announced that represent current faculty interests and competencies.

PSYD 587 Health Psychology

1-3 hours

The focus of this course is on the practical understanding and application of Health psychology. This course will introduce you to the biopsychosocial model of health to understand the factors that influence the maintenance of health as well as disease progression. The course includes research-based interventions to treat illness, slow or prevent disease progression. Can be taken as a variable credit course.

PSYD 591 Consult, Educ & Prog Eval I

1 hour

Reviews a range of consultation methods in professional psychology, from expert-prescriptive models to collaborative models. Principles of education and program evaluation are also explored. Specific skills such as articulating effective consultation questions, developing questionnaires, conducting qualitative data analyses, and writing in professional psychology are considered.

PSYD 592 Consult, Educ & Prog Eval II

1 hour

Reviews a range of consultation methods in professional psychology, from expert-prescriptive models to collaborative models. Principles of education and program evaluation are also explored. Specific skills such as articulating effective consultation questions, developing questionnaires, conducting qualitative data analyses, and writing in professional psychology are considered.

PSYD 593 Superv & Manag of Psyc Serv I

1 hour

This course provides an introduction to the theory, research and practice of clinical supervision and to the management of clinical service provision. The student will become acquainted with theory and research on management and supervision and engage in experiential learning of supervision and management skills. This course is structured as a two-semester course that involves both theory and supervised practice in Supervision and Management.

PSYD 594 Superv & Manag of Psyc Serv II

1 hour

This course provides an introduction to the theory, research and practice of clinical supervision and to the management of clinical service provision. The student will become acquainted with theory and research on management and supervision and engage in experiential learning of supervision and management skills. This course is structured as a two-semester course that involves both theory and supervised practice in Supervision and Management.

PSYD 595 Special Study

1-6 hours

These independent courses are developed to provide the student with in-depth knowledge in the content of subject matter taught under the direction of a faculty member.

PSYD 610 Internship (Half-Time Units)

4 hours

A full-time internship comprising 50 weeks and 2,000 hours is required. The internship may be scheduled as a half-time placement for two calendar years or a full-time placement for a single year. Students are strongly encouraged to obtain an APA-accredited or APPIC-recognized internship site. It is likely that students will have to move out of state to complete the approved internship. Prerequisites: completion of MA degree and practicum requirements and approval by the director of clinical training. Special fee assessed.

PSYD 611 Internship (Half-Time Units)

4 hours

A full-time internship comprising 50 weeks and 2,000 hours is required. The internship may be scheduled as a half-time placement for two calendar years or a full-time placement for a single year. Students are strongly encouraged to obtain an APA-accredited or APPIC-recognized internship site. It is likely that students will have to move out of state to complete the approved internship. Prerequisites: completion of MA degree and practicum requirements and approval by the director of clinical training. Special fee assessed.

PSYD 612 Internship (Half-Time Units)

4 hours

A full-time internship comprising 50 weeks and 2,000 hours is required. The internship may be scheduled as a half-time placement for two calendar years or a full-time placement for a single year. Students are strongly encouraged to obtain an APA-accredited or APPIC-recognized internship site. It is likely that students will have to move out of state to complete the approved internship. Prerequisites: completion of MA degree and practicum requirements and approval by the director of clinical training. Special fee assessed.

PSYD 613 Internship (Half-Time Units)

4 hours

A full-time internship comprising 50 weeks and 2,000 hours is required. The internship may be scheduled as a half-time placement for two calendar years or a full-time placement for a single year. Students are strongly encouraged to obtain an APA-accredited or APPIC-recognized internship site. It is likely that students will have to move out of state to complete the approved internship. Prerequisites: completion of MA degree and practicum requirements and approval by the director of clinical training. Special fee assessed.

PSYD 614 Internship (Half-Time Units)

4 hours

A full-time internship comprising 50 weeks and 2,000 hours is required. The internship may be scheduled as a half-time placement for two calendar years or a full-time placement for a single year. Students are strongly encouraged to obtain an APA-accredited or APPIC-recognized internship site. It is likely that students will have to move out of state to complete the approved internship. Prerequisites: completion of MA degree and practicum requirements and approval by the director of clinical training. Special fee assessed.

PSYD 615 Internship (Half-Time Units)

4 hours

A full-time internship comprising 50 weeks and 2,000 hours is required. The internship may be scheduled as a half-time placement for two calendar years or a full-time placement for a single year. Students are strongly encouraged to obtain an APA-accredited or APPIC-recognized internship site. It is likely that students will have to move out of state to complete the approved internship. Prerequisites: completion of MA degree and practicum requirements and approval by the director of clinical training. Special fee assessed.

PSYD 616 Spiritual Formation 1

1 hour

An introduction to the ways God works in human lives, affecting redemptive change and spiritual transformation, with special attention given to the personal life of professional psychologists. A theoretical basis for reflection, combined with experiential components of the classical spiritual disciplines, will enable the student to establish a personal foundation of spiritual formation, including such elements as prayer, journaling, and various approaches to worship. Additional course fee required.

PSYD 630 Integrative Topics 1

3 hours

Explores a particular topic of interest to health service psychologists while considering perspectives of both psychology and Christianity. Course fee required.

PSYD 631 Integrative Topics 2

3 hours

Explores a particular topic of interest to health service psychologists while considering perspectives of both psychology and Christianity. Course fee required.

PSYD 632 Advanced Integrative Topics

2 hours

Explores a particular topic of interest to health service psychologists while considering perspectives of both psychology and Christianity.

PSYD 655 Dissertation

2 hours

To maintain continuous enrollment until dissertation is complete. Does not count toward the degree.

PSYD 701 Foundations of Primary Care Psychology

2 hours

Required for PCP Track. This is the first course in the two-semester sequence which prepares the student for the two-year clinical training experience in primary care medical setting. The Foundations course includes an understanding of the primary care behavioral health model, including interprofessional biopsychosocial treatment mode. The course will include training and practice in evidenced based interventions for primary care, use of assessment, program evaluation and use of population metrics to enhance care. In addition to lecture, training will include practice, participation in training webinars and how to use external resources essential to remaining current in the field. Prerequisite: instructor approval required if not enrolled in PCP Track.

PSYD 702 Advanced Primary and Specialty Care Psychology

2 hours

This is the second course in the two-semester sequence for the PCP Track. This course will deepen student's understanding of the interprofessional model used in the primary medical setting to include more advanced skills in complex and collaborative care, use of clinical registries, clinical pathways and other processes designed to enhance population reach. The course will also demonstrate how to expand interprofessional primary care psychology into the specialty medical areas of pediatrics, women's health, cardiology and other medical specialties. Prerequisite: PSYD 701 Foundations of Primary Care Psychology.

PSYD 703 Trauma Treatment in Clinical Practice

2 hours

The class provides an introduction to the psychological reactions and adjustment responses to various forms of stress, distress, and traumatic stress. Specific focus is on understanding trauma responses associated with physical, sexual, and emotional abuse and neglect. Course topics include an overview of the bio-psycho-social underpinnings of stress, distress, resilience, traumatic stress, PTSD, and complex trauma conditions. Students learn to assess trauma reactions, formulate accurate and relevant diagnoses, create effective treatment plans, and enhance therapy interventions from a trauma informed lens. Students learn to treat specific symptoms common to trauma reactions; including adjustment disorders, bereavement, PTSD, dissociation, and complex trauma conditions. Enrollment priority to advanced students.

PSYD 704 Pediatric Psychology

2 hours

Theory and practice of working with children experiencing acute/chronic medical issues and their families within medical service settings. Emphasis will be empirically supported, culturally congruent treatment for a diverse population. (No prerequisite required.)

PSYD 706 Child Neuropsychology

2 hours

This course includes issues that are relevant for those students interested in pediatric neuropsychology. Some investigation of screening assessments is done within the course. Topics include how neuropsychology is applied in medical settings with children. No prerequisite courses are required.

PSYD 707 Trauma Work Consultation Group

1 hour

This course provides a weekly trauma consultation group to students wishing to complete the PsyD Program Trauma Treatment Certificate. Topics covered include applied trauma assessment, case conceptualization, and treatment feedback. Prerequisite: PSYD 703, Trauma Treatment in Clinical Practice.

PSYD 708 Diversity I: Concepts and Foundations

2 hours

This course is designed to enhance students' own cultural awareness, engagement with, and understanding of cultural influences. It considers issues of human diversity broadly defined to include race, ethnicity, culture, nationality, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, and ability. Students will explore the contours of difference and the dynamics of diversity, privilege, and oppression in domestic and global contexts.

PSYD 709 Diversity III: Clinical Application

3 hours

This course is focused on clinical application of concepts learned in Diversity I and II. Students will explore practically how to engage in clinical work with people from various perspectives different than their own, with cultural humility and including how to engage in related conversations with clients. It will also include practical considerations around culturally appropriate assessments with culturally sensitive measures. As part of this course, students will engage clinically with a diverse client from the practicum setting for applied clinical skill practice, including small group discussion and oversight through the course.

PSYD 710 Diversity IV: Advocacy and Advanced Concepts

2 hours

This course is focused on considerations around effective advocacy and social justice in the role of a clinical psychologist. Current issues and concepts will also be discussed, building on and integrating learning from the first three courses in the diversity sequence.

PSYD 711 Risk Assessment

2 hours

This course is focused on understanding how to navigate situations where patients are in crisis. Course topics include suicide risk assessment, differential diagnosis with severe mental illness, internal and external factors that may contribute to crisis, navigating complex medical systems where patients in crisis often land, and navigating the larger mental health system with barriers and access to resources. Students also engage with burnout prevention materials with respect to understanding clinician responses and countertransference with high acuity patients.

PSYD 801 Research Team - I

1 hour

The Research Team is the formal mechanism by which students involvement in original empirical research is formulated and guided. The Research Team is part of a formal academic sequence involving statistical analysis, research design and research application. Participation in the Research Team will help students to build the necessary skills to generate and evaluate original research. As part of the research sequence, students must individually complete and defend a doctoral-level dissertation. The dissertation may be of an empirical, applied, or theoretical nature. Students should be able to complete their dissertations within the context of the vertically integrated research teams.

PSYD 802 Research Team - II

2 hours

The Research Team is the formal mechanism by which students' involvement in original empirical research is formulated and guided. The Research Team is part of a formal academic sequence involving statistical analysis, research design and research application. Participation in the Research Team will help students' to build the necessary skills to generate and evaluate original research. As part of the research sequence, students must individually complete and defend a doctoral-level dissertation. The dissertation may be of an empirical, applied, or theoretical nature. Students should be able to complete their dissertations within the context of the vertically integrated research teams.

PSYD 803 Research Team - III

3 hours

The Research Team is the formal mechanism by which students' involvement in original empirical research is formulated and guided. The Research Team is part of a formal academic sequence involving statistical analysis, research design and research application. Participation in the Research Team will help students' to build the necessary skills to generate and evaluate original research. As part of the research sequence, students must individually complete and defend a doctoral-level dissertation. The dissertation may be of an empirical, applied, or theoretical nature. Students should be able to complete their dissertations within the context of the vertically integrated research teams.

PSYD 805 Dissertation/Research Team

1-5 hours

The Research Team is the formal mechanism by which students involvement in original empirical research is formulated and guided. The Research Team is part of a formal academic sequence involving statistical analysis, research design and research application. Participation in the Research Team will help students to build the necessary skills to generate and evaluate original research. As part of the research sequence, students must individually complete and defend a doctoral-level dissertation. The dissertation may be of an empirical, applied, or theoretical nature. Students should be able to complete their dissertations within the context of the vertically integrated research teams. # SWKG Course Descriptions

SWKG 500 Introduction to the Social Work Profession

1 hour

This course explores the history and development of the social work profession, social work values and ethics, foundations of knowledge, and fields of practice with systems of all sizes.

SWKG 520 Diversity and Difference: Implications for Social Work Practice

3 hours

This foundation course introduces students to diverse populations and helps them understand the different constraints and motivations of people from backgrounds different from their own, providing important lessons for social work practice. The course is designed to increase student's awareness, knowledge, and understanding of issues related to diversity and difference and the implications for social work practice.

SWKG 521 Human Rights & Social Justice

2 hours

This course introduces human rights and social justice concepts in the context of social work history, values, ethics, and practice. Related concepts of oppression, power, privilege, and inequality will also be covered.

SWKG 531 Human Behavior and the Social Environment I: Theoretical Foundations

3 hours

This first course in the 2-semester HBSE sequence will focus on major theories of human behavior from infancy through adulthood in the context of the interaction between and among the range of social systems (individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities) and with consideration of the impact of social and economic forces on all aspects of human development. The aim of this course is to provide a framework for creating, organizing, and understanding of theory, research, and practice issues of human behavior and the social environment as a foundation to practice advanced generalist social work, and on which to build advanced generalist practice skills. The focus of this course is on behavior and the continuous, reciprocal interchange and influence in, between, and among different systems of the larger environment. A strengths-based and person-in-environment theory approach leads to an understanding of how the biological, psychological, social, cultural and spiritual systems are interrelated and affect human development throughout the life span. Special attention is given to the impact of human diversity, discrimination, social injustices and oppression on the ability to reach or maintain optimal health and well-being. Values and ethical issues related to the theories presented will also be considered. Throughout the course, students will be encouraged to consider the crucial relationship between evidence-based theory and social work practice. Co- or Prerequisite: SWKG 500 Introduction to the Social Work Profession

SWKG 532 Human Behavior and the Social Environment II: Assessment through the Lifespan

3 hours

Assessment through the Lifespan builds on HBSE I, which provided knowledge and understanding of theory, research, and practice issues of human development within the context of biological, psychological, and socio-cultural factors. Emphasis is placed on understanding of the relevance of evidence-based theory for practice and how race, ethnicity, culture, gender, and socioeconomic variables influence and contribute to human development and behavior within social systems. This second course in the 2-semester HBSE sequence further examines theories and knowledge of human bio-psycho-social-cultural- spiritual development from childhood to later adulthood in the context of the range of social systems (individuals, families, groups, organizations, communities), and with consideration of the impact of social and economic forces on all aspects of human development. The aim of this course is to use a strengths-based and person-in-environment theoretical framework to provide students with the knowledge, skills, and values necessary for understanding human behavior as a function of biological, social, psychological, spiritual, and cultural systems across the life span. The focus of this course is on behavior and the impact of the larger environment on the individual. Special attention is given to the impact of social injustice, discrimination and oppression on the ability to reach or maintain human well-being. Prerequisite: SWKG 531 Human Behavior and the Social Environment I: Theoretical Foundations

SWKG 533 Human Behavior in the Social Environment

3 hours

This course seeks to apply a basic bio-psycho-social-spiritual framework (theory and knowledge) to serve as a guide in understanding how human behavior is shaped, created, and organized across the lifespan. Social systems, human development theories, and strengths approaches are critically examined to foster understanding of individual, family, group, organizational, and community behaviors and the impact of the larger environment on these systems.

SWKG 540 Research Methods & Statistics

2 hours

This course is designed to encourage and equip you to read, critically evaluate, and use the research of others to improve your effectiveness in practice and conduct your own practice research. The following will be examined: scientific methods for building knowledge for social work practice, ethical standards for scientific inquiry, qualitative and quantitative research methodologies, research designs for developing knowledge and systematically evaluating social work practice and human service programs, and the critical review and utilization of research findings. Co- or Prerequisite: SWKG 500 Introduction to the Social Work Profession

SWKG 541 Research Methods & Applications

2 hours

This course is designed to move the student from the conceptual understanding of research methods to the application of research methods in practice. Students will apply scientific methods for building knowledge for social work practice, use ethical standards for scientific inquiry, choose qualitative and quantitative research methodologies, research designs for developing knowledge and systematically evaluating social work practice and human service programs, and the critical review and utilization of research findings. Prerequisite: SWKG 540 Research Methods and Statistics

SWKG 542 Research Methods

3 hours

This course will move the student from the conceptual understanding of research methods to the application of research methods in practice. Students will apply scientific methods for building knowledge for social work practice, use ethical standards for scientific inquiry, choose qualitative and quantitative research methodologies, research designs for developing knowledge and systematically evaluating social work practice and human service programs, and the critical review and utilization of research findings. This course will review the basics of statistical thinking, tools, and techniques students need to select, calculate, and interpret appropriate statistics applicable to common data analysis situations related to social work practice and policy.

SWKG 560 Social Policy

3 hours

Social Policy is designed to provide students with an overview of the complexities of social welfare policy issues and analysis. Social welfare policy is the process by which society creates structures to deal with social relationships and social problems. In addition, social work views social policy as a means to inform social advocacy and professional leadership in service of vulnerable and oppressed populations. The content of this course relates to understanding the history of, influences on, and promotion of social welfare and economic justice. Prerequisite: SWKG 500 Introduction to the Social Work Profession

SWKG 570 Values & Ethics: Spirituality & Religion

3 hours

This course provides students with a comprehensive exploration of social work values and ethics, with a particular emphasis on their intersection with religious and spiritual values. Course content includes an examination of ethical issues as they apply to social work theory, research, policy, and practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities along with an exploration of the historical and contemporary relationships between social work ethics and religious belief. Students will acquire and practice the skills of ethical decision-making including values clarification, application of ethical theory, utilization of codes of ethics, and models of ethical analysis. Co- or Prerequisite: SWKG 500 Introduction to the Social Work Profession

SWKG 576 Foundation Internship I

3 hours

This course is designed to provide an opportunity for social work students to apply academic learning to professional social work practice under the supervision of a qualified and experienced social work practitioner. Social Work 576 bridges classroom learning and the practice of social work through faculty coordination of the field experience and facilitation of the seminar sessions. Social Work 576, Foundation Internship I, is a required course for all students in the standard MSW program. It consists of a minimum of 240 hours of applied learning in an agency field setting and a 2-hour integrative seminar that meets weekly at the university. All students participating in field education must meet the entry-level competence required by their field agency. Academic course work will provide an increasing knowledge and skill base from which students serve individuals of all ages, families, groups and communities in various agency settings. Co- or Prerequisites: SWKG 500 Introduction to the Social Work Profession; SWKG 531 Human Behavior and the Social Environment I: Theoretical Foundations; SWKG 591 Social Work Practice I; Families, Individuals, and Groups Additional course fee required.

SWKG 577 Foundation Internship II

3 hours

This course is designed to provide an opportunity for social work students to apply academic learning to professional social work practice under the supervision of a qualified and experienced social work practitioner. Social Work 577 bridges classroom learning and the practice of social work through faculty coordination of the field experience and facilitation of the seminar sessions. Social Work 577, Foundation Internship II, follows the successful completion of Social Work 575, Foundation Internship I, and is a required course for all students in the standard MSW program. It consists of a minimum of 240 hours of applied learning in an agency field setting and a 2-hour integrative seminar that meets weekly at the university. All students participating in field education must meet the entry-level competence required by their field agency. Academic course work will provide an increasing knowledge and skill base from which students serve individuals of all ages, families, groups and communities in various agency settings. Prerequisite: SWKG 576 Foundation Internship I Additional course fee required.

SWKG 591 Social Work Practice I: Families, Individuals & Groups

3 hours

Students apply the steps of the Generalist Intervention Model (engagement, assessment, planning, intervention, evaluation, and termination/transition) to create care management plans for individuals, families, and groups. Attention is paid to knowledge, skills, and values associated with planned change. Students discover and analyze developmental theories and apply these to the various life stages with special attention being given to human diversity and populations at risk. Students examine biological, psychological, spiritual, and social aspects of the human experience and explore how individuals and families are impacted by the various systems within which they live and work. Students apply knowledge and values of human behavior and the social environment in order to increase their capacity as a generalist social worker. Students strengthen personal and professional awareness as they perform and evaluate helping skills in the beginning, middle, and endings/transitions of planned change. This course is one of the two students take that will inform their capacity to intervene at micro, mezzo, and macro levels of social work practice. Co- or Prerequisite: SWKG 500 Introduction to the Social Work Profession

SWKG 592 Social Work Practice II: Organizations & Communities

3 hours

This course is designed to teach students the values, knowledge, and skills for working in and through groups, communities, and organizations to (1) create structures and processes that foster social and economic justice, (2) reduce the vulnerability to distress and deprivation of at-risk populations, and (3) enhance the resources and strengths of persons, families, networks, groups, and communities. It emphasizes organizations, communities, and policies as the target of change, using rational, group problem-solving, and power utilization models. Students encounter the ethical dilemmas endemic to macro practice and analyze the values and beliefs that shape the decision to choose a course of action. The course includes attention to faith communities and religious organizations as contexts for professional practice. Co- or Prerequisites: SWKG 532 Human Behavior and the Social Environment II: Assessment through the Life Span; SWKG 591 Social Work Practice I; Families, Individuals, and Groups

SWKG 596 Concentration Year Seminar

1 hour

This course is designed to prepare you for the second year of the MSW program. The seminar links your foundation-year curriculum, your practice experience, and the advanced level concentration of your choice. Co- or Prerequisite: SWKG 577 Foundation Internship II

SWKG 600 Introduction to the DSM-V

1 hour

This one-credit required course is designed for beginning advanced practice students. The purpose of the course is to provide the student with an ability to use the DSM-5 as a tool in mental health field placement settings under guidance from the field instructors. Students will gain an understanding of how to use the manual, and understand the diagnostic language in order to be able to participate in assessment, diagnosis, development, and implementation of mental health service plans. This course will help prepare student to engage in discussions with mental health professionals from various disciplines.

SWKG 642 Advanced Research I

2 hours

Scientific methods of knowledge development for social work practice; ethical standards for scientific inquiry; quantitative and qualitative research methods; and research designs are applied to critical evaluation of research in your area of concentration and to development of a plan for research project implementation. Students will engage in an advanced research practice experience that enables them to demonstrate the capacity to plan, conduct, and evaluate an agency-based research project. The research proposal is implemented during the Advanced Field Internship and Advanced Research II (SWKG 643).

SWKG 643 Advanced Research II

2 hours

Concurrent with your enrollment in Advanced Field Internship II (SWKG 677), this course is designed to assist you in completing a major research project related to your concentration internship. You will learn from one another's work as you help one another refine your work. You will each deliver a professional continuing education presentation to the practice community and faculty, supported by an abstract (brief explanation of presentation topic and content), presentation objectives, a methodology statement, and a vita or resume. Prerequisite: SWKG 642

SWKG 676 Advanced Internship I

4 hours

This course is designed to provide an opportunity for social work students to apply academic learning to advanced professional social work practice in the area of their chosen concentration, Direct Practice or Community Practice, under the supervision of a qualified and experienced social work practitioner. Social Work 676 bridges classroom learning and the practice of social work through faculty coordination of the field experience and facilitation of the seminar sessions. SWKG 676, Advanced Internship I, is a required course for all students in the concentration year of the MSW program who have successfully completed the Foundation Year sequence of SWKG 576 and 577 or their equivalent. SWKG 676 consists of a minimum of 250 hours of applied learning in an agency field setting and a 2-hour integrative seminar that meets weekly at the university. Additional course fee required.

SWKG 677 Advanced Internship II

4 hours

This course is designed to provide an opportunity for social work students to apply academic learning to advanced professional social work practice in the area of their chosen concentration, Direct Practice or Community Practice, under the supervision of a qualified and experienced social work practitioner. Social Work 677 bridges classroom learning and the practice of social work through faculty coordination of the field experience and facilitation of the seminar sessions. SWKG 677, Advanced Internship II, is a required course for all students of the MSW program who have successfully completed SWKG 676 and are in the final semester of their concentration year. SWKG 677 consists of a minimum of 250 hours of applied learning in the agency field setting and a 2-hour integrative seminar that meets weekly at the university. Prerequisite: SWKG 676 Additional course fee required.

SWKG 685 Selected Topics in Advanced Social Work Practice

3 hours

These courses are developed to provide social workers with in-depth knowledge on specific topics of interests in fields of practice. Examples of possible courses include: Child Welfare; Play Therapy; Trauma-Informed Practice; International Social Work.

SWKG 690 Social Work Capstone

1 hour

The capstone is an integrative seminar at the end of the MSW process intended to provide students the opportunity to help demonstrate their readiness to practice social work at an advanced level in their area of concentration and to contribute to the professional knowledge and development of colleagues. Students will reflect on the major themes, goals, and objectives of the social work program. You will each deliver a professional continuing education presentation to the practice community and faculty, supported by an abstract (brief explanation of presentation topic and content), presentation objectives, a methodology statement, and a vita or resume.

SWKG 691 Theories for Advanced Practice: Families, Children, Individuals & Groups

3 hours

This course provides an overview of theory and models of social work intervention with families, children, individuals and groups. Students learn the philosophy and theoretical constructs of a variety of methods, as well as how to apply those methods with different client systems. Emphasis is placed on both cultural and gender issues, as well as on working with families with both traditional and non-traditional structures.

SWKG 692 Theories for Advanced Practice: Community Organizations & Development

3 hours

This course provides an overview of the theory and models of community intervention essential for social work practice with neighborhoods, organizations, and communities. It addresses issues of community organizing, program development, policy practice, and advocacy at the legislative level. This course presents the conceptual and theoretical foundations for understanding the role of advanced social work community practice. Theoretical models for community practice interventions will be reviewed, focusing on models such as development, planning, organizing, and social action. Global issues, values and ethics, work with diverse and at-risk populations, and the appropriate incorporation of spirituality and religion in competent social work community practice are examined.

SWKG 693 Skills for Advanced Practice: Families, Children, Individuals & Groups

3 hours

This theory-based course develops knowledge and skill for the application of research-informed models of direct social work with families, children, individuals and groups. Advanced practice skills are emphasized with particular attention to engagement, assessment, intervention, and evaluation. Attention is also given to integrating research in direct social work practice with families, children, individuals and groups. Co- or Prerequisites: SWKG 600 DSM-5; SWKG 691 Theories for Advanced Practice Families, Children, Individuals and Groups

SWKG 694 Skills For Advanced Practice: Community Organizations & Development

3 hours

The course emphasizes community interventions that are sensitive to human diversity in many forms, including community development, social action and organizing/planning. Knowledge, skills, and the application of social work values prepare students to assess and intervene in communities. The course uses practice theory and methods rooted in professional social work literature. Students also will examine the relationship between religious faith and communities, as well as the role of congregations and religiously affiliated organizations in community practice. In order to accomplish this, this advanced community practice will have a class project as its focus for the entire semester. Co- or Prerequisites: SWKG 600 DSM-5; SWKG 692 Theories for Advanced Practice Community Organizations & Development

SWKG 695 Special Study

1-3 hours

Independent study of subjects outside of regular offering. Guiding bibliographies are provided, and regular reading reports and conferences are scheduled. Permission required by program director. No more than 6 credit hours of special study can be applied toward the completion of the MSW degree.

SWKG 696 Special Issues in Advanced Practice: Families, Children, Individuals & Groups

3 hours

This course focuses on current clinical issues that families face, allowing students the opportunity to apply advanced practice theories and methods to particular problem areas.

SWKG 697 Special Issues in Advanced Practice: Community Organizations & Development

3 hours

This course focuses on current issues in advanced practice with communities and organizations allowing students the opportunity to apply advanced practice theories and methods to particular problem areas.

SWKG 698 Program Development, Administration, and Funding

3 hours

Social Work Administration prepares students to perform managerial functions in public, nonprofit, and faith-based human service organizations with particular emphasis on those with programs designed to improve family resilience and human wellness. Specific attention is given to the topics of leadership, human resources, fund raising, organizational development, structure and governance, resource management, and efforts to link human service organizations in an integrated community-wide service delivery system. Students analyze and evaluate selected administrative systems, management practices, and programs in their advanced internship agency and design strategies to maximize both their learning and performance in this and other settings. The course emphasizes the school of social work themes of integrating faith and practice, the strengths perspective, and building communities.

TRMA Course Descriptions

TRMA 500 Introduction to Traumatology and Trauma-Informed Care

1 hour

This course provides an introduction to traumatology and trauma-informed care including the nature of traumatic events and the impact on biological, psychological, and social functioning. In addition, students will identify risk and resiliency factors associated with PTSD prevention and intervention services. The various roles of the responder according to the nature of the event, stage of recovery, and professional scope of practice will be identified. Instruction format includes a blended learning environment including both face-to-face and online class activities.

TRMA 501 Best Practices in Trauma-Informed Care

1 hour

This course prepares the student for designing trauma-informed individual and group interventions in the aftermath of a critical incident in accordance with one's scope of practice and competence. Students will apply universal and foundational traumatic stress assessment skills in discerning appropriate intervention methods based on level of need, context, and stage of recovery. Psychological first-aid processes will be mastered. Vicarious trauma and compassion fatigue as it applies to the trauma responder will also be explored. Instruction format includes a blended learning environment including both face-to-face and online class activities. Prerequisite: TRMA 500

TRMA 502 Interpersonal Neurobiology of Trauma

1 hour

This course examines the neurobiology of trauma and is intended to deepen the student's knowledge base regarding the interplay between a traumatic experience, social interactions, and neurological functioning. The interpersonal neurobiology perspective allows the student to understand not only the immediate physiological impact of a traumatic incident, but the interconnectedness between our social, emotional, physical, and spiritual well-being in the aftermath of chronic abuse and/or a sudden traumatic event. Students will demonstrate an interpersonal neurobiologically-informed assessment of human functioning and response, and an ability to communicate this information in psychoeducational arenas tailored for survivors of traumatic incidents. Instruction format includes a blended learning environment including both face-to-face and online class activities.

TRMA 503 Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan

1 hour

Of central concern to the trauma responder is helping individuals and communities recover from extreme loss. This course examines the nature of grief in the face of loss as experienced across the lifespan. Students will gain a deeper awareness of common grief reactions as well as short and long-term psychosocial challenges congruent with common recovery processes. Using theories examining individual and systemic resiliency, students will explore personal and contextual issues influencing an individual and community's resiliency in the face of loss. And finally, students will learn how to discern grief processes beyond one's scope of practice within the trauma response setting. Instruction format includes a blended learning environment including both face-to-face and online class activities.

TRMA 540 Trauma and Social Justice Annual Conference

1 hour

This course is a deeper examination of the topic under review in the annual Trauma & Social Justice Conference. Held the second week of September, the conference is an annual event sponsored by the Trauma Response Institute. It is designed to promote and support the work of humanitarian aid, mental health, education, ministerial, health care, and social change professionals dedicated to naming and responding to socio-cultural factors that increase stress and trauma among marginalized & vulnerable populations. The course is taught in a blended format with 50% of class time including conference attendance, and the other half including online activities.

TRMA 541 Race and Trauma

1 hour

This course explores the multi-generational impact of racial and ethnic marginalization. The course will also explore the impact of social dynamics on our development across the lifespan. Students will be invited to see the role of privilege and marginalization in increasing vulnerable populations to additional stress and trauma.

TRMA 542 Developing a Professional Online Identity

1 hour

Professional engagement and networking now occurs in online forums as often as it occurs in face-to-face environments. Students earning a specialty in trauma-informed service will likely network and share their expertise in various digital environments which require specific skills and dispositions. This course introduces professionals to the basics of building a professional online identity with an emphasis on the application of ethical principles informing safe and effective practice. This course is applicable to all graduate students exploring methods of building a practice and networking with other professionals. Instruction format includes a blended learning environment including both face-to-face and online class activities.

TRMA 543 Trauma-Informed Emotion Focused Therapy

1 hour

This course examines the theory and application of Emotionally Focused Therapy with couples from a trauma-informed perspective. The course will build on the empirically validated concepts of EFT, by applying its concepts, as well as those of attachment theory, specifically to trauma stemming from attachment injuries. These traumas can be precipitated by a variety of experiences including mental health issues or relational trauma such as miscarriage, military combat, or childhood sexual abuse. Through the use of EFT's three stages and nine steps, couples reprocess emotional experiences and traumas within the context of finding a secure base and emotional comfort in one another. The course will specifically focus on working with couples from a trauma-informed perspective thereby addressing guilt and shame, and reducing fear and anxiety, through the use of these concepts.

TRMA 544 Trauma-Informed Treatment with Adult Survivors of Sexual Abuse

1 hour

This course introduces independent mental health practitioners to the fundamentals of treating adults sexually abused as children. Since many adults challenged with recovery from incidents of childhood sexual abuse also experienced additional layers of abuse, neglect, or mis-attunement throughout childhood, the focus of this course will examine treatment from a complex trauma recovery lens. The student will demonstrate competence in understanding how to structure therapy for the adult client through the application of course materials. Competence in understanding the psychological, interpersonal, and neurobiological components of abuse will be demonstrated through a collaborative group project. Instruction format includes a blended learning environment including both face-to-face and online class activities. Prerequisite: TRMA 500 or Professor Approval.

TRMA 560 Trauma-Informed Cognitive Behavioral Therapy Applications

1 hour

Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT) is recognized as a best practice strategy effective in mitigating the impact of traumatic stress in those struggling in the aftermath of a critical incident. In this course students will learn a series of CBT techniques useful in early and middle stage interventions with individuals and groups. Students will identify the difference between using these techniques in the context of immediate trauma response versus ongoing therapy. Competence in the techniques will be demonstrated through class role-plays. Instruction format includes a blended learning environment including both face-to-face and online class activities. Prerequisite: TRMA 500 or Professor Approval. Recommended: TRMA 501.

TRMA 571 Trauma Research I

1 hour

Students completing the Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services begin the research component by enrolling in TRMA 571 in either the Fall or Spring term. The Trauma Research Project is a thesis that represents the culminating demonstration of the student's trauma-informed expertise. The student will engage in a 9 to 12 month project designed to advance service delivery and/or research related to improving trauma response services. Post-graduate certificate candidates may opt to partner with government or non-government organizations, including the Trauma Response Institute, engaged in research or service delivery projects in progress, or design their own project to be developed and implemented within a designated setting. Students may also opt to collaborate together in the completion of a project as long as each student has clearly identified responsibilities. Successful completion of the thesis requires completion of the project as detailed in the candidate's trauma research proposal, including a written summary of the project suitable for publication. Students will participate in monthly research team work groups during the Fall and Spring academic terms as all projects will be completed under the supervision of the Trauma Response Institute director. Prerequisite: TRMA 500, TRMA 501. Corequisite: Additional Block A, B, and C courses required for certificate completion.

TRMA 572 Trauma Research II

1 hour

Students completing the Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services continue progress on their research component by enrolling in TRMA 572 in either the Fall or Spring term following the successful completion of TRMA 571. The Trauma Research Project is a thesis that represents the culminating demonstration of the student's trauma-informed expertise. The student will engage in a 9 to 12 month project designed to advance service delivery and/or research related to improving trauma response services. Post-graduate certificate candidates may opt to partner with government or non-government organizations, including the Trauma Response Institute, engaged in research or service delivery projects in progress, or design their own project to be developed and implemented within a designated setting. Students may also opt to collaborate together in the completion of a project as long as each student has clearly identified responsibilities. Successful completion of the thesis requires completion of the project as detailed in the candidate's trauma research proposal, including a written summary of the project suitable for publication. Students will participate in monthly research team work groups during the Fall and Spring academic terms as all projects will be completed under the supervision of the Trauma Response Institute director. Prerequisite: TRMA 500, TRMA 501. Corequisite: Additional Block A, B, and C courses required for certificate completion.

TRMA 573 Trauma Research III

1 hour

Students completing the Post-Graduate Certificate in Trauma Response Services work towards the completion of the research component by enrolling in TRMA 573 in either the Fall, Spring, or Summer term following the successful completion of TRMA 572. The Trauma Research Project is a thesis that represents the culminating demonstration of the student's trauma-informed expertise. The student will engage in a 9 to 12 month project designed to advance service delivery and/or research related to improving trauma response services. Post-graduate certificate candidates may opt to partner with government or non-government organizations, including the Trauma Response Institute, engaged in research or service delivery projects in progress, or design their own project to be developed and implemented within a designated setting. Students may also opt to collaborate together in the completion of a project as long as each student has clearly identified responsibilities. Successful completion of the thesis requires completion of the project as detailed in the candidate's trauma research proposal, including a written summary of the project suitable for publication. Students will participate in monthly research team work groups during the Fall and Spring academic terms as all projects will be completed under the supervision of the Trauma Response Institute director. Prerequisite: TRMA 500, TRMA 501. Corequisite: Additional Block A, B, and C courses required for certificate completion.

TRMA 575 Trauma Research Continuation

1 hour

Students extending the completion of the trauma research project beyond 1 year enroll in TRMA 575 in either the Fall, Spring, or Summer term following the successful completion of TRMA 573. The Trauma Research Project is a thesis that represents the culminating demonstration of the student's trauma-informed expertise. The student will engage in a 9 to 12 month project designed to advance service delivery and/or research related to improving trauma response services. Post-graduate certificate candidates may opt to partner with government or non-government organizations, including the Trauma Response Institute, engaged in research or service delivery projects in progress, or design their own project to be developed and implemented within a designated setting. Students may also opt to collaborate together in the completion of a project as long as each student has clearly identified responsibilities. Successful completion of the thesis requires completion of the project as detailed in the candidate's trauma research proposal, including a written summary of the project suitable for publication. Students will participate in monthly research team work groups during the Fall and Spring academic terms as all projects will be completed under the supervision of the Trauma Response Institute director. Prerequisite: TRMA 500, TRMA 501. Corequisite: Additional Block A, B, and C courses required for certificate completion.

TRMA 582 Best Practices in Organizational Readiness and Response

1 hour

Students will complete a series of United States Federal Emergency Management Agency web-based courses related to trauma-incident preparedness and response. Course content will then be applied in service to a local organization or business through a readiness-review or employee in-service training. Prerequisite: TRMA 500, TRMA 501

TRMA 585 Selected Topics

1 hour

These courses focus on best-practice strategies related to trauma-informed care within specific settings and populations. Course offerings may only be offered once, or might be rotated on an every 2 to 3 year basis depending on interest. Prerequisite: On a per topic basis.

TRMA 595 Special Study In

0-3 hours

A specially designed and individually tailored course of research involving in-depth study of a particular question, problem, or issue presented by the student. The student must make application for the study prior to registration for the semester in which the study will be carried out. The application must be approved by both the faculty member overseeing the study and the department chair.

College of Business Course Descriptions

Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Overview

The mission of the George Fox Master of Business Administration (MBA) program is to prepare trusted leaders who will transform business through academic, professional and spiritual preparation that enables students to think with clarity, act with integrity and serve with passion. The purpose of the Master of Business Administration (MBA) program is to enable graduates to be professionally competent, ethically grounded, globally engaged, socially responsible and servant leaders.

The MBA program is designed for managers and leaders in the private, public and not-for-profit sectors in any industry or field. The program is designed to enhance management and leadership abilities through intellectual, moral and creative growth through an academic experience that is global, relevant and life-changing. In addition to a rigorous curriculum focused on academic excellence, the program draws on student experiences for shared learning opportunities and application.

Degree Outcomes

- Students will demonstrate knowledge and effective application of major concepts and tools in the functional areas of business and their relationship to each other.
- Students will demonstrate the ability to analyze and accurately interpret information to drive effective decision-making.
- Students will demonstrate the ability to effectively communicate orally and through written communication in a variety of business settings.
- Students will demonstrate core ethical competencies and be able to accurately apply ethical practices.
- Students will demonstrate current knowledge of the global business environment and analyze emerging trends by reflecting on global belief systems and documenting global involvement/ engagement.
- Students will reflect awareness of social needs and commitment to social responsibility.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MBA program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the final two years (60 semester hours) of course work. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Master of business administration application
- Submit one official transcript from each college/university attended
- Two letters of recommendation
- A personal essay
- Current resumé

- Applicants may be required to complete online prerequisite modules prior to starting the MBA program

Students whose GPA from the final two years of course work does not reflect their aptitude for graduate work may choose to submit a GMAT test score for consideration in the admission process. The department may consider applicants who show significant promise but do not specifically meet all of these criteria.

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 9 hours credit is allowed toward the MBA program from an MBA program at an accredited graduate school. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution.

Course Requirements

The Master of Business Administration program can be completed in 14 months for the accelerated program, and can take up to two years for the online, asynchronous option. It includes 32 semester hours of coursework which are required as a minimum for graduation. The classes can be taken in a face-to-face, Zoom synchronous, or fully online asynchronous format. All program hours are in prescribed business courses.

Other Requirements

Students are expected to maintain continuous enrollment in the program, remaining with their cohort throughout, so personal and work commitments should be planned accordingly.

Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the Master of Business Administration degree students must:

- Students must complete at least 32 semester hours of course work with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve a grade of C in no more than 6 credit hours of the program curriculum. If a grade lower than C is received in a course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook). C+ grades are allowed to the extent that cumulative GPA remains above a 3.0.

Doctor of Business Administration (DBA)

Overview

The purpose of the Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) program is to provide a Christ-centered doctoral program for business professionals who wish to enhance their careers as executives, consultants or university professors.

This program equips students to research and teach a variety of business disciplines, with a unique focus on the integration of faith and ethics into teaching and practice. Students complete a business core, research core, and education core (including a teaching practicum or a consulting practicum available to practitioners). In addition, they choose a concentration from the current concentration offerings.

The DBA program is a hybrid or fully online program that runs year-round. Students complete the majority of their course work entirely online, but can also attend an on-campus residency once each year in Newberg, Oregon to meet in person with their cohort and professors if they choose to. They can also choose to attend the residency through zoom or may choose a fully asynchronous online option. Residency classes are conducted seminar-style during four-day sessions, scheduled in early August. This format allows students to continue full-time employment while pursuing their doctorate part-time. Coursework can be completed in two and a half years with the dissertation or project portfolio to follow.

Doctoral Degree Learning Outcomes

1. Students will integrate Christian faith & ethics into business practice & the classroom.
2. Students will develop a foundational understanding of functional areas of business.
3. Students will understand learning and development theory and be able to apply effective pedagogical tactics, techniques and styles in the classroom.
4. Students will become discriminating consumers of research.
5. Students will demonstrate an ability to conduct scholarly research.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the DBA program must have completed both their Bachelor's and Master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university with a minimum GPA of 3.0. Applicants must have five years of professional experience, or hold a full-time faculty position. In addition, applicants must submit the following documentation to be considered for admission:

- Doctor of Business Administration online application and application fee
- Resume/CV demonstrating appropriate professional experience
- Completion of 3 short-answer essays
  - # What goals and objectives do you have that you are hoping the DBA from George Fox will help you fulfill?
  - # Why are you considering the degree at this time in your life?

- # What strengths and unique experiences will you bring to the program?
- Two letters of reference
- A sample of academic writing which demonstrates the applicant's ability to gather, synthesize, organize, and evaluate research.
- Evidence of completed prerequisites (at least one course in economics, accounting, and finance) or submit evidence of completion of a Peregrine leveling course for every missing prerequisite
- One official transcript from each college/university attended
- Formal Interview
- Additional International Student Requirements (if applicable)
  - # A TOEFL score of 80 (Internet based) or IELTS 6.5 for non-native English speakers
  - # Transcript Evaluations for any degrees earned outside the U.S.
  - # Declaration of Finance and supporting financial documentation

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 6 hours of credit from accredited graduate schools beyond the master's degree is allowed toward the DBA program upon matriculation. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within 10 years of the date of matriculation to the DBA program will be considered for transfer. Potential transfer credit will be evaluated on a class-by-class basis by the program director and registrar's office. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution.

Transfer Requirements

Of the 56 hours required for the DBA program, a minimum of 50 hours must be completed at George Fox University. All work leading to the DBA completion must be completed within seven years from the time of starting the program. Extension of this limit requires the approval of the College of Business faculty. However, only one such extension may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The Doctor of Business Administration program is generally four years in length with 56 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 23 are in core business courses, 21 in doctoral research and dissertation, 6 in education and teaching, and 6 hours in an area of concentration.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the doctor of business administration degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 56 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above

- Achieve no grade lower than a B- in all courses. If a grade lower than a B- is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).
- Be admitted to candidacy for the degree
- Submit an approved written doctoral dissertation or project portfolio
- Successfully defend the written dissertation

BUSG 553 Business Seminar I

3 hours

This course involves in-depth student research, company visits, high-level corporate debriefings and student reports and presentations on a variety of businesses in the greater Portland area. There will be a strong global component to the businesses that are studied and visited. Educational objectives including critical thinking, financial analysis, specific discipline related issues, global awareness, primary research and communication skills will be emphasized. The format will consist of developing a teaching/learning environment that is built around interactions with Portland area business leaders, visits to a variety of organizations, and written and oral pre-briefings and de-briefings involving students and faculty. Additional course fee is required.

BUSG 554 Business Seminar II

3 hours

A continuation of Business Seminar I, the course will focus on continued organization visits and debriefings. There will be a culminating experience that will involve student presentations and interaction with the organization executives who have been involved throughout the two semester sequence. These two courses together will give particular emphasis to the major integrating curricular strands of the Residential MBA program, including critical thinking, verbal and written presentation skills, financial analysis, teamwork, global awareness and Christian world view. Additional course fee is required.

BUSG 556 Developing World-Class Leaders

3 hours

This course will explore the key elements of self, team, and organizational leadership. Students will examine both the beliefs and behaviors required of effective leadership and how to align them for maximum impact. Through the use of presentations, small group discussion, personal assessments, and assignments, students will gain a deeper understanding of their current leadership abilities and what is required of them to become world-class leaders.

BUSG 557 Transformational Leadership

2 hours

This course explores both historical and contemporary leadership theories and models. Particular emphasis is given to evaluating leadership theories from a values perspective and determining the ways in which they can be applied to the most current developments in organizational change strategies. Using this knowledge, students are presented with ways in which leadership can be conceptualized and applied to meet the requirements of today's increasingly complex organizations. Prerequisite: This course is for students in MBA Part-time program.

BUSG 560 Design Thinking for Strategy Development

3 hours

The focus is on the use of design thinking processes and the application of design thinking tools appropriate to situational context necessary for problem-solving and strategy formulation. The course contrasts the traditional, linear approach to problem-solving and strategy formulation with a more holistic, systems thinking approach. The objective, therefore, is to not only increase awareness and understanding of design thinking, but importantly enable learners to apply design thinking tools relative to business strategy to better navigate the challenges of complexity and change faced by leaders in any organization, in any industry today.

BUSG 571 Corporate Finance

3 hours

This course examines the fundamentals of the sources of finance, debt and equity, and the uses of that finance to manage growth. Optimal capital structures will be explored from the standpoint of the operational and financial condition of various businesses and capital budgeting needs. More sophisticated financial topics such as leverage recapitalizations, weighted average cost of capital for debt and equity, and fair market value techniques for business valuation will be covered.

BUSG 572 Investments

3 hours

This course examines the fundamentals of commercial banking in the capital markets from a financial management perspective. Emphasis will be placed on an analysis of investment characteristics, systematic risk, valuation, diversification, and the market price behavior of debt, equity, and derivative securities. Potential sources and uses of firm financing will be examined along with the determination of the appropriate financial structure and related risks. Portfolio theory, the insights and limitations of capital asset pricing model and passive versus active investing will be explored.

BUSG 573 Entrepreneurial Finance

3 hours

This course takes the student through the life cycle of a start-up as seen by the entrepreneur responsible for its finance. The course examines innovation as the foundation for a financially successful venture. With the capitalization table as one important point of reference, the course examines rounds of financing by angel investors, venture capitalists and finally by corporate and institutional investors in an exit round. Milestones of start-up to corporate achievement, and the strategic focus and coherence required for those milestones, are examined in integrative case studies.

BUSG 575 Special Topics in Financial Management

3 hours

This course provides the opportunity to use practical cases to study the financial decisions of a firm. Emphasis of the class will be on global finance issues, business valuations and reorganizations, and risk management.

BUSG 581 Global Strategy

3 hours

This course focuses on the strategic considerations of global business engagement. The necessary organization-wide adaptations required to be an effective, efficient and successful global player will be explored. The implications for choices involving markets, products and sourcing will be examined, as will the importance of understanding global differences in government relationships, market systems and cultures. Topics include globalization and the impact on the global business environment; leveraging international resources and capabilities; understanding global institutions and cultural differences for effective strategic planning and action; entering foreign markets and managing global competitive dynamics; issues concerning global governance and corporate social responsibility.

BUSG 582 Leading Strategic Change

3 hours

This course will focus on the development of corporate strategy with implementation strategies at the functional levels of finance, operations, manufacturing, service delivery, marketing, sales and other relevant functions. 1-3 hours

Individual research and plans of study completed under the supervision of a School of Business faculty member. Permission required from the professor and program director.

BUSG 598 Client/Capstone Project I

1 hour

The Client/Capstone project is an opportunity for MBA students to apply what they have learned in their program to a project in a client environment. The course serves as an integrative, hands-on learning experience using analysis, management, and planning tools gained during the MBA, resulting in a major project that is implemented in a client environment. Students (individually or in teams) will work with a faculty mentor and a representative from the client organization to detail the specific requirements for the capstone. Work on the project will begin in BUSG 598 and be completed in BUSG 599.

BUSG 599 Client/Capstone Project II

1 hour

The Client/Capstone project is an opportunity for MBA students to apply what they have learned in their program to a project in a client environment. The course serves as an integrative, hands-on learning experience using analysis, management, and planning tools gained during the MBA, resulting in a major project that is implemented in a client environment. Students will work with a faculty mentor and a representative from the client organization to detail the specific requirements for the capstone. This course will continue the work begun in BUSG 598.

BUSG 600 Business Analytics: Descriptive Analytics and Forecasting

3 hours

This course focuses on descriptive analytics and what that can tell us about our data frame. How we can best understand and forecast future events based on analytics. Particular attention will also be given to data visualization and how to present descriptive statistics and forecasting information.

BUSG 603 Business Analytics: Applied Analytics and Predictions

3 hours

This course centers around methods of data collection, organization and analysis. Topics include predictive analytics, probability and predictions using regression. Special emphasis will be placed on data collection specification, common measurement error, bias and moderating violations of regression assumptions.

BUSG 606 Business Analytics: Prescriptive Analytics and Modeling

3 hours

Under various contexts, this course allows students to focus on prescriptive methods in process optimization and modeling. Special emphasis is given on optimization in supply chain and other modalities. Data complexity and methods of data collection are considered during this course. Using analytics, we will prescribe activities within a business context for optimizing impact, market, efficiency, etc.

Master of Arts in Teaching

Purpose

The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) program is designed to provide a future teacher with the content and methods necessary to be an effective teacher. Thematic strands such as critical thinking, curriculum, classroom management, cultural proficiency, action research, and technology are integrated throughout the curriculum. The themes add qualities to the program that are not reflected in single courses but are interwoven throughout the curriculum. The form of the teacher education program includes a purposeful use of current research findings on the education of teachers as translated into practical experiences and methodologies.

The Master of Arts in Teaching program may be completed in one of three ways:

1. Face-to-Face Evenings and Saturdays (January, June, and August Starts)
2. Virtual Evenings and Saturdays (January, June, and August Starts)
3. Face-to-Face Daytime (June Start Only)

The program is available to individuals who have completed an undergraduate BA or BS degree in a field other than education.

Degree Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Build on their knowledge of subject matter as they develop pedagogical skills and research methodologies
- Gain knowledge about the psychological, sociological, historical, and philosophical foundations of education
- Apply these understandings in early childhood, elementary, middle and secondary classrooms
- Successfully meet the challenges of classroom teaching

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Meet the federal government's guidelines
- Receive an Oregon Preliminary Teaching License upon completion of the core and passing scores on the appropriate standardized measures (NES Content Specific Examination for single subject licensure, ORELA for multiple subjects authorization, Protecting Students and Civil Rights exam and the State Assessment).

The Preliminary Teaching License may bear endorsements in the following areas: advanced mathematics, art, basic mathematics,* biology, chemistry, drama, health education, integrated science, language arts, music, physical education, physics, social studies, and *Spanish.

* These subjects may be added to another endorsement for high school applicants; integrated science and basic math may stand alone for elementary/middle school applicants.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MAT program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the last two years of coursework. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Master of arts in teaching application and application fee
- Submit one official transcript from each college/university attended
- Completion of the character reference statement required by Oregon TSPC
- Two recommendations
- An interview with the MAT Admission Committee

If accepted into the program, a $200 enrollment deposit is required. Deadline for application is February 1 for the Summer start, June 1 for the Fall start, and October 1 for Spring start. Applications may be reviewed after those dates on a space-available basis. Preference will be given to those candidates who have had experience in schools working with students in their desired authorization level as well as to those candidates who have passed the appropriate ORELA exam.

Prior to full-time student teaching, students must have taken and passed the appropriate ORELA exam. If a student has not completed this requirement, she/he may apply for an exception; however, if an exception is granted and the student does not pass the required exams prior to graduation, the director will not sign any official documents recommending the student as a candidate for licensure in Oregon or any other state.

Transfer Credit

No transfer credit is allowed toward the MAT program. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

All 36 hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The Master of Arts in Teaching program is generally 1-2 years in length with 36 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 28 are in prescribed core education courses (including practicum), 4 hours are Action Research, and 4 hours may be applied to a specialization, such as ESOL, Reading, or SPED.

Effective Spring 2023

The Master of Arts in Teaching program is generally 1-2 years in length with 36 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 29 are in prescribed core education courses (including practicum), 3 hours are Professional Educator Portfolio, and 4 hours may be applied to a specialization, such as ESOL, Reading, or SPED.

Other Degree Requirements

The program structure will be characterized by:

Cohort Model

Students will work in cohorts of 15 to 20 students. Cohorts will include elementary and secondary levels. Cohorts are both blended and authorization-specific. Although they are separate cohorts, they will be blended together for certain experiences and courses.

Theory-Into-Practice Links

Practicum experiences will be a large component of the program. The involvement in a full semester practicum experience will provide preservice teachers with opportunities to apply learning from coursework. University faculty, cooperating teachers, and administrators from local districts will be involved in collaborative efforts to plan links between coursework and application in classrooms. All practicum criteria must be met at the conclusion of the practicum or an additional practicum will be required.

Action Research

A research component will be at the end of the core courses to allow students to do their action research in the classroom following licensure eligibility.

Effective Spring 2023

A professional educator portfolio will be completed to support students in licensing and professional educator requirements.

Thematic Strands

Major strands, such as cultural proficiency, differentiation, assessment, action research, and decision making, will be incorporated throughout the professional courses. Other topics such as classroom management and technology will also be integrated with several of the professional courses.

Study of the Subject Matter Knowledge and Structure

Students will research and discuss the nature and structure of the subject areas while concentrating on their major subject. They will engage in interdisciplinary discussions that will allow them to discern relationships between the subject areas.

Reflection

The ability to reflect on learning about teaching and on the practice of teaching will be developed in small- and large-group discussions, in journal entries, in papers, and in conferences with supervisors and cooperating teachers.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with a Master of Arts in Teaching degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 36 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above

- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).
- Pass appropriate exams to be recommended for licensure

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MAT Plus ESOL Endorsement with Dual Language Speciality program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree program from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the last two years of coursework. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Master of arts in teaching application and application fee
- Submit one official transcript from each college/university attended
- Completion of the character reference statement required by Oregon TSPC
- Two recommendations
- An interview with the MAT Admission Committee

If accepted into the program, a $200 enrollment deposit is required. Deadline for application is February 1 for the Summer start, June 1 for the Fall start, and October 1 for Spring start. Applications may be reviewed after those dates on a space-available basis. Preference will be given to those candidates who have had experience in schools working with students in their desired authorization level as well as to those candidates who have passed the appropriate ORELA exam.

Prior to full-time student teaching, students must have taken and passed the appropriate ORELA exam. If a student has not completed this requirement, she/he may apply for an exception; however, if an exception is granted and the student does not pass the required exams prior to graduation, the director will not sign any official documents recommending the student as a candidate for licensure in Oregon or any other state.

Transfer Credit

No transfer credit is allowed toward the MAT Plus ESOL Endorsement with Dual Language Specialty program. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the Registrar's Office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

All 57 hours required for the MAT Plus ESOL Endorsement with Dual Language Specialty program must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The Master of Arts in Teaching Plus ESOL Endorsement with Dual Language Specialty program is generally 1-2 years in length with 57 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation.

Other Degree Requirements

The program structure will be characterized by:

Cohort Model

Students will work in cohorts of 15 to 18 students. Cohorts will include early childhood, elementary, middle, and secondary levels. Cohorts are both blended- and authorization-specific. Although they are separate cohorts, they will be blended together for certain experiences and courses.

Theory-Into-Practice Links

Practicum experiences will be a large component of the program, beginning with either an enrichment program planned and implemented by the students or a specific volunteer experience. The involvement in a variety of practicum experiences will provide preservice teachers with opportunities to apply learning from coursework. University faculty, cooperating teachers, and administrators from local districts will be involved in collaborative efforts to plan links between coursework and application in classrooms.

Thematic Strands

Major strands, such as cultural proficiency, values, action research, and decision making, will be incorporated throughout the professional courses. Other topics such as classroom management and technology will also be integrated with several of the professional courses.

Study of the Subject Matter Knowledge and Structure

Students will research and discuss the nature and structure of the subject areas while concentrating on their major subject. They will engage in interdisciplinary discussions that will allow them to discern relationships between the subject areas.

Reflection

The ability to reflect on learning about teaching and on the practice of teaching will be developed in small- and large-group discussions, in journal entries, in papers, and in conferences with supervisors and cooperating teachers.

Endorsement Courses

Endorsement courses are completed concurrently with MAT cohort courses. Three courses are taken throughout the MAT cohort program and two courses are taken in May/June after Commencement. The endorsement courses blend with some MAT formats better than others.

Graduation Requirements

In order to complete a Master of Arts in Teaching Plus ESOL Endorsement with Dual Language Specialty students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 58 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.

- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).
- Complete ESOL endorsement milestone project.
- Complete a successful ESOL endorsement practicum experience.

Master of Arts in Teaching Plus Reading Endorsement

Purpose

The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) Plus Reading Endorsement program is designed to provide a future teacher with the content and methods necessary to be an effective teacher. Thematic strands such as critical thinking, curriculum, classroom management, cultural proficiency, and technology are integrated throughout the curriculum. The themes add qualities to the program that are not reflected in single courses but are interwoven throughout the curriculum. The form of the teacher education program includes a purposeful use of current research findings on the education of teachers as translated into practical experiences and methodologies.

The program is available to individuals who have completed an undergraduate BA or BS degree in a field other than education.

Degree Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Build on their knowledge of subject matter as they develop pedagogical skills and research methodologies
- Gain knowledge about the psychological, sociological, historical, and philosophical foundations of education
- Apply these understandings in early childhood, elementary, middle, and secondary classrooms
- Successfully meet the challenges of classroom teaching

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Meet the federal government's "No Child Left Behind" definition of a "highly qualified teacher"
- Earn the Reading Specialist Endorsement
- Receive an Oregon Preliminary Teaching License upon completion of the program and passing scores on the appropriate standardized measures (Content specific ORELA for secondary and middle-level licensure and ORELA for elementary licensure and middle-level authorization)

The Preliminary Teaching License may bear endorsements in the following areas: advanced and basic mathematics, art, *biology, business, chemistry, drama, health education, integrated science, language arts, music, physical education, physics, social studies, and *Spanish.

**These subjects may be added to another endorsement for high school applicants; integrated science and basic math may stand alone for elementary/middle school applicants.*

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MAT program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree program from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the last two years of coursework. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

Master of Arts in Education

Purpose

The Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) program is designed to provide candidates two alternative pathways to obtain an MAEd degree.

Track One: (MAEd without Licensure) is for candidates who desire to understand content and methods pertaining to teaching and learning, but are not pursuing a teaching license. This program is an alternative to the Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) program. The MAEd Track One is a Master's level program that does not meet the requirements for state licensure and does not require candidates to complete the full clinical practice practicum or pass required content knowledge tests. It is recommended for candidates who have completed an undergraduate BA or BS degree in a field other than education, desire a Master's degree in education, but do not plan to teach in the United States. At a reasonable time after making the decision to enter Track One and completing the requirements for the degree, a student can re-enroll in the graduate program to complete any remaining components, to be considered for recommendation by a program director in the School of Education.

Track Two: (Preliminary License + MAEd) is for candidates who desire to earn a Preliminary Teaching License and then continue on to complete action research and additional coursework to fulfill the requirements of the Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) degree. Obtaining a preliminary license first allows a candidate to seek full-time employment as a teacher while continuing to take classes towards earning their degree. This program is advised for individuals who have completed an undergraduate BA or BS degree in a field other than education and desire both a teaching license and a Master's degree.

Degree Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Gain knowledge about the psychological, sociological, historical, and philosophical foundations of education
- Build on their knowledge of subject matter to develop pedagogical skills and research methodologies
- Apply these understandings to education in various settings

Professional Objectives

To enable candidates to:

- Use their knowledge and skills to work in educational settings
- Seek employment as a teacher, paraprofessional, in non-profit agencies or other education related organizations

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MAEd program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree program from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the last two years of coursework. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Master of arts in teaching application and application fee
- Submit one official transcript from each college/university attended
- Completion of the character reference statement required by Oregon TSPC
- Three letters of recommendation
- A group assessment with the Admission Committee

If accepted into the program, a $200 tuition deposit is required. Deadline for application is Feb. 1 for summer start, June 1 for fall start, and Oct. 1 for a spring start. Applications may be reviewed after those dates on a space-available basis. Preference will be given to those candidates who have had experience in schools working with students as well as to those candidates who have passed the appropriate ORELA exam.

Transfer Credit

No transfer credit is allowed toward the MAEd program. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

All 36 semester credits must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The Master of Arts in Education program is generally 1-2 years in length with a minimum of 36 semester credits of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. Of those semester credits, 21 are in prescribed MAT core education courses (including 4 practicum credits), 9 semester credits in MEd core courses, and 6 semester credits in an area of specialization.

Of those semester credits, 14 are in prescribed MAT core education courses, 10 semester credits in MEd core courses, 9 semester credits in an area of specialization, and 3 electives.*

Other Degree Requirements

The program structure will be characterized by:

Cohort Model

Students will work in cohorts that average between 10 to 18 students. Cohorts will include multiple and single subject levels.

Theory-Into-Practice

Candidates will have numerous opportunities to practice what they learn in order for content to be more than theoretical understanding. Students may have volunteer opportunities in addition to a Clinical Practice Practicum, where they will be able to collaborate with university faculty, cooperating teachers, and administrators from local school districts to apply learning from coursework to the P-12 classroom.

Research

Candidates in the MAEd program will learn how to access and apply current research in their practice. Education is an ever-changing field and practitioners should understand how to stay current in their approaches. Candidates will conduct an action research project and present at a research symposium at the completion of their program.

Effective Spring 2023

Candidates in the MAEd program will learn how to access and apply current research in their practice. Education is an ever-changing field and practitioners should understand how to stay current in their approaches.

Thematic Strands

Both tracks have integrated curriculum that infuse critical thinking skills, pedagogy, classroom management, cultural proficiency, and technology. These elements are interwoven throughout the program and include a purposeful use of current research on education and methodologies.

Reflection

The ability to be a reflective practitioner will be developed in group discussions, journal entries, papers, and conferences with supervisors and cooperating teachers.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the Master of Arts in Education (MAEd) degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 36 credits with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

Students in Track One of the MAEd program will not complete a full-time student teaching requirement, therefore, the director will not sign any official documents recommending the student as a candidate for teaching licensure in Oregon or any other state.

Students in Track Two of the MAEd program will complete a full-time student teaching requirement, therefore, upon successful completion, will be eligible for licensure in Oregon.

Master of Education

Overview

The Master of Education program is designed to fulfill the professional development needs of educators who specialize in different aspects of P-12 education and other educational related fields. There are two different specialties from which candidates can choose:

- Reading (meets TSPC requirements for the Reading Specialist Endorsement along with passing the Reading Praxis exam)
- English as a Second Language (meets TSPC requirements for the ESOL Endorsement along with passing the ESOL Praxis exam)

Degree Outcomes for a Master of Education Student

- P-12 Classroom teacher leader
- Building/District leadership
- Online teaching pioneer/settler with pedagogical expertise

Student Learning Outcomes

- Dynamic student access to Professional Learning Networks
- Strengthen professional identity of each teacher to include the habits of scholarship (use and evaluation of research, participation in research, evaluation of programs)

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MEd program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in most recent 60 semester or 90 quarter hours (and an explanation if the grade point is below 3.0). In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Master of education application and application fee
- One- to two-page essay as described in the application
- One official transcript from all colleges or universities attended
- Three references (forms provided in the application materials).

Applicants seeking to meet TSPC licensure or endorsement requirements upon completion of the program must also complete the following:

- Verification of valid Oregon teaching license or the equivalent, such as an expired or out-of-state license, education degree, or documented and appropriate teacher experience (applicants to the program that do not have a teaching license should submit a letter of explanation as to how the program would meet their professional goals.)
- Completed Teachers Standards and Practices Character Questionnaire

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit may be allowed in the Master of Education program on a case by case basis from accredited graduate schools. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

The 30 hours required for the Master of Education program consists of 15 hours of core courses and 15 hours of a selected specialization. The 15 hours of core courses must be taken from George Fox University. The core courses within the Master of Education program are delivered online.

All work leading to the Master of Education is regularly completed within a pre-determined semester cycle within a cohort model. Any extensions required must be approved by the MEd faculty. A leave of absence enables a student to be absent from the program for one year but after that time, students must reapply to the program, accepting responsibility for all changes made to the program. Length of program may vary from 4-7 semesters depending on start date.

Course Requirements

The Master of Education program is generally 4-7 semesters in length with 30 total semester hours of coursework required for graduation. Of those 30 hours, 15 are in core education foundations courses, and 15 in a chosen area of specialization.

Other Degree Requirements

In addition to the core requirements, students must complete the following requirements:

- No later than completion of 10 semester hours, a degree-seeking student must complete the MEd degree application process.
- Each degree-seeking student will be assigned a graduate faculty advisor who will assist the student in planning his or her proposed course of study.
- The approved course of study must be completed to earn the degree for each specialization.

Licensure in Oregon and Other States

Upon completion of the MEd degree, students will be eligible for advanced teaching licenses in Oregon. (In some cases, additional professional tests may be required.) This MEd program may also allow students to meet the licensure or recertification requirements of other states as well. Non-Oregon students will need to check each particular state's licensing criteria before designing the MEd program.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the MEd degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 30 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a core course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

Curriculum Plan

Career Outcomes:

- P-12 classroom teacher leader
- A district technology leader
- Online teaching pioneer/settler

Learning Outcomes:

- Increased student access to technology
- Digital instructional strategies and tools, such as blogs, webs, podcasts, feedback channels, and other Web 2.0 tools, become the new norm in learning and assessment
- A strong understanding of and adherence to ethical foundations of technology usage

Sequence of Study:

- Each student will choose one of the specializations listed below which most aligns with her/his professional goals. The course of study will then follow that selected specialization.

Course Requirements

Master of Education Plus Special Education Endorsement

Overview

Candidates for the Master of Education Plus Special Education Endorsement have multiple opportunities to demonstrate progress toward professional standards. Every course in the endorsement has a common assessment tied directly to course goals, which in turn align with the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) and Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) standards. George Fox University is committed to multiple measures of candidates' abilities to provide meaningful learning experiences for students in P-age 21 settings who have specialized learning needs. Candidates for the Special Education endorsement must also pass the Special Education National Evaluation Series™ (NES®) test.

Note: Those students accepted into the Master of Education degree program with the Special Education endorsement will begin the MEd Plus SPED program in the summer sessions and move through the program in a cohort with a planned sequence of courses.

Degree Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Hone the personal development and professional teaching skills in order to meet the needs of all students in today's world

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Fulfill their professional development needs as educators who specialize in different aspects of P-age 21 education
- Earn the Special Education (SPED) Endorsement

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MEd program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in most recent 60 semester or 90 quarter hours (and an explanation if the grade point is below 3.0). ## Other Degree Requirements

In addition to the core requirements, students must complete the following requirements:

- No later than completion of 10 semester hours, a degree-seeking student must complete the Master of Education Plus Principal License degree application process.
- Each degree-seeking student will be assigned a graduate faculty advisor who will assist the student in planning his or her proposed course of study.
- The approved course of study must be completed to earn the degree.

Licensure in Oregon and Other States

Upon completion of the Master of Education Plus Principal License degree, students will be eligible for a principal license in Oregon. (In some cases, additional professional tests may be required.) This Master of Education Plus Principal License program may also allow students to meet the licensure or recertification requirements of other states as well. Non-Oregon students will need to check each particular state's licensing criteria before designing the Master of Education Plus Principal License program.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the Master of Education Plus Principal License degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 30 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a core course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

Curriculum Plan

Career Outcomes:

- Building-level leadership
- P-12 teacher leadership

Learning Outcomes:

- Increased access to equitable learning outcomes for each student in schools
- A strong understanding of and adherence to ethical foundations of leadership
- Involving others in the school community from multiple perspectives

Sequence of Study:

Endorsements

- Dual Language Specialty (stand alone)
- Reading Endorsement
- Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Endorsement
- Special Education Endorsement

Licensure Preparation Programs

- Principal License
- Professional License
- Preliminary Teaching License-only Program

Dual Language Specialty

Purpose

The Dual Language Specialty for bilingual educators holding a professional or initial teaching license and ESOL Endorsement. The Dual Language Specialty will enhance the teacher's skills by adding content and pedagogy expertise in dual language education.

Program Objectives

Educational Objective

To enable students to:

- Gain experience and expertise necessary to increase the academic and linguistic progress of students in dual language classrooms.

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Meet the Oregon state requirements for a Dual Language Specialization.
- Obtain the Dual Language Specialty added to an ESOL Endorsement.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Dual Language Specialty must:

- Meet the requirements for admission to Master of education application and hold an ESOL Endorsement.
- Demonstrate Target Language proficiency, which could be demonstrated by several avenues: (a) Completion of undergraduate or graduate degree in Target Language; (b) National Evaluation Series (NES) test in Target Language with passing scores; (c) ACTFL Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI), Reading Proficiency Test (RPT) and Writing Proficiency (WPT) in Target Language.
- Complete the application form and fee to be considered for admission to the program.

Transfer Credit

Applicants seeking admission to the Dual Language Specialty must:

Special Education Endorsement

Purpose

The Special Education Endorsement is a stand-alone program designed for those candidates who desire to add the Special Education Endorsement to an existing teaching license.

Endorsement Description

Special Education Endorsement [P21]: Early Childhood/Elementary, Elementary/Middle School or Middle School/High School

The Special Education Endorsement for candidates holding a preliminary license is a 25-semester hour program. This standards-based program will provide in-service educators with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to increase the academic progress of students identified with special learning needs. Professors in the program are either current practitioners or higher education personnel who hold appropriate credentials and degrees to teach and mentor accepted candidates. The program requires clinical experiences under the guidance of experienced special education teachers. Courses are either taught face-to-face, online or in a hybrid format.

The Special Education Endorsement will serve these types of educators:

- In-service educators who hold a Preliminary License (formerly Oregon Initial I license) and want to add the Special Education Endorsement in the move toward Professional License or other advanced credentials.
- Teachers who already have an Oregon Professional License (formerly Initial II License), but want to work with students in Special Education.
- Teachers from other states with current teaching credentials who wish to add the Special Education Endorsement to that license.

Candidates for the Special Education Endorsement will have multiple opportunities to demonstrate progress toward professional standards during the program. Every course in the endorsement program has a common assessment tied directly to course goals, which in turn align with the Oregon Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) and Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) standards. George Fox University is committed to multiple measures of candidates/abilities to provide meaningful learning experiences for students in P-age 21 settings who have specialized learning needs. Candidates for the Special Education Endorsement must also pass all appropriate state testing in order to add the endorsement to an existing license.

Students accepted into the Special Education Endorsement will begin coursework in the fall session of each year and move through the program in a cohort with a planned sequence of courses.

Program Outcomes

Educational Objectives

Candidates who complete this Special Education Endorsement will be able to:

- Write Standard-based compliant IEP's including SMART goals
- Monitor student progress for annual goal reporting
- Implement procedural requirements
- Develop and implement appropriate curriculum, instruction, and assessments across grade levels
- Instruct large and small groups using effective teaching methods
- Problem solve with staff and parents around student needs and services
- Lead IEP meetings efficiently
- Effectively organize caseload activities; paperwork, notice, meetings, eligibility forms, IEPs, etc.
- Use time wisely to complete all procedural requirements

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Fulfill their professional development needs as educators who specialize in different aspects of Mild to Moderate and Moderate to Severe P-age 21 education
- Earn the Special Education (SPED) Endorsement.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Special Education endorsement program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in most recent 60 semester or 90 quarter hours (and an explanation if the grade point is below 3.0). In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Master of Education application form and application fee
- One- to two-page essay as described in the application
- One official transcript from all colleges or universities attended
- Three references (forms provided in the application materials).

Applicants seeking to meet TSPC licensure or endorsement requirements upon completion of the program must also complete the following:

- Verification of valid Oregon teaching license or the equivalent, such as an expired or out-of-state license, education degree, or documented and appropriate teacher experience (applicants to the program that do not have a teaching license should submit a letter of explanation as to how the program would meet their professional goals.)
- Complete Teachers Standards and Practices Character Questionnaire

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit will be considered on a case to case basis by the Department Chair. Transfer credits will only be considered upon review of Official Transcripts and Course Descriptions of the transfer courses.

Residence Requirements

Of the 25 hours required for the Special Education Endorsement program, all hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University, except pre-approved transfer credit courses. Courses are offered face to face, online, and in a hybrid format.

Course Requirements

The Special Education Endorsement (SPED) program is generally 18 months in length with 25 semester hours of SPED coursework required for completion.

Licensure in Oregon and Other States

Upon completion of the SPED program, students will need to take the appropriate SPED tests before applying for their Special Education Endorsement through Oregon's Teachers Standards and Practice Commission (TSPC). Non-Oregon students will need to check each particular state's licensing criteria before entering the SPED program.

Graduation Requirements

In order to earn the Special Education Endorsement students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 25 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B- in all core courses. If a grade lower than a B- is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

Curriculum Plan

Principal License

Purpose

The Principal License program is designed to prepare competent and ethical leaders to meet the personnel needs of schools in Oregon. This can best be accomplished by partnering with public and private schools to identify and develop leaders who have an equal commitment to developing these skills with faith, vision, and love as their foundation.

George Fox University offers candidates the opportunity to earn as many as two licenses that prepare educators to serve in Oregon public schools as K-12 building or district-level administrators. The Principal License can be earned as a specialization in the master of education degree, as a stand-alone license past the master's degree, or as part of the doctor of education degree.

Program Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Understand the developmental needs of students at all authorization levels
- Be able to conduct and use research as a tool for improving a learning organization
- Understand the goals of the Oregon Content Standards and how to use them as a guide in assessing each school's goals and evaluating progress

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Be prepared to lead teachers in helping students meet learning standards and in continuing their professional development
- Understand current school practices and work within the larger political, social, economic, legal, and cultural context to facilitate new ways of helping all students become productive citizens

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Principal License program must hold an approved master's degree such as a master of arts in teaching (MAT) degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0. For applicants with an undergraduate college degree only, the applicant must complete a master's or higher degree including the approved Principal License program. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Administrator License application and application fee

- Verification of at least three years of successful licensed teaching or personnel experience in public schools or regionally accredited private schools on an appropriate level
- Evidence of leadership potential based on assessments of skills in leadership, management, and human relations as supported by supervisors' recommendations
- Completed Teachers Standards and Practices Character Questionnaire

Transfer Credit

Upon approval by the department, transfer of up to 3 hours credit is allowed toward the Principal License program. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Of the 27 hours required for the Principal License program, a minimum of 24 hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the license program must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the School of Education (SOE) Faculty. However, only one such extension may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The Principal License program is generally 1-3 years in length with 27 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 21 are core educational courses and 6 are practicum.

Other Program Requirements

The university and site mentors will meet to verify the candidate's demonstration and documentation of the following knowledge, skills, and competencies listed in OAR 584-420-0060:

- Standard 1: Mission, Vision, and Core Values
- Standard 2: Ethics, Professional Norms, and Sociopolitical Leadership
- Standard 3: Equity and Cultural Leadership
- Standard 4: Instructional Leadership
- Standard 5: Community and External Leadership
- Standard 6: Operations and Management
- Standard 7: Human Resource Leadership
- Standard 8: Clinical Practice

Graduation Requirements

In order to complete the Principal License students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 27 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

Curriculum Plan

Core Courses (21 hours)

Complete the following:

Practicum (6 hours)

Complete the following:

ADMN 548 Principal License Practicum I 3 hours
 ADMN 549 Principal License Practicum II 3 hours

The two semesters of practicum have three components: on-site building-level experiences, online seminars, and a professional portfolio. Practicum experiences may begin at the completion of at least three of the following four core classes (ADMN 540, ADMN 541, ADMN 542, ADMN 543, ADMN 544, ADMN 550 and ADMN 551) or on the approval of the program director. Administrator License candidates will begin their professional portfolio at the start of ADMN 548 Principal License Practicum I. Candidates will add to the portfolio throughout their practicum, ending with ADMN 549 Principal License Practicum II and a presentation that serves as a capstone in ADMN 549. Each candidate assembles a portfolio that documents satisfactory performance in the TSPC standards listed in OAR 584-420-0060 (10). Concurrent enrollment may be approved by the program director.

Professional Administrator License

Purpose

The Professional Administrator License program is designed to prepare competent and ethical leaders to meet the personnel needs of schools in Oregon. This can best be accomplished by partnering with public and private schools to identify and develop leaders who have an equal commitment to developing these skills with faith, vision, and love as their foundation.

George Fox University offers candidates the opportunity to earn as many as two licenses that prepare educators to serve in Oregon public schools as K-12 building or district-level administrators. The Professional Administrator License can be earned as a stand-alone license past the master's degree or as part of the doctoral program.

Program Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Understand the developmental needs of students at all authorization levels
- Be able to conduct and use research as a tool for improving a learning organization
- Understand the goals of the Oregon Content Standards and how to use them as a guide in assessing each school's goals and evaluating progress

Applicants seeking admission to the Professional Administrator License program must hold an approved Master's degree such as a master of arts in teaching (MAT) degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0. For applicants with an undergraduate college degree only, the applicant must complete a master's or higher degree including the approved Professional Administrator License program. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Administrator License Program application and application fee
- Verification of valid Oregon teaching license
- Verification of at least three years of successful licensed administrative experience at the half-time level or above (.5 FTE), in public schools or regionally accredited private schools, education service districts, state-operated or federal schools, or any private schools registered by the Oregon Department of Education

- Evidence of leadership potential based on assessments of skills in leadership, management, and human relations as supported by supervisors' recommendations
- Completed Teachers Standards and Practices Character Questionnaire

Transfer Credit

Upon approval by the department, transfer of up to 3 hours credit is allowed toward the Professional Administrator License program. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Of the 18 hours required for the Professional Administrator License program, a minimum of 15 hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the license program must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the School of Education (SOE) Faculty. However, only one such extension may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The Professional Administrator License program is generally 1-3 years in length with 18 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 15 are core educational courses and 3 are practicum.

Other Program Requirements

The university and site mentors will meet to verify the candidate's demonstration and documentation of the following knowledge, skills, and competencies listed in OAR 584-420-0070. Each candidate assembles a portfolio that documents satisfactory performance in the TSPC standards listed in OAR 584-420-0070 (10):

- Mission, Vision and Core Values - Develops, articulates, implements, and stewards a vision by promoting community involvement.

Preliminary Teaching License-only Program

Purpose

The Preliminary Teaching License-only program is designed to prepare candidates holding an undergraduate BA or BS degree or a Master's degree in a field other than education with the content and methods necessary to be an effective teacher. Thematic strands such as critical thinking, curriculum, assessment, classroom management, cultural proficiency, and technology are integrated throughout the curriculum. The themes add qualities to the overall cohesiveness of the program and are integrated throughout the curriculum.

The Teacher Licensure program may be completed through a program of study in two semesters part-time, plus one semester full-time.

The program is available to individuals who have completed an undergraduate BA or BS degree or Master's degree in a field other than education.

Program Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Build on their knowledge of subject matter as they develop pedagogical skills and research methodologies
- Gain knowledge about the psychological, sociological, historical, and philosophical foundations of education
- Apply these understandings in early childhood, elementary, middle and secondary classrooms
- Successfully meet the challenges of classroom teaching

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Meet the federal government's guidelines for a Teacher Performance Assessment
- Receive an Oregon Preliminary Teaching License upon completion of the program and passing scores on the appropriate standardized measures (NES Content Specific Examination for single subject licensure, ORELA for multiple subjects authorization, Protecting Students and Civil Rights exam and the State Assessment)

The Preliminary Teaching License provides for adding endorsements in the following areas: advanced mathematics, art, basic mathematics*, biology, chemistry*, health education, integrated science*, language arts, music, physical education, physics, social studies, and Spanish.

* These subjects may be added to another endorsement for high school (single-subject) applicants

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Preliminary Teaching License-only Program must hold a four-year Baccalaureate degree program from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the last two years of course work or an accredited Master's with a minimum GPA of 3.0 in the equivalency of the final 30 semester credits of graduate coursework. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Teacher Licensure application and application fee
- Submit one official transcript from each college/university attended
- Completion of the character reference statement required by Oregon TSPC
- Two recommendations
- A group assessment with the Teacher Licensure Admission Committee

If accepted into the program, a $200 tuition deposit is required. Deadline for application is March 1st. Preference will be given to those candidates who have had experience in schools working with students in their desired authorization level as well as to those candidates who have passed the appropriate ORELA exam.

Prior to full-time student teaching, students must have taken and passed the appropriate ORELA exam. If a student has not completed this requirement, the student may apply for an exception; however, if an exception is granted and the student does not pass the required exams prior to graduation, the director will not sign any official documents recommending the student as a candidate for licensure in Oregon or any other state.

Transfer Credit

No transfer credit is allowed toward the Preliminary Teaching License-only program. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

All 28 semester credits must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Review & Retention Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements.

Effective Spring 2023

All 29 semester credits must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Review & Retention Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements.

Course Requirements

The Preliminary Teaching License-only Program is generally 13 months in length with 28 semester credits of course work required as a minimum for completion. Of those credits, 16 are in prescribed core education courses, 6 in area of specialization, and 6 practicum credits.

Effective Spring 2023

The Preliminary Teaching License-only Program is generally 13 months in length with 29 semester credits of course work required as a minimum for completion. Of those credits, 14 are in prescribed core education courses, 9 in area of specialization, and 6 practicum credits.

Other Program Requirements

The program structure will be characterized by:

Cohort Model

Students will work in cohorts of 12 to 18 students. Cohorts will include elementary and secondary levels. Cohorts are both blended- and authorization-specific. Although they are separate cohorts, they will be blended together for certain experiences and courses.

Theory-Into-Practice Links

Practicum experiences will be a large component of the program. The involvement in a semester-long practicum experience will provide preservice teachers with opportunities to apply learning from course work. University faculty, cooperating teachers, and administrators from local districts will be involved in collaborative efforts to plan links between course work and application in classrooms.

Thematic Strands

Major strands, such as cultural proficiency, differentiation, assessment, action research, and decision-making, will be incorporated throughout the professional courses. Other topics such as classroom management and technology will also be integrated in several of the professional courses.

Study of the Subject Matter Knowledge and Structure

Students will research and discuss the nature and structure of the subject areas while concentrating on their major subject. They will engage in interdisciplinary discussions that will allow them to discern relationships between the subject areas.

Reflection

The ability to reflect on learning about teaching and on the practice of teaching will be developed in small- and large-group discussions, in journal entries, in papers, and in conferences with supervisors and cooperating teachers.

Program Completion Requirements

In order to complete the Preliminary Teaching License-only Program students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 28 semester credits with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above

- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

Pass appropriate exams to be recommended for licensure

Effective 2023

In order to complete the Preliminary Teaching License-only Program students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 29 semester credits with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above

Certificate in the Teaching of Writing

Purpose

Students desiring to add a Certificate in the Teaching of Writing to their professional preparation would complete the requirements below.

Program Outcomes

Educational Objectives

To enable students to:

- Develop expertise in the teaching of writing and use of writing to learn across content areas, in reflective teaching and inquiry, and in teacher leadership

Professional Objectives

To enable students to:

- Obtain a certificate of professional preparation that confirms expertise in the teaching of writing, the use of writing to learn across content areas, reflective teaching and inquiry and teacher leadership
- Serve their school or district as a leader in literacy teaching and learning

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Certificate in the Teaching of Writing program must hold an approved bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0 and have teaching experience. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Graduate Teaching and Leading application form and application fee, and application form submitted to the Oregon Writing Project Collaborative.

Transfer Credit

Upon approval by the department and the Oregon Writing Project Collaborative, up to 3 hours of Graduate level credit is allowed toward the Certificate in the Teaching of Writing from approved National Writing Project Institutes at accredited graduate schools. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Students should consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Of the 15 hours required for the Certificate in the Teaching of Writing program, a minimum of 12 hours must be taken in resident study at George Fox University. All work leading to the Certificate must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the Graduate Teaching and Leading (GTL) Faculty and the Oregon Writing Project Collaborative. However, only one such extension may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee and Oregon Writing Project Collaborative action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The Certificate in the Teaching of Writing program is generally 2 years in length with 15 semester hours of course work required as a minimum for graduation.

Graduation Requirements

In order to complete the Certificate in the Teaching of Writing, students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 15 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).

Course Requirements

Certificate in the Teaching of Writing Courses (15 hours)

Complete the following:

EDWR 505 Institute in the Teaching of Writing I 2-6 hours
EDWR 515 Institute in the Teaching of Writing II 1-3 hours
EDWR 520 Inquiry into the Teaching of Writing 3 hours
EDWR 530 Advanced Strategies in the Teaching of Writing 2 hours
EDWR 540 Professional Leadership in the Teaching of Writing 3 hours
EDWR 550 Teacher Leadership: Writing for Publication 3 hours

Doctor of Education (EdD Degree)

Mission

Our mission is to develop leaders with the knowledge, skills, and dispositions to effectively inspire, educate, lead and serve others effectively for the common good.

Purpose

The EdD prepares scholar-practitioners for P-12 and settings to be leaders who think with clarity, act with integrity, and serve with passion. Our faculty lead students to gain critical and research-based skills for excellent and effective teaching and leadership. Students will become critical consumers of research so they can practice inquiry and engage in scholarly pursuits, enabling them to become leaders who effectively communicate with key constituencies. We promote the scholarship of teaching and leading by helping students bring scholarly habits of mind to their work.

Program Distinctives

Formation of Scholar Practitioners

- Our program design focuses on the formation of scholars along key themes of integration, intellectual community, stewardship, apprenticeship, and collaboration.

Scholar-Practitioner Development

- Our program emphasizes scholarly habits of mind, dispositions, and skills essential for leading in today's academic environments.

Integration

- Our program features an integrated approach to learning through lenses of faith, stewardship, and service. Quaker values shape our perspectives.

Community of Learners

- Our cohort model supports strong student relationships and peer mentorship amidst high faculty involvement.

Personal Care for Students

- Our high completion rates and strong faculty/student relationships indicate commitment to student support and modeling.

Degree Outcomes

Core courses in the EdD are designed to equip learners with knowledge and skills foundational to their discipline. Successful candidates will demonstrate the following outcomes:

- Reflect critically and ethically on matters of equity and social justice in educational settings
- Collaborate to solve educational problems and implement strategic actions that reflect justice for all students and stakeholders
- Apply research-based skills to improve educational practice and student outcomes
- Provide strategic leadership in educational settings
- Analyze and apply research-based learning solutions that support schools and educational settings toward improved practice and student outcomes

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the EdD program must hold an approved bachelor and master's degree from an accredited college or university, with a minimum graduate GPA of 3.25. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Doctor of Education application and application fee
- Resumé indicating a minimum of three years professional experience
- Five (5) short-answer essays as described in the application packet
- Three letters of recommendation from people who can comment on the applicant's intellectual ability, creativity, initiative, sensitivity to others, and leadership potential
- Completed Teachers Standards and Practices Character Questionnaire
- Completed Teachers Standards and Practices Ethical Educator Form
- Evidence of scholarly work (master's thesis, term paper, publication, etc.)
- One official transcript from all colleges or universities attended
- In-person interview

Transfer Credit

Upon approval by the department, transfer of a minimum of 12 credit hours beyond the Master's degree is allowed toward the EdD program from accredited graduate schools. Students choosing the P-12 Administration Concentration who have previously completed a Principal License or Professional Administrator License may transfer in up to the equivalent of 21 semester credits of their licensure coursework towards completion of their concentration and electives. Students who have previously completed both a Principal License and a Professional License may transfer in up to the equivalent of 28 credits pending review of coursework and standard alignment. Students with both a Principal License from any Oregon university and a Professional Administrator License earned at George Fox will transfer in the maximum of 28 credits. Students must have earned a grade of "B" or better for a course to be considered for transfer. All transfer courses must be post-masters from a regionally accredited institution. Transfer credit will be evaluated by the faculty upon admission to the program.

Program Duration and Time Frame

Of the 56 hours required for the EdD program, a minimum of 44 hours must be taken through George Fox University, not to conflict with the transfer of credits from administrator licenses noted above. All work leading to the EdD must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires approval of the doctoral faculty. However, only one such extension per student may be considered due to special circumstances, such as ill health. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires approval and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree. Students maintain full standing in the program by being continuously enrolled (minimum of 2 credits/semester) until degree requirements are met.

Course Requirements

The EdD program is generally three years in length with 56 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation and can be completed in that time frame by taking 19 semester credits in years one and two, and 18 semester credits in year three. Students who have successfully completed appropriate course work beyond the Master's degree may be able to finish the program at a faster pace. Of the total hours required for the program, 30 are in core coursework, 12 are in concentration coursework, 6 hours are electives, and 8 hours are dissertation.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the EdD degree, students must satisfactorily complete a minimum of 56 semester hours with a grade of B or better in all courses. All Pass/No Pass courses need a grade of Pass.

Core Requirements

The curriculum is designed so that students are required to take core course hours in the following perspective areas: faith and learning/ethics, educational foundations, leadership, teaching and learning, colloquium, and research. Students will choose from the following areas of concentration: P-20 Instructional Design and Development, P-12 Administration and Leading Learning. Issues of cultural diversity and justice are woven into courses within each perspective area.

ADMN Course Descriptions

ADMN 540 Leadership in Education

3 hours

Students participate in discussions and/or activities dealing with site-based management, decision making, mentoring, management of human resources, and issues dealing with professional leadership in education. Meets or is met by EDDL 716.

ADMN 541 The Principal: Leading for Inclusion, Equity and Justice

3 hours

This course will offer you a picture of the complexities of the principalship. Serving as the leader in a school setting is perhaps the most challenging position in any school system or structure. The immediate demands in any given day can more than fill a month of diary entries with challenges and successes. The challenge of responding to the immediate, while intentionally charting and leading teams on a course to continuous improvement for all students, fills the "To Do List" to overflowing each and every day.

ADMN 542 Legal Persp on Ed Policy & Fin

3 hours

This course focuses on legal issues that arise in elementary, secondary, and collegiate institutions. The course provides educators with knowledge and analytic skills needed to apply legal frameworks to educational policy including the statutes regulating financial policy. The course investigates creative ways in which law can be used to help address current problems in schools, and helps educators think through questions of ethics and policy that legal disputes raise but do not resolve. Meets or is met by EDDL 710.

ADMN 543 Ethics & Equity in Educational Leadership

3 hours

This course examines how belief structures undergird the methods educators use to motivate people to learn. Through the light of ethical theory, students examine how organizational leaders respond to the situations they face. Students also reflect on and apply their own values and ethical understanding to shed light on case studies that represent situations they often face as educational leaders. Meets or is met by EDDL 700.

ADMN 544 Instructional Leadership and Evaluation

3 hours

This course is designed to help educational leaders understand key ideas central to ongoing research on teaching and learning to establish educational policy and transform educational practice at their institutions. The course emphasizes ways in which cultural, social, and organizational contexts influence learning. Students will learn to use the clinical supervision model and other tools for supervising and evaluating teacher performance based on best practices. The course will examine the leader's role in establishing and maintaining an environment that is conducive to student and adult learning.

ADMN 548 Principal License Practicum I

3 hours

Practicum experiences are carried out at a building level of responsibility by working concurrently in two different authorization level sites. Principal License candidates will begin a practicum in elementary, middle level, and high schools under the direct supervision of a university supervisor and a licensed school administrator as mentor. Assignments will require candidates to learn about issues at the site, work with mentors to resolve the issues, and evaluate how they are being handled. These experiences will be supplemented by online administrative academic projects that focus on school governance and partnerships along with school management topics. The university supervisor, mentors and candidates will communicate in site meetings, virtually and online. Pass/No Pass

ADMN 549 Principal License Practicum II

3 hours

Practicum experiences to document a total of 300 hours continue at a building level of responsibility. Principal License candidates will complete a practicum in elementary, middle level, and high schools under the direct supervision of a university supervisor and a licensed school administrator. Practicum experiences are supplemented by online administrative academic projects that focus on curriculum and staff development, supervision and evaluation, and personnel hiring. The supervisors, mentors and candidates will communicate in site meetings, virtually and online. Pass/No Pass

ADMN 550 Schools as Family and Community Partners

3 hours

This course will call on you to go beyond traditional notions of how schools and the larger communities in which they are set engage and strengthen each other. Schools are increasingly called on to do more than present students with opportunities to learn core subject areas. Indeed, they are often the hubs of any community, urban and rural and everything in between. The challenge of a broadened call upon schools to serve as a partner in the community is at times daunting, but one that can and should be viewed as an incredible opportunity to partner to do more for all, both inside and outside the walls of the school house.

ADMN 551 Aligning Data and Resources for Continuous School Improvement

3 hours

This course is designed to provide students with an understanding of the importance of a framework for continuous school improvement that is aligned to the mission, goals and values of a school and district. Getting better at getting better is the underlying work of continuous improvement systems models that serve as the engine to ongoing improvement in a school. Concepts such as alignment and cohesion to mission, values, resource investment, data priorities and communications will be explored.

ADMN 640 School District Leadership

3 hours

This is a core requirement of the Professional Administrative Licensure program and requires admission to the doctoral program, the Professional Administrative Licensure program, or specific advisor approval. This course focuses on district-level leadership roles and the importance of shared vision. Participants will assess their management styles in light of the requirements of various upper-level management positions in a variety of educational organizations. The class will examine how education districts of various sizes organize to maximize learning and to perform necessary functions as required by state and national mandates. Topics include establishing a vision for the organization, empowering others to lead, human resource selection and development, working with other leaders, making public presentations, and dealing with hostile constituents.

ADMN 642 Inclusive Systems to Promote Success for Each Student

3 hours

This is a core requirement of the Professional Administrative Licensure program and requires admission to the doctoral program, the Professional Administrative Licensure program, or specific advisor approval. This course focuses on leadership responsibilities of specialized programs. The class will examine how educators can navigate federal mandates for special programs using Oregon's statutes, administrative rules, and agencies as a model. Participants will be involved through discussions, simulations, and presentations utilizing materials and personnel from a variety of educational organizations. Course topics include: administrating special programs (e.g., special education, talented and gifted, English as a second language); dealing with curricular and legal issues encountered in delivering these services to children; and developing strategies to improve the academic performance of students through special programs. Additional emphasis will be placed on emerging leadership strategies to address the needs of alternative education students.

ADMN 643 Executive Leadership in Education

3 hours

This is a core requirement of the Professional Administrative Licensure program and requires admission to the doctoral program, the Professional Administrative Licensure program, or specific advisor approval. The role of the school superintendent is increasingly challenging and requires specialized knowledge and skills to avoid common pitfalls. This course provides practical knowledge and skills needed to succeed in the superintendent role focusing on school board relations and communication, facility development, collective bargaining, grievance resolution, board meeting management, board member development, and advanced personnel issues such as dismissal and sexual harassment investigation.

ADMN 644 Program Evaluation for Systems Improvement

3 hours

This is a core requirement of the Professional Administrative Licensure program and requires admission to the doctoral program, the Professional Administrative Licensure program, or specific advisor approval. This course surveys the principles and practices useful to the evaluation of organizational programs and policies. Participants examine the models and tools used in informing educational and other leaders as to evaluation purpose, design, and methods for understanding the role of evaluation in program planning, implementation, and accountability. The course focuses on understanding: the purposes of evaluation, the role of the evaluator, evaluation designs and analysis, presentation of evaluation results, and the role of evaluation conclusions in organizational decision making.

ADMN 646 Maximizing and Aligning Organizational Resources

3 hours

This is a core requirement of the Professional Administrative Licensure program and requires admission to the doctoral program, the Professional Administrative Licensure program, or specific advisor approval. Educational leaders must balance the allocation of scarce resources among competing interests while managing the organizational structure and empowering those who support the organizational mission. This course prepares educators to address the value tensions inherent in the allocation of resources and the educational consequences linked to those fiscal decisions. Issues of efficiency, equity, adequacy, and control in educational finance will be specifically addressed from historical, economic, moral, legal, and political perspectives. The course also provides a critical analysis of organizations, how they function, why people in organizations behave as they do, and examines the formal and informal decision-making structures that affect educational organizations.

ADMN 648 Professional Administrator Practicum I

2 hours

Practicum experiences are carried out at building or district level of responsibility under the direct supervision of a university supervisor and a licensed district administrator as mentor. Practicum experiences are supplemented by online administrative academic projects that focus on advanced competencies of administration. The supervisors, mentors and candidates will communicate in site meetings, virtually and online. Pass/No Pass

ADMN 649 Professional Administrator Practicum II

1 hour

Practicum experiences will continue at a district level of responsibility. Practicum experiences are supplemented by online administrative academic projects that focus on advanced competencies of administration. The supervisors, mentors and candidates will communicate in site meetings, virtually and online. Pass/No Pass

DUAL Course Descriptions

DUAL 570 Applied Comparative Linguistics: English - Target Language

3 hours

This course, taught in Target Language, examines the fundamental linguistic structures (phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics) of English and Target Language. Topics include comparative and contrastive analysis of both languages, linguistic transfer, linguistic basis for literacy, and discourse analysis of English and Target Language.

DUAL 571 Parent and Community Involvement

1 hour

This course examines principles, research and applications that strengthen school and community relations to construct a supportive and inclusive learning environment for all students. Emphasis is on improving communication with Target Language families and considering parents as assets and partners in the education of their children.

DUAL 572 Sociolinguistics and Education

2 hours

This course, taught in Target Language, examines issues related to the interaction between language, society and school, with a particular focus on Target Language population in the United States. It emphasizes topics such as language policy, bilingual education, linguistic identity, language choice, and pedagogical use of Target Language in dual language classrooms. It also examines the socio-cultural and historical forces that affect cross-cultural interaction; including social injustice that Target Language populations have experienced.

DUAL 573 Biliteracy Instruction

3 hours

This course, taught in Target Language, focuses on current methods and materials for English - Target Language biliteracy instruction. Strategies used to teach reading and writing in the content area will be explored, and biliteracy teaching methods will be modeled and implemented. Emphasis is on biliteracy reading and writing trajectories, holistic bilingual assessment, bridging, and Target Language children's literature texts.

DUAL 576 Practicum: Dual Language

2 hours

This practicum will be completed in either a self-contained multiple subjects classroom or in a single subject content area classroom, in settings with dual language instruction. Candidates will complete a teacher performance assessment during this practicum. Candidates will complete a minimum of 90 hours of clinical practice in a dual language placement.

EDDL Course Descriptions

EDDL 685 Special Topics

1-3 hours

These courses are developed to provide the educator with in-depth knowledge on educational issues of importance to the field.

EDDL 695 Special Study

2-3 hours

These independent courses are developed to provide the student with in-depth knowledge in the content of subject matter taught under the direction of a faculty member. Prerequisite: approval from the doctor of education director and the EDDL department chair.

EDDL 700 Ethics, Equity and Justice

3 hours

This course approaches the study of ethics by examining the teachings of Jesus and contemporary ethical theories and applies them to the dilemmas of leadership within both public and private education in the culturally diverse communities they serve. Additionally, this course will examine theories and practices of educational equity in relation to various forms of social inequality and marginalization in the American context. Close reading and analysis of contemporary educational research will offer students an opportunity to explore how social justice issues play out in contemporary educational contexts and their implications for practice. Meets or is met by ADMN 543.

EDDL 701 How Faith Sustains the Life of the Mind

3 hours

This course examines how faith, and particularly the Christian faith, can sustain the life of the mind, serving as an energizing and guiding force in the work and life of a scholar-practitioner. We will examine both the positives and challenges of serving a public religion, the shaping influence of denominational beliefs, what might it mean to teach from a Christian perspective, the concerns regarding maintaining distinctiveness yet avoiding proclamation in educational settings, and the characteristics and commitments that make an educational institution truly Christian. Quaker testimonies (values) will also be examined as a case study for the formation of wisdom communities.

EDDL 710 Political & Social Persp in Ed

3 hours

Educators operate in a complex web of political relationships - within schools and universities, between educational institutions and their communities, and across levels of government. This course is designed to enable educators to become more effective and responsible actors within this web of political and social relationships in order to improve, restructure, and transform educational institutions. The following questions are examined: What is power? How is political consciousness formed in children and adults? How do social problems become political issues? How is the political decision-making agenda set? How are policy issues decided? How do policy decisions affect and how are they affected by the organizational structure of institutions? How can educational leaders use political power to transform schools? The issues of change; desegregation; decentralization; equality of educational opportunity; structure of educational organization; teacher/student relationships; reform in education at elementary, secondary, post-secondary levels; and multiculturalism are also examined. Meets or is met by ADMN 542.

EDDL 716 The Art and Craft of Leader: Strategies for Organizational Change, Development, and Vitality

3 hours

After a survey of contemporary leadership theories, this course will focus on strategies for effective organization change, thoughtful organizational development, and the impact of leadership on institutional vitality – both positive and negative. Leadership will be understood as both an art form open to creativity, passion and care, and a craft requiring disciplined thought and action. Each student will also develop a personal philosophy of leadership. Meets or is met by ADMN 540.

EDDL 720 Research in Effective Teaching

3 hours

Analysis and investigation of current research in effective teaching methods as related to specific subject areas, learning styles, and current school reform will be applied.

EDDL 725 Colloquia

1 hour

This course is designed to extend and deepen thinking about education, "educational leadership" and inquiry through shared readings, interaction with faculty and local educational leaders, and critical reflective writing and conversation.

EDDL 730 Teaching and Learning in Higher Education

3 hours

A course designed to lead professors to gain knowledge and skill in instructional planning, teaching, and assessment in face-to-face, blended, and online instructional environments. Students will review current research focused on young adult and adult learners.

EDDL 731 Higher Education History and Current Practice

3 hours

A course designed to introduce students to the history of higher education from ancient times through the Middle Ages to the development of the current state of the American research university from a Colonial College Model. The course is designed to focus on how events and issues from the past have been addressed and how they tend to resurface today. The intent is to provide the student with insight, perspectives, and wisdom to address contemporary issues and improve current practice.

EDDL 732 Higher Education Leadership and Management

3 hours

This course is designed to accomplish three things: (1) provide an synopsis of cogent leadership theories and their application to higher education; (2) offer an overview of the structures, challenges, and concerns facing senior higher education administrators, and (3) identify and examine the management functions at work in contemporary higher education.

EDDL 733 Contemporary Issues in Higher Education

3 hours

This course examines contemporary trends and issues in American higher education designed to orient students to issues, ideas, and literature that constitute the study of higher education, with emphasis on underlying social and political issues that shape higher education and organizational change.

EDDL 740 Curriculum, Instruction and Assessment

3 hours

In this class, candidates will gain advanced knowledge of curriculum theory, policy, models and practice. They will learn to lead curriculum development and assessment projects, and explore research-based instruction and assessment to support curriculum development.

EDDL 741 Leading Educational Organizations through Professional Development

3 hours

This course examines the adult learner and principles of effective professional development.

EDDL 742 Leading People

3 hours

Bringing about change in organizations requires a unique set of leadership skills. Those charged with leadership responsibilities need knowledge and skill to lead people and teams in productive ways. This course explores emerging theories related to leading people.

EDDL 743 Equity in Educational Environments

3 hours

This course will lead students to reflect and act on the intersection of personal, interpersonal, and organizational influences on beliefs, values, policies, practices, and structures. They will examine the ways these influences prohibit or advantage educational equity and opportunity for all individuals. Students will explore leadership that promotes equitable policies, procedures, and systems to enhance learning within P-20 or community-based educational organizations.

EDDL 760 The Idea of the University and Contemporary Developments

3 hours

This course examines the idea of the university since its beginning in medieval times, paying particular attention to thinkers in the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries. The intent is to provide the student with a philosophical orientation and perspective on recurring contemporary issues related to HE, helping to guide decision making at all levels of the institution in order to provide wise care of the structures, values, practices, and persons who live and work in institutions of higher education.

EDDL 762 Assessment Literacy for Teacher Leaders

3 hours

In this course, teacher leaders will explore and practice processes that help educators to make informed data driven decisions related to classroom and school-wide outcomes. Advanced work with formative and summative assessment prepares teacher leaders to direct building initiatives.

EDDL 763 Leadership in Digital Technology for Education Organizations

3 hours

This course focuses on the real-world issues of planning for, implementing, sustaining, and institutionalizing the use of technology to enhance teaching and learning throughout an educational organization.

EDDL 764 International Perspectives on Education

3 hours

Education is ever on the agenda of national governments. What role is education expected to play in national development? In this course students will examine the varied ways by which different nations tackle issues such as equity, efficiency, and quality in education. The course will also examine the conceptual and methodological questions underlying the field of comparative education. Particular attention is given to types of social and political analysis that may be applied to comparative and cross-national studies in education.

EDDL 765 Research Internship

1-3 hours

1, 2, or 3 credits: This internship provides apprenticeship-learning opportunities alongside EdD professors, with a focus on developing and applying knowledge for educational practice. Students may demonstrate proficiency in program evaluation as part of the internship. Internships provide students with in-depth learning experiences in settings outside the university classroom. Opportunities include research-based partnerships with EdD professors or other possible educational partners. All internships are planned and completed under the guidance of a university faculty member. Students in the EdD program should consider internships as elective options to enrich their program of study. Please contact an individual faculty member for each internship experience at least one semester prior to enrolling.

EDDL 766 Principles of Effective Mentoring

3 hours

Research, theory and effective practice is explored in this course on mentoring in educational settings.

EDDL 769 Scholarly Reading and Writing Seminar

3 hours

This course is designed for students who wish to delve more deeply into a specific area of study relevant to their doctoral concentration, and to write about that subject in a scholarly manner, producing material worthy of publication. In partnership with the professor of record, students will construct a list of scholarly publications and resources to engage, and a writing schedule with content criteria, submission due dates, and desired outcomes for the seminar.

EDDL 775 Teaching Internship

1-3 hours

1, 2, or 3 hours: This internship provides apprenticeship alongside GFU professors teaching undergrad or graduate teacher education courses in the student's field of study. Emphasis is on developing thoughtful and informed pedagogy in online, hybrid, or face-to-face learning environments. Internships provide students with in-depth learning experiences in settings outside the university classroom. Opportunities include teaching-based partnerships with EdD professors. All internships are planned and completed under the guidance of a university faculty member. Students in the EdD program should consider internships as elective options to enrich their program of study. Please contact the individual faculty member for each internship experience at least one semester prior to enrolling.

EDDL 796 Research Literacy for Educational Leadership

3 hours

The course will develop knowledge and skills needed for the critical review and consumption of (1) empirical research from the scholarly and professional literature in educational leadership and (2) data generated through and informative of the professional practice in education. The course addresses the question, "How do scholar practitioners discern and interact with scholarly research and organizational data in ways that contribute to improvement in education?"

EDDL 797 Proposal Development for Inquiry and Research

3 hours

This course will develop key student skills necessary for dissertation research and completion. Technical skills such as refining inquiry and research questions, writing a literature review, and developing a dissertation proposal will be learned. Soft skills and dispositions researchers need to develop and employ will also be studied and fostered. Students will write a problem, purpose and significance statement using a rationale supported by evidence and reasons, including an ethical justification for the chosen problem of practice. They will also provide a justification for how the scholarly literature supports each of the above elements. The course addresses the question, "How do scholar practitioners prepare and plan to communicate research and scholarship findings through dissertation?" NOTE:**Consult with the Research Director ahead of registering for EDDL 797 to determine the most appropriate track for either the 800-803 or 806-807 sequence; each track requires 8 credits for completion.

EDDL 798 Data Analysis & Evidence-Based Improvement

3 hours

This course will examine data analysis techniques - both quantitative and qualitative - that are essential to context-based continuous improvement. Leading practice improvement as scholar practitioners in educational settings requires that data be collected, analyzed, and fashioned as evidence that is accepted in schools, the academy and the community. Analysis techniques will be studied for methodological soundness. The course addresses the question, "How do scholar practitioners analyze data effectively, and use it as evidence in service of context-based leadership and scholarship?"

EDDL 799 Using Data for Continuous Organizational Improvement

3 hours

This course will develop skills and thinking related to continuous improvement in education at an organizational level. Approaches and techniques drawn from improvement science and other continuous improvement systems thinking heuristics will be studied and developed. The course addresses the question, "How do organizational leaders intentionally design and monitor continuous improvement aligned to mission?"

EDDL 800 Dissertation

2 hours

Students are required to take a minimum of 8 semester credits for dissertation work (typically spread across fall/spring semesters of Year 3). If the student has not finished the dissertation in this time frame, the candidate must stay continuously enrolled in dissertation credits (2 credits per semester) until the dissertation is completed.

Prerequisites: EDDL 796, 797, 798 and 799.

EDDL 801 Dissertation Research

2 hours

Students are required to take a minimum of 8 semester credits for dissertation work (typically spread across fall/spring semesters of Year 3). If the student has not finished the dissertation in this timeframe, the candidate must stay continuously enrolled in dissertation credits (2 credits per semester) until the dissertation is completed.

Prerequisite: EDDL 800. Can be enrolled concurrently with EDDL 800 with the permission of the Doctor of Education Program director.

EDDL 802 Dissertation Research

2 hours

Students are required to take a minimum of 8 semester credits for dissertation work (typically spread across fall/spring semesters of Year 3). If the student has not finished the dissertation in this timeframe, the candidate must stay continuously enrolled in dissertation credits (2 credits per semester) until the dissertation is completed. Pre-requisite: EDDL 801

EDDL 803 Dissertation Research

2 hours

Students are required to take a minimum of 8 semester credits for dissertation work (typically spread across fall/spring semesters of Year 3). If the student has not finished the dissertation in this timeframe, the candidate must stay continuously enrolled in dissertation credits (2 credits per semester) until the dissertation is completed. Pre-Requisite: EDDL 802. Can be enrolled concurrently with EDDL 802 with the permission of the Doctor of Education Program director.

EDDL 805 Dissertation Research

1-2 hours

Required of doctoral level students who did not complete their dissertation research in EDDL 800-807. Credit hours to be determined by dissertation chair regarding time to completion.

EDDL 806 ISDiP Research

4 hours

In this course, improvement science dissertation in practice (ISDiP) candidates work with their key organizational stakeholders to determine the fit and feasibility of their improvement science project proposal from their 797 course. Consistent with the plan-do-study-act (PDSA) model, they will lead collaboration with a Networked Improvement Community (NIC), including collecting, analyzing, and acting on necessary data in order to improve outcomes in student learning, staff performance, school processes, or stakeholder perceptions. Expected course deliverables over the 60-90 day cycle include sharing and consistently updating a portfolio of NIC session logistics and outcomes, including relevant analysis of frameworks, systems, causes, measures, and participant knowledge with the 806 ISDiP Director. Prerequisites: EDDL 796, 797, 798 and 799.

EDDL 807 ISDiP Research

4 hours

ISDiP candidates will write up a formal document that encapsulates the preceding ISDiP research. This document must adhere to the formatting requirements in the EDD Dissertations Handbook. Candidates will then submit the edited draft to the 807 Director. Once approved, the candidate will prepare and record a professional presentation using the Handbook's requirements, which the 807 Director will upload to an EDD YouTube site. This will be shared with the EDD Guild and community, consisting of alumni, faculty, and friends of the GFU community. After a period of 15 days from upload, the candidate will use the presentation feedback to craft a Reflection section that concludes the ISDiP; this is an opportunity to combine the wisdom of the crowd with the candidate's learning journey. Prerequisite: EDDL 806. Can be enrolled concurrently with EDDL 806 with the permission of the Doctor of Education Program director.

EDWR Course Descriptions

EDWR 505 Institute in the Teaching of Writing I

2-6 hours

This course provides a forum for collaborative inquiry where teachers write in a variety of genres, study current theory and research in the teaching of writing and use of writing to learn, and share their study of a selected area of classroom practice. The theory and practice of writing are examined through individual demonstration/inquiry, reading and discussion of current research, and writing and sharing in writing response groups. Participants develop their leadership potential for a variety of roles, including reform efforts that support the education of Oregon's diverse student population. Issues of teaching diverse student populations, writing to learn, and using technology to strengthen teaching and learning provide a lens for teacher inquiry. Participants must apply and successfully complete EDWR 505 and EDWR 515 for admission into the Certificate program. The Institute consists of two courses for a combined 4 semester credits.

EDWR 515 Institute in the Teaching of Writing II

1-3 hours

This course provides a forum for collaborative inquiry where teachers write in a variety of genres, study current theory and research in the teaching of writing and use of writing to learn, and share their study of a selected area of classroom practice. The theory and practice of writing are examined through individual demonstration/inquiry, reading and discussion of current research, and writing and sharing in writing response groups. Participants develop their leadership potential for a variety of roles, including reform efforts that support the education of Oregon's diverse student population. Issues of teaching diverse student populations, writing to learn, and using technology to strengthen teaching and learning provide a lens for teacher inquiry. Participants must apply and successfully complete EDWR 505 and EDWR 515 for admission into the Certificate program. The Institute consists of two courses for a combined 4 semester credits. Prerequisite: EDWR 505..

EDWR 520 Inquiry into the Teaching of Writing

3 hours

In this course, teachers will study the nature of inquiry and develop a question that has arisen out of their classroom practice: a problem, an issue, or a nagging concern. Teachers will also explore the work of other teacher researchers in the National Writing Project Network. This inquiry-centered approach will allow teachers to prepare for conducting research in their own classrooms by developing their questions, planning their methodology, understanding ways to gather and analyze data from student writing, and planning strategies for using new insights in their teaching practice. Prerequisite: EDWR 505, Institute in the Teaching of Writing I.

EDWR 530 Advanced Strategies in the Teaching of Writing

2 hours

This course focuses on using inquiry to advance practice in the teaching of writing with a focus on three major themes: supporting the writing development of diverse learners, using writing to learn across content areas, and using technology to support literacy development. Participants will implement and present an Inquiry project that includes a close analysis of student learning data. Prerequisites: OWPC Institute in the Teaching of Writing, and EDWR 505 and EDWR 515, Inquiry into the Teaching of Writing I and II.

EDWR 540 Professional Leadership in the Teaching of Writing

3 hours

Participants will study and discuss what it means to be a teacher leader, develop effective coaching practices, strengthen their presentation skills, and design workshops and/or conference presentations based on their advanced inquiry project and/or an area of expertise. The course includes a practicum experience for students to apply and analyze emerging leadership skills. Prerequisite: EDWR 530.

EDWR 550 Teacher Leadership: Writing for Publication

3 hours

This course supports teachers in writing for publication. Participants will analyze requirements and style of multiple professional publications to inform their own writing/publication efforts. Participants will create a draft for publication intended to disseminate learning from their advanced inquiry project or other area of expertise. This course includes a three-day writing retreat followed by a series of Saturday sessions. Prerequisites: EDWR 540, Professional Leadership in the Teaching of Writing.

ESOL Course Descriptions

ESOL 570 Applied Eng Linguis:Oral & Lit

3 hours

Examines the fundamental elements, processes, and patterns of oral and written language for the teacher of English to speakers of other languages. Topics include phonetics, phonology, sociolinguistics, pragmatics, morphology, orthography and writing conventions, syntax, semantics, and discourse analysis. English is the primary focus of the course, with reference to other languages commonly spoken by students in Oregon classrooms.

ESOL 571 Second Lang Acquisition & Dev

2 hours

Examines various factors, concepts, and theories about first and second language acquisition processes and their interrelationships. The course also focuses on the application of this knowledge in ESOL classes for maximizing ESOL students' language development and academic achievement. Prerequisite or concurrent enrollment in EDFL 570.

ESOL 572 Intercultural Comm ESOL Cntxt

2 hours

Examines the diverse and dynamic role of culture in the ESOL students' language development and academic achievement. The course also emphasizes the application of this knowledge for instruction and the involvement of community and its resources for maximizing ESOL students' academic achievement.

ESOL 573 Plan/Manage ESOL/Bil Curr/Inst

3 hours

Examines strategies for planning, managing, and teaching English as a second language and discipline-focused content to ESOL students. Emphasis is placed on curriculum, teaching, and learning approaches that accommodate a diverse population within the classroom. This course also focuses on strategies for collaborating with educators and community members in order to provide comprehensive, challenging educational opportunities for ESOL students.

ESOL 574 Assess ESOL Learning/Lang Prof

3 hours

Examines principles, issues, and approaches useful for assessing the English competencies of ESOL students. Emphases are placed on developing appropriate assessment tools for the ESOL classroom and on properly interpreting tests that are used for program placement.

ESOL 577 ESOL Practicum

2 hours

A supervised practicum in an approved school demonstrating knowledge and strategies developed in the ESOL courses. Candidates set goals for professional growth in the English-language teaching field. Prerequisites: successful completion of all required ESOL courses (or their equivalent).

ESOL 595 Special Study in ESOL

3 hours

Individualized and clinical observation/research in an area of special interest to the student which is outside the regular offerings of the program.

MATG Course Descriptions

MATG 501 The Professional Educator

1 hour

This course focuses on professionalism, purpose of education, educational law, policy, ethics and the place of technology in the field. The course includes instruction on mandatory reporting. Reflection upon professional identity and dispositional development will be facilitated.

MATG 503 Diverse Populations

3 hours

This course provides a framework grounded in cultural humility for approaching diverse students and communities. Issues surrounding race, ethnicity, culture, and the qualities needed for cultural competency, and inclusion are explored. IEP's and 504 information as well as EL foundations and supports are addressed (introduced) in this course. Specific skills for facilitating learning for all students from an asset based perspective are explored.

MATG 506 Curriculum and Instruction

2 hours

This course prepares candidates to meet the curricular and instructional needs of all students including exceptional learners. Candidates learn lesson design and instructional planning. Differentiated curriculum and instructional strategies are explored. Accommodations and modifications are made operational in unit and lesson design.

MATG 507 Assessment Design and Implementation

2 hours

This course incorporates and reinforces best practices in assessment design and implementation. Candidates focused creating and using assessments that measure growth toward standard-based outcomes. Using student data as appropriate, candidates develop plans for differentiation and intervention.

MATG 510 Human Development and Learning Theory

3 hours

This course examines human development from an intellectual, social, emotional and physical perspective. Foundations in developmental and learning theory and their connections to development are explored. Foundational knowledge of exceptionalities is reinforced. Foundational knowledge necessary to understanding exceptionalities of all kinds is built.

MATG 521 Graduate Capstone Project for Teachers I

1 hour

This course incorporates the design of a capstone project for the practicum(s) using appropriate data collection and analysis methods for the project. Candidates will analyze assessments, collect data, and interpret results in an effort to enhance instruction.

MATG 522 Graduate Capstone Project for Teachers II

2 hours

This course facilitates the implementation and reporting of the capstone project for the practicum(s) using appropriate recording and analysis methods that focus on evidence of student learning in relation to educational and pedagogical decision making.

MATG 550 Elementary Pedagogy in Science and STEAM Education

1 hour

This course focuses on the pedagogies of science and STEAM (science, technology, engineering, arts, and mathematics) education at the EC/EL and EL/MS levels.

The science pedagogy assists teacher candidates in how to navigate the three-dimensional, inquiry-based learning aspect of the Next Generation Science Standards and implement strategies and assessments for fostering student centered learning and inclusive classroom environments. The STEAM pedagogy equips teacher candidates in developing content and pedagogical content knowledge, integrative STEAM strategies, and efficacy to plan, apply, and evaluate STEAM challenges using project-based learning.

MATG 551 Multiple Subjects Level Pedagogy in Language Arts

2 hours

This course is a study of instructional strategies and the design, implementation, and evaluation of language arts curriculum for multiple subjects/elementary classrooms.

The pattern of course topics presented is the nature of content knowledge, general pedagogical methods, subject-specific pedagogical methods, and integrated pedagogical methods. Emphasis will be placed on ELL, Dyslexia, RTI and Inclusion.

MATG 553 Multiple Subjects Level Pedagogy in Mathematical Thinking

3 hours

This course seeks to integrate effective mathematics teaching and learning pedagogies within the framework of the common core state standards. The development of personal understanding of mathematical concepts and processes is emphasized; this process requires the student to expand his/her own learning beyond the course assignments to examine the relationships between mathematical concepts and the real world. Teaching mathematics effectively to diverse learners is emphasized. The course is interactive and dependent upon student participation.

MATG 555 Content Area Pedagogy

2 hours

A study of instructional strategies and the design, implementation, and evaluation of curriculum for content-specific secondary classrooms. The pattern of course topics presented includes the nature of content knowledge, general pedagogical methods, subject-specific pedagogical methods, and integrated pedagogical methods. Inclusion emphasis. For single subject endorsement candidates, this course offers an intensive exploration of pedagogical practices within the content area.

MATG 558 Teaching in the Middle

2 hours

A study of structures, strategies, issues, designs, and possibilities for the organization of middle schools and implementation of curriculum to meet the specific needs of mid-level students. Inclusion emphasis.

MATG 560 Foundations of Language and Literacy

3 hours

This course is designed to introduce the concepts of literacy as defined by the integrated processes of reading, writing, speaking, listening, and interacting with oneself and others within the content area. An emphasis on ELL, language acquisition, assessment, RTI, and Sped with emphasis on high incidence disabilities in language development are reinforced as integral to the content.

MATG 576 Practicum: Classroom Organization in Practice

4 hours

This practicum may be completed at either multiple subject or single subjects endorsement area. Candidate demonstrates success in multiple performance and dispositional assessments.

MATG 577 Practicum: Classroom Teaching

5 hours

This practicum will be completed at either multiple subject or single subjects endorsement area. Candidate demonstrates success in multiple performance and dispositional assessments.

MATG 580 Classroom Management: Classroom Culture

2 hours

This course studies positive learning environment strategies including procedures, routines, and clear expectations that allow educators to shape context with students in the clinical practice. Problem solving simulations are grounded in both observations and educational theory.

MATG 581 Classroom Management Seminar

1 hour

This course provides reflective opportunities to analyze individual and group management strategies, behavior analysis, modifications of environment, preventative strategies and positive behavioral support systems for all students within the context of the practicum experience.

MATG 585 Selected Topics

1-3 hours

Occasional special courses chosen to fit the interests and needs of students and faculty.

MATG 590 Professional Seminar

1 hour

The seminar focuses on issues related to current trends and questions in education and the ethics/values in teaching. Professional induction topics will include resume writing, job-search strategies interviewing skills, and PLC's.

MATG 595 Special Study in Education

1-3 hours

Individualized study or supervised research in an area of special interest to the student which is outside the regular offerings of the program.

MEDU Course Descriptions

MEDU 506 Research in Effective Teaching

3 hours

This 3 semester-hour course will focus on analysis and investigation of current research in effective teaching methods as related to specific subject and focus areas in k-12 education. Specific methods relating to subject matter, learning styles and effective teaching practices and strategies will be studied and applied. Students will have an opportunity to thoroughly investigate best practice philosophies and methodologies in k-12 education. Participants will benefit from interacting with each other concerning issues of best practices in teaching, implementation of best practices, and examining solutions to educational issues in k-12 education.

MEDU 510 Foundations of Educational Practice

2 hours

Students will be introduced to the six "lenses" of the EDFL Conceptual Framework and Professional Dispositions. Each student will develop a deeper understanding of personal vocation and mission in light of this overall framework by engaging each of these "lenses" to evaluate their current dispositions and work. The intent is for each student to establish a foundation of self-understanding and to become a self-reflective and analytical practitioner and learner.

MEDU 519 Practicum

1-10 hours

Must be approved by advisor. A supervised practicum for students adding a content area endorsement, age authorization level, the higher education specialization, or student teaching to complete the Initial Teaching License in the license-only program. Students teach and evaluate lessons, assess student achievement, and evaluate themselves. Work samples will be implemented and evaluated. Prerequisite: approval of the MEd director.

MEDU 520 Curriculum and Assessment

3 hours

This course will focus on designing curriculum units and instructional plans for a standards-based curriculum while utilizing research-based best practices for teaching, learning and assessment. There will be an emphasis on the development and implementation of an integrated interdisciplinary unit for the candidate's specific teaching or educational assignment that utilizes concept-based curriculum strategies and instructional techniques to "teach beyond the facts for the thinking classroom." In addition, students will be participating in a Professional Learning Community that will focus in on a data collection cycle to inform and evaluate practice. Students will develop assessment instruments and procedures that relate to their own disciplines. Current methods of formative assessment - including portfolios, rubrics, and other forms of authentic assessment - will guide and inform discussions.

MEDU 530 Overview of Qualitative and Quantitative Research Methodology

3 hours

This course will introduce students conceptually to research as a way of thinking for classroom or school improvement. As consumers of research, students will learn to search databases, analyze data, identify and summarize results to inform educational decisions. Students will be exposed to both qualitative and quantitative research paradigms, and begin to develop a literature review for their research project.

MEDU 540 Action Research I

2 hours

This course is designed to develop conceptual and technical skills needed for designing and implementing action research studies in classrooms, schools, and other educational settings. The focus is on the following: observing and recording behavior in school settings; problem definition and focus; sampling; data storage and retrieval systems; and trustworthiness of action research. Emphasis is placed on defining and investigating problems which require the educator to investigate strategies for improving their practice and student learning. Prerequisite: MEDU 530, Overview of Qualitative and Quantitative Research Methodology.

MEDU 541 Action Research II

2 hours

This course is part two of the master's research project in which the student continues to work under the direction of the advising professor. In this final stage the student completes a written paper, publishes the work on an open-source site, and publicly presents results of the research project.

MEDU 542 Master's Project Research II

1-2 hours

Research for and preparation of master's thesis or action research project. This course provides additional credit for extra research above and beyond that required for the thesis.

MEDU 543 Ethics & Equity in Educational Leadership

3 hours

This course examines how belief structures undergird the methods educators use to motivate people to learn. Through the light of ethical theory, students examine how organizational leaders respond to the situations they face. Students also reflect on and apply their own values and ethical understanding to shed light on case studies that represent situations they often face as educational leaders.

MEDU 565 Capstone

1-3 hours

This course is designed to permit the student to analyze, reflect on, and communicate to university and school stakeholders the summary of individual and organizational learning outcomes as a result of participation in the degree program. Students will utilize their practicum experience, their portfolio of evidence, and key learning experiences from coursework to design and present their findings, conclusions and recommendations on leadership principles and practices impacting their organization as the culminating activity in the program. The capstone is variable credit and may be done in one, two, or three semesters, however, the last one hour unit must be completed concurrently or at the conclusion of ADMN 549.

MEDU 685 Selected Topics in Foundational Perspectives

1-3 hours

Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship

Overview

The Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship is a non-degree program designed to train students in the transformative work of Christian formation and discipleship. The entire curriculum pathway is designed to prepare you to companion and serve like Christ, the Way.

The Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship is designed for:

- Individuals who desire to walk more deeply with Christ and who seek the companionship of academic and formation guides
- Persons who feel called to spiritual direction and/or retreat ministries
- Individuals who desire more biblical and formational training in order to serve more effectively as lay leaders in local churches or parachurch settings

The certificate is focused on expanding biblical and theological knowledge, deepening awareness of God and self, integrating life experiences, and enhancing Christ-like spiritual practices so that students can demonstrate the characteristics of Jesus in their vocational contexts. Our understanding of spiritual formation involves the intersection of Scripture, theology, psychology, and social-cultural factors. The focus of our curriculum, therefore, is on developing awareness, increasing empathy and compassion skills, and building distinct spiritual practices that promote authentic Christian discipleship.

Program Competencies

The Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship will equip and form students to think with clarity like Christ, live with integrity in Christ, and serve with the heart of God for Christ.

To think with clarity like Christ students will

- Analyze ancient sources and contextualize meaning

To live with integrity in Christ students will

- Embrace identity & belonging in Christ
- Deepen self awareness for Christ
- Engage the sacramental life with Christ
- Embody listening and discernment with the Holy Spirit
- Cultivate hospitable community for God's world

To serve with the Heart of God for Christ students will

- Form communities of shalom and grace

Degree Outcomes

- Equip students to develop habits of authentic disciplines that center on thinking and living in Christ's presence
- Identify and evaluate one's own spiritual formation journey of conforming to the image of Christ.
- Develop skills and practices for guiding the journey of others as disciples of Jesus
- Foster socio-cultural awareness and relational skills that cultivates maturity into God's fullness

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university† with a minimum GPA of 2.5. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Submit Portland Seminary application form and application fee
- Submit one official transcript from each college/university attended
- Resumé
- Personal mission statement and statement of faith
- Three letters of reference (as specified in admissions materials)
- An interview

†Applicants who do not hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university may apply to the university and will be required to submit additional documentation to be considered for admission.

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 11 hours credit is allowed toward the Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship program from ATS accredited graduate schools, as appropriate to the curriculum. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within 10 years of the date of matriculation to the Certificate in Spiritual Formation program will be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Residence, as described in this section of the catalog, does not refer to the time a student spends on campus. It refers to the portion of a degree program that students are required to earn with Portland Seminary, as compared to transfer credits and credit applied as advanced standing. With regard to the Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship program, students are required to complete half of the certificate (11 semester hours) directly with Portland Seminary. A leave of absence is valid for up to one year, after which the student must reapply to the program. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the certificate.

Course Requirements

The Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship program is generally two years in length with 23 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. Of the total hours required for the degree, 6 are in biblical and theological foundations courses, 3 are in pastoral studies courses, and 14 are in spiritual formation courses.

Graduation Requirements

In order to receive the Certificate in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 23 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above

Master of Divinity

Overview

The Master of Divinity (MDiv) program is designed for women and men preparing for roles as pastors, missionaries, chaplains, or some other form of Christian service. The MDiv curriculum is designed to enable students to prepare for ordination, licensing, or recording.*

The MDiv curriculum is developed around biblical, theological, and historical foundations courses, leadership and pastoral studies courses, and spiritual formation courses as well as some elective credit courses. The entire curriculum pathway is designed to prepare you to lead and serve like Christ, the Way.

* While the seminary provides training, it is denominations-not the seminary-that oversee the process of ordination, licensure, or recording.

Program Competencies

The MDiv Program will equip and form students to think with clarity like Christ, live with integrity in Christ, and serve with the heart of God for Christ.

To think with clarity like Christ students will

- Analyze ancient sources and contextualize meaning
- Examine Information value
- Engage interdisciplinary research
- Practice intentional thinking
- Explore creative arts as a thinking process

To live with integrity in Christ students will

- Embrace identity & belonging in Christ
- Deepen self awareness for Christ
- Engage the sacramental life with Christ
- Embody listening and discernment with the Holy Spirit
- Cultivate hospitable community for God's world

To serve with the Heart of God for Christ students will

- Steward one's calling
- Form communities of shalom and grace
- Create healthy systems and environments
- Communicate the wisdom and mission of God
- Lead as a servant influencer to a sustainable future

Degree Outcomes

Students will:

- Interact with Christian Scripture, history, and theology; interpret understandings critically and express them faithfully
- Cultivate tools and habits to pursue an ever-deepening sense of the reality of Jesus Christ through spiritual formation
- Experience themselves and relate to others as created in God's image and called into community
- Support the just transformation of societies through personal and social holiness motivated by love
- Lead the church under the lordship of Jesus Christ in its mission and ministries
- Preach, teach, exercise pastoral care, equip, and lead in local churches and Christian communities

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MDiv program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university,† with a minimum GPA of 3.0. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Submit Portland Seminary application and application fee
- Submit one official transcript from each college/university attended
- Resumé
- Personal mission statement and statement of faith
- Three letters of reference (as specified in admissions materials)
- An interview

†Applicants who do not hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university may apply to the seminary and will be required to submit additional documentation to be considered for admission.

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 36 hours of credit is allowed toward the MDiv program from ATS-accredited graduate schools. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Residence, as described in this section of the catalog, does not refer to the time a student spends on campus. It refers to the portion of a degree program that students are required to earn with Portland Seminary, as compared to transfer credits and credit applied as advanced standing. With regard to the MDiv program, students are required to complete half of the degree (36 semester hours) directly with Portland Seminary. A leave of absence is valid for up to one year, after which the student must reapply to the program. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions

Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The MDiv program is generally three to four years in length, with 72 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. Of those hours, 18 are in biblical studies courses, 12 in Christian history and theology, 6 in spiritual formation, 12 in pastoral studies, and 12 in leadership with 9 hours for electives. Elective hours may be used towards preparing for chaplaincy, spiritual direction, or strengthening competence in any of the seminary disciplines.

Chaplaincy

Clinical Pastoral Education

Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) brings seminary students into supervised ministry with people in crisis. The heart of CPE is ministry with people and learning from that ministry through reflection, discussion, and evaluation with other students and a certified CPE supervisor. CPE training centers are usually located in hospitals and medical centers. Portland Seminary is a member of the Association of Clinical Pastoral Education. Any seminary student in the MDiv degree program may choose to do his or her internship in a CPE setting; students in the chaplaincy specialization are required to complete a CPE internship. Students pay regular seminary tuition for seminary credits awarded for CPE units. However, because students also pay tuition to their CPE site, Portland Seminary students may be eligible to be reimbursed for that hospital tuition. Reimbursement is limited to 75 percent of the seminary tuition paid for the credits awarded for CPE experience. Students can apply for reimbursement by submitting receipts upon successful completion of the CPE program. Students who feel called to hospital chaplaincy would take the following recommended path at Portland Seminary and beyond:

Hospital Chaplaincy Path

Students pursuing hospital chaplaincy are advised to fulfill the following requirements:

1. Acceptance into the MDiv degree program with chaplaincy specialization (while some hospitals accept people with seminary MA degrees as chaplains, the MDiv offers more long-term options [and a minimum of 72 semester hours is required for board certification]).
2. Completion of a unit of CPE training at an approved training site. The chaplaincy specialization includes CPE training (worth 6 credit hours at the seminary). CPE internships are typically offered in two formats:
  - Summer 11-week intensive (full-time) = 1 unit of CPE (100 hours of structured group supervision and training and 300 hours of clinical practice—stipend offered by some hospitals)
  - Extended unit (part-time) = 1 unit of CPE spread over 5 months (100 hours of structured group supervision and training and some clinical practice—no stipend)

1. Ordination or a certificate of ministry from the person's denomination. "Endorsement by a judicatory" is required for board certification.
2. One year of post-MDiv residency. After completion of the MDiv, the student must apply for a year of residency at an approved CPE training hospital. These are full-time paid positions for which the individual completes an additional three to four units of CPE. The seminary CPE director keeps a file of residency positions available; these are posted on the bulletin board opposite the seminary office. An application should be made one year before the desired placement.
3. Board certification. After fulfilling the requirements of the Association of Professional Chaplains, the graduate would apply for board certification. Students are encouraged to become student members of APC.

MDiv Curriculum for Hospital Chaplaincy Students

1. All the normal curriculum requirements for the MDiv degree, following the chaplaincy specialization.
2. Internship requirement would be PSTD 563 CPE one unit (6 hours, two of which are registered under PSTD 563, continued practicum). The student would not take PSTD 568/9/570 Ministerial Apprenticeship.
3. A student coming to the seminary with previous CPE units may register up to a maximum of 8 credit hours of PSTD 563/4/5.

Registering for PSTD 563-565 Clinical Pastoral Education

Students should apply for acceptance into an approved CPE center one year ahead of their desired internship date. In Oregon, there are several centers: Legacy Health System, Oregon State Hospital, Providence/Portland Medical Center, Good Samaritan in Corvallis, and Veterans Affairs Medical Center. The ACPE directory with information concerning the centers, the contact persons, and application processes is available online at <http://www.acpe.edu/>. The student will contact the CPE coordinator at the preferred site, fill out an application, and pay the application fee. Once the student is accepted, he or she will register for PSTD 562. One unit of CPE is equal to 6 semester credits (two of which will be registered under PSTD 563, continued practicum). CPE courses are graded Pass/No Pass. Upon completion of the training, the student will submit the final supervision report to the seminary faculty director in order to record the course grade.

Military Chaplaincy Path

Those who feel called to military chaplaincy should contact the branch of service in which they desire to serve. The chaplain recruiter for the area will acquaint the student with the scholarships, requirements, and steps toward accomplishing this objective. Those who attend Military Chaplaincy School will receive 8 hours in lieu of the chaplaincy specialization.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the MDiv degree, students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 72 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above
- Achieve no grade lower than a C- in all courses. If a grade lower than a C- is received, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).
- Successfully complete each milestone
- Be admitted to candidacy for the degree
- Be recommended by the seminary faculty for graduation from Portland Seminary of George Fox University

Other Degree Requirements

Each masters student will undergo an initial personality assessment with a mental health professional upon matriculation to identify areas for fit and growth in relation to ministry and vocational discernment. This initial review process serves as a way to assess the student's fit for the profession; emotional, psychological, and intellectual ability; as well as maturity level for functioning safely as a ministry leadership professional. The seminary faculty will review this assessment for newly matriculated students each fall semester and take it into consideration alongside conversations regarding the student performance during the semester. At times, the faculty may recommend, or require counseling in order to better identify areas of personal growth in order to maximize one's ministry potential and capitalize on discovered strengths through one's seminary career. For more specific information, please refer to the student handbook.

Master of Arts in Theological Studies

Overview

The Master of Arts in Theological Studies program is designed for women and men who desire graduate study in the field of theological studies with an emphasis in biblical studies, Christian history and theology, or the integration of the two. The MATS serves the purpose of shaping students as theologians and is ideally suited for those wishing to pursue a vocation in teaching or writing.

The MATS curriculum includes courses in Christian history and theology, biblical languages, biblical studies, and spiritual formation. The curriculum begins with core courses that lay a foundation in these academic disciplines. The selected academic track (Biblical Studies, Christian History and Theology, or the Interdisciplinary Studies track) requires courses that will further build on the core courses, offering the student the opportunity to gain expertise in a preferred discipline.

The teaching apprenticeship requirement offers a unique and important opportunity for MATS students to learn about pedagogy in theological studies, with real-life experience in classroom teaching. A mentor guides students through the teaching apprenticeship courses. The spiritual formation courses give the student exposure to the development of deep moral and spiritual values, spiritual disciplines, and self-awareness and self-management skills. The thesis/project courses provide the opportunity for the MATS student to learn advanced research and writing skills and potentially prepare for doctoral study.

The entire curriculum pathway is designed to prepare you to lead and serve like Christ, the Way.

Program Competencies

The MA in Theological Studies will equip and form students to think with clarity like Christ, live with integrity in Christ, and serve with the heart of God for Christ.

To think with clarity like Christ students will

- Analyze ancient sources and contextualize meaning
- Examine Information value
- Engage interdisciplinary research
- Practice intentional thinking
- Explore creative arts as a thinking process

To live with integrity in Christ students will

- Embrace identity & belonging in Christ
- Deepen self awareness for Christ
- Cultivate hospitable community for God's world

To serve with the Heart of God for Christ students will

- Steward one's calling
- Communicate the wisdom and mission of God

Degree Outcomes

Students will:

- Grow in the ability to analyze pertinent texts and materials
- Develop the capacity to think critically
- Learn research, writing, and communication skills
- Integrate and demonstrate these learnings through a summative project/thesis
- Be formed holistically, both academically and spiritually

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the MA in Theological Studies program must hold a four-year baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college or university, with a minimum GPA of 3.0. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Portland Seminary application and application fee
- One official transcript from each college/university attended
- Resumé or Curriculum Vitae
- Personal mission statement and statement of faith
- Three letters of reference (as specified in admissions materials)
- An interview

Transfer Credit

Transfer of up to 23 hours credit is allowed toward the MA in Theological Studies program from ATS accredited graduate schools. Students must have earned a grade of B or better for a course to be considered for transfer. In addition, only courses taken elsewhere within 10 years of the date of matriculation to the MATS program will be considered for transfer. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

Residence, as described in this section of the catalog, does not refer to the time a student spends on campus. It refers to the portion of a degree program that students are required to earn with Portland Seminary, as compared to transfer credits and credit applied as advanced standing. With regard to the MATS program, students are required to complete half of the degree (23 semester hours) directly with Portland Seminary. A leave of absence is valid for up to one year, after which the student must reapply to the program. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Course Requirements

The MATS program is generally three years in length, but can be completed in two years, with 46 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. Of the total hours required for the degree, 12 are in prescribed biblical studies courses, 12 in Christian history and theology, 4 in spiritual formation and discipleship, 3 in a teaching apprenticeship, and 3 in thesis/project study (or additional coursework if so desired). The remaining 12 hours are in a chosen subject track. The subject tracks offered are the Biblical Studies Track, Christian History and Theology Track, and Interdisciplinary Studies Track.

Thesis/Research Paper

The MATS degree requires a thesis project:

- BIST/CHTH 581 Thesis I: Research/Thesis 2 hours
  - BIST/CHTH 582 Thesis II: Research/Thesis 1 hour
1. Students are eligible to register for the thesis once they are about midway through the MATS program.
  2. The student will register for BIST/CHTH 581/582 for two consecutive semesters.
  3. In consultation with the thesis director, each student will choose faculty advisors/readers. The primary thesis advisor is normally a member of the seminary faculty and has primary responsibility for overseeing thesis work. The second reader may be chosen from a wider field of qualified academics with expertise in the thesis topic.
  4. The primary advisor will work with the student to define the thesis topic or the nature and scope of the project. Theses should be 15,000-18,000 words in length.
  5. A thesis requires a one-hour oral defense before the primary thesis advisor and the second reader.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the MA in Theological Studies degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 46 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above within five years after advancement to candidacy
- Achieve no grade lower than a B in all core courses. If a grade of a B- or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook)
- Successfully complete each milestone
- Be admitted to candidacy for the degree
- Be recommended by the seminary faculty for graduation from Portland Seminary of George Fox University

Other Degree Requirements

Each masters student will undergo an initial personality assessment with a licensed mental health practitioner upon matriculation to identify areas for fit and growth in relation to academic calling and vocational discernment. This initial review process serves as a way to assess the student's fit for the program; fit for the profession; emotional, psychological, and intellectual ability; as well as maturity level for functioning safely as an academic professional. The seminary faculty will review this assessment for newly matriculated students each fall semester and take it into consideration alongside conversations regarding the student performance during the semester. At times, the faculty may recommend, or require counseling in order to better identify areas of personal growth in order to maximize on one's ministry potential and capitalize on discovered strengths through one's seminary career. For more specific information, please refer to the student handbook.

The Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives (DLGP) is the highest professional doctorate degree for those in religious leadership or other kinds of service in a variety of settings. It is designed for educated, experienced Christian leaders who recognize their need to become differentiated and innovative leaders, able to guide their communities or organizations through uncertain times into a hopeful future. The Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives is distinctive from other leadership doctorates in that its primary focus is on the practice of leadership from a Christ-centered, globally-minded, and theologically-informed perspective.

Built on a foundation of relationality, the Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives fosters an open learning community of peers and mentors for their lifelong leadership journeys. The Lead Mentor inducts students into modes for learning and study that incorporate critical thinking, personal research, and tutorial discussions. Students regularly engage online with cohort members, participate in three international face-to-face intensives engaging local leaders and sharing research and produce a project under the guidance of a project faculty member through a portfolio-based, milestone-oriented research process. As a result of their research, students make a contribution to their ministry context, gain expertise around their research topic, and learn a process that they can utilize repeatedly after graduation.

Degree Outcomes

Graduates of the Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives will:

- Differentiate as a leader by developing an inner equanimity and identity, congruent with one's personality, values, and mission.
- Articulate a globally-informed leadership philosophy and practice that integrates cognitive, behavioral, spiritual, and theological disciplines.
- Gain skill in collaborative research and innovation in addressing needs, problems, or opportunities (NPO) in complex, professional environments.
- Contribute a solution to an NPO in the one's context through the completion of a professional project.

Means of assessment: Self-directed research, an iterative personal learning plan, integrative essays, and a well-designed doctoral project culminating in a portfolio-based report that includes field-based research or other summative exercises.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives must hold a masters degree in a relevant area (humanities, social sciences, or theology/ministry) from a regionally accredited institution with a minimum GPA of 3.0 (or possession of a competitive grade point average as reflected in one's transcripts). In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Completion of the DLGP application form and payment of application fee.
- Submission of one official transcript from each college, seminary, or university attended.
- Curriculum vitae or resumé.
- Documentation of full-time participation in at least three years of leadership experience.
- Three letters of reference (as specified in admissions materials).
- Articulation of the scope and character of one's current leadership context.
- Evidence of the capacity for an advanced level of competence and critical thinking in the practice of leadership beyond that of the master's level and possession of writing skills sufficient to excel in an ATS-accredited professional doctorate program.
- Statement of faith.
- An academic writing sample.
- An entrance interview with the director or associate director of the Doctoral program (by invitation only).
- Non-native English speakers must submit a TOEFL score of 80 (Internet-based) or IELTS 6.5 and complete the Declaration of Finance. For more information, international applicants can reference the International Graduate Admissions page.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit from another doctoral program may be allowed up to a maximum of 19 semester hours. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

All work leading to the DLGP must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires the approval of the director. Program extension requests must be received prior to the conclusion of the sixth year.

Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional degree requirements.

Because of the cohort model used for this DLGP program, students must maintain full attendance throughout each module intensive experience. However, a student in good standing who must interrupt his or her studies for compelling reasons may petition the director for a leave of absence of not more than one year. Students who discontinue enrollment without an official leave of absence will be withdrawn and will be required to apply for readmission.

Course Requirements

The Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives program requires three years and the completion of 38 semester hours of coursework as a minimum for graduation. A maximum of 16 semester hours of coursework may be completed during one calendar year unless a student takes an approved leave of absence or works out an alternative plan with the director. The project portfolio is completed in the third year. Of the total hours required for the degree, 16 hours are in prescribed Lead Mentor 'taught' courses and 22 hours in the project portfolio research sequence. The program also requires participation in three 'advance' face-to-face intensives.

Summative Project

The Portland Seminary Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives program requires students to develop a project portfolio documenting their 3-year research journey, which culminates in the production of a summative project and learning launch plan. The goal is to make a contribution to their ministry context, gain expertise around their research topic, and learn a process that they can utilize repeatedly after graduation. Twenty-two credit hours of pass/no pass coursework is allocated to the research process.

From the outset of the program, students are assigned to a small peer group under the supervision of a Project Faculty (PF) member. PFs guide their research through a series of key milestones to generate the final portfolio.

In the discovery phase, students apply ministry research skills to a significant real-world ministry Need, Problem, or Opportunity (NPO). First, students are introduced to research tools and library resources and are oriented to the DLGP research process. They identify and articulate their ministry NPO and draft a discovery strategy to explore its contours. Following training in facilitating discovery Workshops, students engage a variety of stakeholders from their ministry context in a grassroots discovery process to assess the real needs of those impacted by the NPO. The focus is on identifying the desired outcomes and questions of the stakeholders. Students generate a report on their findings. This comprises a first milestone.

Next, students immerse themselves in the academic and theological literature relevant to their research, produce a draft of an essay positioning themselves among the expert perspectives in the field, and present their findings to their cohort, PF, and Lead Mentor. This completes their second milestone.

In the design phase, students engage additional stakeholders from their ministry context in a Workshop to brainstorm concepts for addressing the NPO. Students generate a report on their findings and produce a Concept Proposal, identifying parameters, audience, outcomes, a test group, and metrics for assessment of effectiveness. Students present their idea to their cohort, PF, and Lead Mentor for feedback. These tasks accomplish the third and fourth milestones.

In the delivery phase, students create their Summative Project prototype, a fourth milestone. They next test the project with a focus group, evaluate and report their findings, and develop a post-graduation launch and sustainability strategy. An examination committee (including the PF, Lead Mentor, and external expert) evaluates the Summative Project and Launch Plan for final approval - the last milestone. Prior to graduation, students compile their portfolio to be archived in the University Digital Commons. The portfolio contains key milestone documentation.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the Doctor of Leadership in Global Perspectives degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 38 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B- in all 'taught' courses. If a grade of a C+ or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken.
- Achieve no grade lower than a Pass in all project portfolio research sequence courses. If a grade of a No Pass is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken or the grade must be improved as outlined by the course instructor's approval and direction.
- Fully participate in all intensives.
- Complete and pass the Project Portfolio
- Oral Presentation of Project
- Be recommended by the seminary faculty for graduation from George Fox University.

Curriculum Plan

DLGP 850 Discovering Stakeholder Perspectives for Addressing the NPO 3 hours
DLGP 851 Experimenting with Prototypes 3 hours
DLGP 950 Designing the Doctoral Project 4 hours
DLGP 951 Assessment of the Doctoral Project 4 hours
DLGP 955 Doctoral Project Continuation (as required‡) 1 hour

‡Students must maintain continuous enrollment. DLGP 955 is only required for students who do not complete their project within the minimum program credits. DLGP 955 is repeatable each fall and spring until the program is complete.

Doctor of Ministry in Leadership and Spiritual Formation

Purpose

The Doctor of Ministry (DMin) degree is the highest professional degree for those in parish or related ministries. It is designed for educated, experienced practitioners who desire to stimulate renewal in themselves and in their ministries through the integration of their experience with advanced training, research, and reflection. The DMin is distinctive from academic doctorates such as the PhD and ThD in that its primary focus is on the practice of ministry. The DMin is also distinctive from other professional degrees such as the EdD and the PsyD in that it builds on the three-year master of divinity (MDiv) and at least three years of post-MDiv ministry experience.

The Doctor of Ministry in Leadership and Spiritual Formation (DMin LSF) shapes experienced influencers through the literature and art and practice of Christian spiritual formation and leadership to impact their communities and the world.

The delivery system of the Doctor of Ministry in Leadership and Spiritual Formation program includes personal mentoring by both the lead mentor; regular online interactivity with cohort members and professors; four 'retreat' face-to-face intensives in Cannon Beach, Oregon; and a portfolio-based, milestone-oriented research project guided by a project faculty member.

Degree Outcomes

Graduates of the Leadership and Spiritual Formation track will:

- Demonstrate a critical understanding of spiritual formation and leadership, their intersection, and their ethical application within diverse communities.
- Skills and competencies in DMin research process, facilitating stakeholder focus groups, critical thinking, academic voice, and ministry application.
- Gain expertise in chosen need/problem/opportunities (NPO) research area.
- Contribute to the understanding and practice of ministry through the completion of a doctoral-level project.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Doctor of Ministry program must hold an ATS-accredited MDiv degree or meet the seminary's MDiv-equivalency requirements†, with a minimum GPA of 3.0. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Completion of the DMin application form and payment of application fee.
- Submission of one official transcript from each college, seminary, or university attended.
- Curriculum vitae or resumé.
- Documentation of ministry experience that demonstrates that the applicant possesses the level of competence and reflection appropriate for advanced, professional ministerial studies. This is normally reflected in the applicant's documentation of full-time participation in ministry for at least three years after the completion of the MDiv degree.

- Three letters of reference (as specified in admissions materials).
- Five self-assessment essays that outline the applicant's spiritual pilgrimage, leadership experience, purpose for pursuing a Doctor of Ministry degree, and research interests.
- An academic writing sample.
- An entrance interview with the director or associate director of the DMin program (by invitation only).
- Non-native English speakers must submit a TOEFL score of 80 (Internet-based) or IELTS 6.5 and complete the Declaration of Finance. For more information, international applicants can reference the International Graduate Admissions page.

†Equivalency Procedures

An applicant who holds a master's degree but does not hold the MDiv degree from an ATS-accredited seminary may qualify for admission to the DMin program by meeting the ATS requirement of an educational equivalent. The criteria below serve as a guide for assessing equivalency:

- The ability to thoughtfully interpret scripture and the theological tradition of one's ministry context,
- The capacity to understand and adapt one's ministry to the cultural context,
- A basic self-understanding of one's ministerial identity and vocational calling,
- A readiness to engage in ongoing personal and spiritual formation for one's ministry,
- An accredited master's degree (or its educational equivalent) in an area related to one's ministry setting or vocational calling, and
- Significant ministerial experience that enables the applicant to engage as a ministry peer with other students in this advanced professional doctorate.

Upon submission of official transcripts from all prior graduate work, the DMin program director or associate director will assess the correspondence between the applicant's educational portfolio and the MDiv standard and make a recommendation to the DMin Committee concerning the applicant's equivalency status. Applicants needing extra graduate-level coursework to attain equivalency status may be admitted to the program with the stipulation that the appropriate 'leveling' coursework be completed to graduate.

Note:

- Applicants not holding the MDiv and requiring 18 hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work or less may be admitted into the program.
- Applicants with greater than 18 hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work will not be permitted to enter the DMin program until the remaining amount of required leveling work has been reduced to 18 semester hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work or less.
- Students may complete the 'leveling' work at Portland Seminary or any other ATS accredited institution. Course grade points must average a minimum of 3.0.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit from another doctoral program may be allowed up to a maximum of 19 semester hours. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

The DMin is also distinctive from other professional degrees such as the EdD and the PsyD in that it builds on the three-year master of divinity (MDiv) and at least three years of post-MDiv ministry experience.

The Doctor of Ministry in Semiotics, Church, and Culture (DMin SCC) develops Christian leaders skilled at recognizing the signs of Jesus' work in the world and proactively guide the churches into the future. It proposes a missional, relational, and incarnational framework of discipleship as the most effective way to engage culture.

The delivery system of the Doctor of Ministry in Semiotics, Church, and Culture program includes personal mentoring by both the lead mentor; regular online interactivity with cohort members and professors; three 'advance' face-to-face intensives; and a portfolio-based, milestone-oriented research project guided by a project faculty member.

Degree Outcomes

Graduates of the Semiotics, Church, and Culture Doctor of Ministry track will:

- Apply a critical understanding of semiotics, cultural trends, and leadership to better anticipate ministry trends within diverse communities via Exegesis assignment rubric.
- Skills and competencies in DMin research process, facilitating stakeholder focus groups, critical thinking, academic voice, and ministry application.
- Gain expertise in chosen need/problem/opportunities (NPO) research area.
- Contribute to the understanding and practice of ministry through the completion of a doctoral-level project.

Doctor of Ministry in Spirit-filled Global Leadership in the African Diaspora

Purpose

The Doctor of Ministry (DMin) degree is the highest professional degree for those in parish or related ministries. It is designed for educated, experienced practitioners who desire to stimulate renewal in themselves and their ministries through the integration of their experience with advanced training, research, and reflection. The DMin is distinctive from academic doctorates such as the PhD and ThD in that its primary focus is on the practice of ministry. The DMin is also distinct from other professional degrees such as the EdD and the PsyD in that it builds on the three-year Master of Divinity (MDiv) and at least three years of post-MDiv ministry experience.

The Doctor of Ministry in Spirit-filled Global Leadership in the African Diaspora focuses on forming Leaders who are interested in the integration of Christian spirituality and the richness of African culture in a global ecclesial context.

The Spirit-filled Global Leadership in the African Diaspora DMin program is organized around the foci of Bishop T.D. Jakes' life and ministry which includes:

1. Leadership development: Students develop a plan over four semesters that details their ministry philosophy and interest in cultural diversity. This plan demonstrates the integration of personal and ministry narratives, along with Christian leadership values. And, they develop mentoring skills, with habits and practices for sustainable leadership. The final version of the plan will locate their own ministries within a global context.
2. Communication techniques: Students analyze and practice the TD Jakes' method of preaching to enhance their own art of communication. Learning to use the discipline and skills of responsible biblical exegesis that is sensitive to community situational awareness, they will foster an innovative approach to homiletics as guided by the Holy Spirit.
3. Innovative ministry experience: Students pursue research topics under the supervision of a faculty advisor in subjects arising from their ministry context. They meet Christian leaders who transform lives, empower communities, and engage in social entrepreneurship. Students demonstrate an advanced understanding of a cultural blend and comprehensive awareness of the global ecclesial context influenced by the African diaspora.
4. Expanded perspective: Students will be required to participate in four 'Advance' face-to-face intensives: 1) one African Advance during their enrollment in the DMin Program, in locations such as Ghana, Kenya, South Africa, or Nigeria; 2) two of the annual International Leadership Summits (ILS), to participate in sessions with guest lecturers from a wide variety of disciplinary, theological, and demographic perspectives; and 3) one of the annual Jakes Divinity School Symposiums in Dallas, TX. Students will be challenged with core readings and supplemental materials. From a Texas pastor to an Asian non-government organization, students explore how to join God's work within the African diaspora in light of their own context. Because the world is made smaller and smaller through migrations and online technologies, it is crucial for the ministry leader to expand her or his leadership skills and perspective to respond to global concerns with contextual and social awareness. Students will demonstrate their expanded perspective through integrative reflection reports.

The delivery system of the Doctor of Ministry in Spirit-filled Global Leadership in the African Diaspora program includes participation in several seminars, conferences, or 'field research' experiences around the country or abroad; coursework with faculty specialists, personal academic mentoring by select faculty advisors; online interactivity with cohort members and professors; four (one international and three US based) face-to-face intensives; as well as reading, reflection, research, and writing.

Degree Outcomes

Graduates of the Spirit-filled Global Leadership in the African Diaspora Doctor of Ministry track will:

1. Demonstrate a critical understanding of dynamics of African leadership and their ethical application within the African Diaspora, with particular concern to inform each student's leadership context.
2. Gain skills and competencies in DMin research process, critical thinking, academic voice, and ministry application.
3. Gain expertise in chosen need/problem/opportunities (NPO) research area.
4. Contribute to the understanding and practice of ministry through the completion of a doctoral-level project.

Graduates serve in roles such as pastors in small towns, pastors of megachurches, mission pastors, international senior pastors, and leaders of NGOs, charities, or educational institutions.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Doctor of Ministry program must hold an ATS-accredited MDiv degree or meet the seminary's MDiv-equivalency requirements†, with a minimum GPA of 3.0. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- Completion of the DMin application form and payment of application fee.
- Submission of one official transcript from each college, seminary, or university attended.
- Curriculum vitae or resumé.
- Documentation of ministry experience that demonstrates that the applicant possesses the level of competence and reflection appropriate for advanced, professional ministerial studies. This is normally reflected in the applicant's documentation of full-time participation in ministry for at least three years after the completion of the MDiv degree.
- Three letters of reference (as specified in admissions materials).
- Five self-assessment essays that outline the applicant's spiritual pilgrimage, leadership experience, purpose for pursuing a Doctor of Ministry degree, and research interests.
- An academic writing sample.

- An entrance interview with the director or associate director of the DMin program (by invitation only). In some instances, a second interview may be required by the Partnership institution.
- Non-native English speakers must submit a TOEFL score of 80 (Internet-based) or IELTS 6.5 and complete the Declaration of Finance. For more information, international applicants can reference the International Graduate Admissions page.

†Equivalency Procedures

An applicant who holds a master's degree but does not hold the MDiv degree from an ATS-accredited seminary may qualify for admission to the DMin program by meeting the ATS requirement of an educational equivalent. The criteria below serve as a guide for assessing equivalency:

- The ability to thoughtfully interpret scripture and the theological tradition of one's ministry context,
- The capacity to understand and adapt one's ministry to the cultural context,
- A basic self-understanding of one's ministerial identity and vocational calling,
- A readiness to engage in ongoing personal and spiritual formation for one's ministry,
- An accredited master's degree (or its educational equivalent) in an area related to one's ministry setting or vocational calling, and
- Significant ministerial experience that enables the applicant to engage as a ministry peer with other students in this advanced professional doctorate.

Upon submission of official transcripts from all prior graduate work, the DMin program director or associate director will assess the correspondence between the applicant's educational portfolio and the MDiv standard and make a recommendation to the DMin Committee concerning the applicant's equivalency status. Applicants needing extra graduate-level coursework to attain equivalency status may be admitted to the program with the stipulation that the appropriate 'leveling' coursework be completed to graduate.

Note:

- Applicants not holding the MDiv and requiring 18 hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work or less may be admitted into the program.
- Applicants with greater than 18 hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work will not be permitted to enter the DMin program until the remaining amount of required leveling work has been reduced to 18 semester hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work or less.
- Students may complete the 'leveling' work at Portland Seminary or any other ATS accredited institution. Course grade points must average a minimum of 3.0.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit from another doctoral program may be allowed up to a maximum of 19 semester hours. Transferability of credits earned at this institution and transferred to another is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

All work leading to the DMin must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires the approval of the DMin Director. Program extension requests must be received prior to the conclusion of the sixth year. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Because of the cohort model used for this DMin program, students must maintain full attendance throughout each module experience. However, a student in good standing who must interrupt his or her studies for compelling reasons may petition the DMin Director for a leave of absence of not more than one year. Students who discontinue enrollment without an official leave of absence will be withdrawn and required to apply for readmission.

Course Requirements

The Doctor of Ministry program requires three years and the completion of 36 semester hours of coursework as a minimum for graduation. A maximum of 16 semester hours of coursework may be completed during one calendar year unless a student takes an approved leave of absence or works out an alternative plan with the DMin Director. The dissertation is completed in the third year. Of the total hours required for the degree, 16 hours are in the prescribed 'taught' courses and 20 hours in the research sequence. The program also requires participation in four 'advance' face-to-face intensives.

Advances will be for 5-10 days at the following locations:

Fall, Year 1:

- 3 Day The Potter's House Symposium, The P.L.A.C.E., Dallas TX.

Spring, Year 1:

- 3 Day Advance/International Leadership Summit (US Location varies).

Fall, Year 2:

- 7-10 Days Africa Fall Advance.

Spring, Year 2:

- 6 Day Advance/International Leadership Summit (US Location varies).

Advance fees cover most meals, lodging, and ground transportation to assigned tours. All transportation costs round trip and other lodging from the country of origin and back from the visiting country are the responsibility of the student.

Candidacy

Students are eligible for admission to candidacy upon completion of all lead mentor coursework and the first 14 hours of the project portfolio research sequence at the end of the second year of the program (30 semester hours). To qualify as a doctoral candidate, each student must:

1. Maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 with no course grade lower than a B-
2. Pass all four of the project portfolio research courses
3. Submit a topic for a Concept Proposal and gain approval from the Project Faculty

Students advanced to candidacy continue in the program. Students not advanced to candidacy are given specific guidelines for reevaluation. The Doctor of Ministry Office will notify students of their status following the second year of the program.

Dissertation

All Portland Seminary Doctor of Ministry programs include the design and completion of a dissertation during the third year of the program. The dissertation addresses both the nature and the practice of ministry. As such, the goal of the dissertation is not to offer a unique contribution to ministry in general, but to apply theological research skills to a significant real-world ministry problem.

From the outset of the program, students are paired with a faculty advisor, who supervises the four customized courses over the first two years of the program. This person normally goes on to serve as a student's dissertation advisor who will guide them in the process of research, development, and completion of the dissertation. The dissertation involves research and writing at both the theoretical and practical levels and serves to evaluate the student's competency in a specialized area of ministry related to his or her personal experience and interest. By engaging in the research courses and through the support of a dissertation advisor, each student receives guidance in choosing a research topic and preparing a proposal for the dissertation. As a prerequisite to candidacy, the student's proposal is submitted to the dissertation advisor for approval. When complete, the candidate submits the dissertation to the dissertation committee, which consists of a primary dissertation advisor and a second advisor at a minimum. Committee members must include representatives from both partner institutions. As part of the evaluation, the candidate must give an oral defense of the dissertation before the advisors.

Track 2 Dissertation (Optional)

As an optional alternative to the traditional written dissertation, students in the program may produce a Track 2 Dissertation, which is composed of two parts: a Written Statement and a Track 2 Artifact. The Written Statement explicates the theoretical underpinnings of the Dissertation. The Track 2 Artifact incarnates a practical, real-world solution to the stated ministry problem utilizing one or more of the following media forms: audio, video, web, print. When completed, the candidates submit the Track 02 Dissertation (consisting of both the Written Statement and Track 2 Artifact) to the dissertation committee, which includes at least primary dissertation advisor, second advisor, and expert advisor. Committee members must include representatives from both partner institutions. As part of the evaluation, the candidate must give an oral defense of the dissertation before the advisors.

Graduation Requirements

In order to graduate with the doctor of ministry degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 36 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.

- Achieve no grade lower than a B- in all core courses. If a grade of a C+ or lower is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken (for more specific information, please refer to the student handbook).
- Fully participate in all face-to-face intensives.
- Complete any additional MDiv equivalency courses, as may be required.
- Achieve candidacy for the degree.
- Successfully defend the dissertation.
- Be recommended by Portland Seminary faculty and Jakes Divinity School for graduation from George Fox University.

 Students must maintain continuous enrollment in the dissertation continuation until completion. DMIN 905 is required for students who do not finish their dissertation research within the minimum 4 hours. DMIN 905 is repeatable each fall and spring semester until the dissertation is finished.

Doctor of Ministry - General

Purpose

The Doctor of Ministry (DMin) degree is the highest professional degree for those in parish or related ministries. It is designed for educated, experienced practitioners who desire to stimulate renewal in themselves and their ministries by integrating their experience with advanced training, research, and reflection. The DMin is distinctive from academic doctorates such as the PhD and ThD in that its primary focus is on the practice of ministry. The DMin is also unique from other professional degrees such as the EdD and the PsyD in that it builds on the three-year master of divinity (MDiv) and at least three years of post-MDiv ministry experience.

Students in this general track of the DMin program at Portland Seminary do not journey with a cohort, but rather complete the coursework through a specialized study approach in limited instances and with DMin Director approval. The customized model meets both student needs and program outcomes. This option is designed for transfer or readmitted students who have started doctoral studies but have not yet completed the DMin degree.

Degree Outcomes

Graduates of the DMin will:

- Apply a theological integration to gain a critical understanding of ministry.
- Develop skills and contextual competencies to identify, frame, and respond to crucial ministry issues to address through research.
- Enhance effectiveness as ministry leaders in their chosen settings by contributing to the understanding and practice of ministry through the completion of a doctoral-level project.

Admission Requirements

Applicants seeking admission to the Doctor of Ministry program must hold an ATS accredited

MDiv degree or meet the seminary's MDiv-equivalency requirements†, with a minimum GPA of 3.0. In addition, applicants must complete the following to be considered for admission to the program:

- DMin application and payment of application fee
- Submission of one official transcript from each college, seminary, or university attended
- Curriculum vitae or resumé
- Documentation of ministry experience that demonstrates that the applicant possesses the level of competence and reflection appropriate for advanced, professional ministerial studies. This is normally reflected in the applicant's documentation of full-time participation in ministry for at least three years after the completion of the MDiv degree.
- Three letters of reference (as specified in admissions materials)

- Five self-assessment essays that outline the applicant's spiritual pilgrimage, leadership experience, and purpose for pursuing a Doctor of Ministry degree
- An entrance interview with the director or associate director of the DMin program (by invitation only)
- Non-native English speakers must submit a TOEFL score of 80 (Internet-based) or
- IELTS 6.5 and complete the Declaration of Finance. For more information, international applicants can reference the International Graduate Admissions page.

†Equivalency Procedures

An applicant who holds a master's degree but does not hold the MDiv degree from an ATS-accredited seminary may qualify for admission to the DMin program by meeting the ATS requirement of an educational equivalent. The criteria below serve as a guide for assessing equivalency:

- The ability to thoughtfully interpret scripture and the theological tradition of one's ministry context,
- The capacity to understand and adapt one's ministry to the cultural context,
- A basic self-understanding of one's ministerial identity and vocational calling,
- A readiness to engage in ongoing personal and spiritual formation for one's ministry,
- An accredited master's degree (or its educational equivalent) in an area related to one's ministry setting or vocational calling, and
- Significant ministerial experience that enables the applicant to engage as a ministry peer with other students in this advanced professional doctorate.

Upon submission of official transcripts from all prior graduate work, the DMin program director or associate director will assess the correspondence between the applicant's educational portfolio and the MDiv standard and make a recommendation to the DMin Committee concerning the applicant's equivalency status. Applicants needing extra graduate-level coursework to attain equivalency status may be admitted to the program with the stipulation that the appropriate 'leveling' coursework be completed to graduate.

Note:

- Applicants not holding the MDiv and requiring 18 hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work or less may be admitted into the program.
- Applicants with greater than 18 hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work will not be permitted to enter the DMin program until the remaining amount of required leveling work has been reduced to 18 semester hours of MDiv equivalent leveling work or less.
- Students may complete the 'leveling' work at Portland Seminary or any other ATS accredited institution. Course grade points must average a minimum of 3.0.

Transfer Credit

Transfer credit from another doctoral program may be allowed up to 18 semester hours. The transferability of credits earned at Portland Seminary, and transferred to another institution, is at the discretion of the receiving institution. Consult the DMin Director, Associate Director, and registrar's office for information on eligibility of transfer credit.

Residence Requirements

All work leading to the DMin must be completed within seven years from the time of matriculation. Extension of this limit requires the approval of the DMin Committee. Program extension requests must be received prior to the conclusion of the seventh year, citing extenuating circumstances and specifying an expected date of completion. Reinstatement to the program after withdrawal requires Admissions Committee action and may subject the student to additional requirements for the degree.

Students must maintain continuous enrollment in the dissertation continuation until completion. DMIN 905 is required for students who do not finish their dissertation research within the minimum of 4 hours. DMIN 905 is repeatable each fall and spring semester until the dissertation is finished.

Course Requirements

The Doctor of Ministry program is generally three years in length, with 36 semester hours of coursework required as a minimum for graduation. Students that transfer in credit will progress toward program completion at varying paces.

Candidacy

Students are eligible for admission to candidacy upon completion of all coursework (32 semester hours). To qualify as a doctoral candidate, each student must:

1. Maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 with no course grade lower than a B-
2. Submit a topic for the final dissertation and gain approval from the Dissertation Advisor

Students advanced to candidacy continue in the program. Students not advanced to candidacy are given specific guidelines for reevaluation. The Doctor of Ministry office will notify students of their status following the second year of the program.

Dissertation

Track 1 Dissertation

This track of the Doctor of Ministry program includes the design and completion of a dissertation. The DMin dissertation addresses both the nature and the practice of ministry. As such, the goal of the dissertation is not to offer a unique contribution to ministry in general, but to apply theological research skills to a significant real-world ministry problem. Students are paired with a Dissertation Advisor who will guide them in the research, development, and completion of the dissertation from the outset of the program. The dissertation involves research and writing at both the theoretical and practical levels. It also serves to evaluate the student's competency in a specialized area of ministry related to his or her personal experience and interest. By engaging in the research courses and through the support of a Dissertation Advisor, each student receives guidance in choosing a research topic and preparing a proposal for the dissertation. As a prerequisite to candidacy, the student's proposal is submitted to the Dissertation Advisor for approval. When the dissertation is complete, the candidate submits the dissertation to two advisors: the Dissertation Advisor and a Secondary Advisor selected by the DMin Committee. As part of the evaluation, the candidate must give an oral defense of the dissertation before the advisors.

Track 2 Dissertation (Optional)

As an optional alternative to the traditional (written) dissertation, students may produce a Track 2 Dissertation, which is composed of two parts: a Track 2 Artifact and a Written Statement. The Written Statement explains the theoretical underpinnings of the Dissertation. The Track 2 Artifact incarnates a practical, real-world solution to the stated ministry problem utilizing one or more of the following media forms: audio, video, web, print. When completed, the candidates submit the Track 2 Dissertation, which includes both the Written Statement and Track 2 Artifact, to the Dissertation, Secondary, and when necessary, Expert Advisors. As part of the evaluation, the candidate must give an oral defense of the dissertation before the advisors.

Graduation Requirements

To graduate with the doctor of ministry degree students must:

- Satisfactorily complete a minimum of 36 semester hours with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above.
- Achieve no grade lower than a B- in all core courses. If a C+ or lower grade is received in a designated course, that course must be retaken, or the grade must be improved as outlined by the course instructor's approval and direction.
- Complete any additional MDiv equivalency courses, as may be required.
- Successfully defend the dissertation.
- Be recommended by the seminary faculty for graduation from George Fox University.

Curriculum Plan

Content Courses (16 hours)

Complete the following:

DMIN 703 Content Course I 4 hours

DMIN 704 Content Course II 4 hours

DMIN 803 Content Course III 4 hours

DMIN 804 Content Course IV 4 hours

Faculty Advisor Courses (12 hours)

Complete the following:

DMIN 701 Customized Course I 3 hours

DMIN 711 Customized Course II 3 hours

DMIN 801 Customized Course III 3 hours

DMIN 811 Customized Course IV 3 hours

Research Courses (4 hours)

Complete the following:

DMIN 702 Introduction to Research and Resources 1 hour
DMIN 712 Developing a Topic for Research 1 hour
DMIN 802 Designing a Research Model 1 hour
DMIN 812 Writing the Dissertation 1 hour

Dissertation (4 hours)

Complete the following:

DMIN 900 Dissertation 4 hours
DMIN 905 Dissertation Continuation 1 hour

Students must maintain continuous enrollment in the dissertation continuation until completion. DMIN 905 is required for students who do not finish their dissertation research within the minimum of 4 hours. DMIN 905 is repeatable each fall and spring semester until the dissertation is finished.

BIST Course Descriptions

BIST 500 Biblical Foundations for Spiritual Directors

2 hours

Covers the primary content of either BIST501 or BIST503 on alternating years with special attention to equipping spiritual directors for critical and judicious understandings of scripture. Possible theological themes may include trauma, lament, identity and divine presence and absence. Requirements: Students must be enrolled in MASD program.

BIST 501 Old Testament Introduction

3 hours

Introduces students to the literature of the Old Testament in its socio-historical, literary, and theological contexts with particular interest in spiritual formation and Christian practice. Students will explore the contents of the Old Testament, the history of ancient Israel, historical geography, and interpretive approaches that explore the literary features of the Old Testament and its historical and cultural contexts.

BIST 502 New Testament Introduction

3 hours

Introduces students to the literature of the New Testament in its socio-historical, literary, and theological contexts with particular interest in spiritual formation and Christian practice. This course will discuss the history that leads up to the New Testament; the voices in early Christianities represented in the Gospels, Pauline, and other letters, and the churches and/or persons who first received them; as well as the voices of those who read them today. Besides introducing the general information on each book, this course will also highlight different themes in the books of the New Testament.

BIST 503 Engaging the Old Testament

3 hours

Building on the foundation of BIST 501 through hermeneutics, the study of ancient and modern methods of biblical interpretation, this course introduces a variety of analytical and critical approaches, from the development of biblical exegesis and hermeneutics in early Jewish and Christian tradition to modern-day readings of the Old Testament. Topics include: textual witnesses, reception history, issues of translation, historical-criticism, reader-response criticism, canonical analysis; postcolonial, feminist, womanist, intersectional, and minority readings. Prerequisite: BIST 501.

BIST 504 Interpreting the New Testament

3 hours

Building on the skills and knowledge of BIST 502, this course engages students with the nature of interpretation (hermeneutics) as well as methods and tools that support interpretation (exegesis). Special emphasis will be placed on key moral and theological concerns today and how a variety of viewpoints, methods, and approaches help the reader of the Bible move from ancient text to modern life. Topics include: historical criticism, reception history, literary criticism, rhetorical criticism; postcolonial, feminist, womanist, intersectional, and minority readings. Prerequisite: BIST 502.

BIST 511 Introducing Biblical Hebrew

3 hours

This course is the first of a two-course sequence in Biblical Hebrew language. Introduces Hebrew grammar and syntax and includes reading and analysis of selected Old Testament texts, and introduction to digital and print resources, such as grammars, lexicons and biblical language software.

BIST 512 Interpreting the Hebrew Testament

3 hours

This course is the second of a two-course sequence in Biblical Hebrew language. Students continue to develop mastery of Biblical Hebrew morphology and syntax, primarily through reading selected Old Testament texts. Advanced exegetical methods are introduced. Prerequisite: BIST 511.

BIST 515 Advanced Topics in Biblical Studies: Old Testament - Book Study

3 hours

This course will apply the interpretive skills developed in BIST 503, with special attention on the exegetical issues of the designated Old Testament book. Prerequisite: BIST 503 or permission of instructor.

BIST 521 Introducing New Testament Greek

3 hours

This course is the first of a two-course sequence in Koine Greek language. Introduces Greek grammar and syntax and includes reading and analysis of selected New Testament and Septuagint texts, and introduction to digital and print resources, such as grammars, lexicons and biblical language software.

BIST 522 Interpreting the Greek Testament

3 hours

This course is the second of a two-course sequence in Koine Greek language. Students continue to develop mastery of Greek morphology and syntax, primarily through reading selected New Testament and Septuagint texts. Advanced exegetical methods are introduced. Prerequisite: BIST 521.

BIST 530 Sacred Stories of Formation

3 hours

Examines and reflects on stories of various persons in both the Old and New Testaments that emphasize narratives of spiritual transformation. In particular, students will reflect on the patterns and practices of formation. The course will invite deep reflection on character building, ethical formation, and the application of such narratives to Christian ministry contexts.

BIST 533 Scripture in Context: Old Testament, Ancient Near East, and Today

3 hours

This course explores the ancient Near Eastern context for the Old Testament through study of extra-biblical texts and Levantine archaeology. Special attention will be given to Levantine inscriptions and elements from the material record that contribute to an informed understanding of the world of the Old Testament.

BIST 534 Scripture in Context: New Testament, Early Judaism, and Today

3 hours

This course reviews both the Jewish and Greco-Roman contexts of the New Testament. Students will engage primary texts through translation with particular emphasis on the contribution of these texts to an informed understanding of the New Testament.

BIST 535 Advanced Topics in Biblical Studies: New Testament - Book Study

3 hours

This course will apply the interpretive skills developed in BIST 504, with special attention on the exegetical issues of the designated New Testament book. Prerequisite: BIST 504 or permission of instructor.

BIST 545 Advanced Topics in Biblical Studies: Old or/and New Testament

3 hours

This course will examine a special topic in the Old Testament or/and the New Testament. Building on the hermeneutical skills developed in either BIST 503 or 504, students will engage with important voices in scholarship related to the topic. Prerequisite: BIST 503 or 504, or permission of instructor.

BIST 552 Advanced Seminar in Northwest Semitics II

2 hours

Studio course: Through weekly readings in Hebrew in biblical and extra-biblical texts (Dead Sea Scrolls, Northwest Semitic inscriptions, Targums, etc.), students will develop stronger competencies in all aspects of the biblical languages. Prerequisites BIST 511 or permission of instructor. (Note: it is required that students take both BIST 551 and BIST 552).

BIST 555 Seminar in Biblical Studies I

2 hours

A small group of students study a specially selected topic with a professor. (Note: it is required that students take both BIST 555 and BIST 565).

BIST 556 Bible and Contemporary Culture I: Methods

2 hours

The course explores the usage of the biblical themes and metaphors in various avenues in which Christianity and culture intersect, including politics, art, and various traditional and social media outlets. The course will help the students to develop tools for sophisticated analysis of popular culture. (Note: it is required that students take both BIST 556 and BIST 557).

BIST 557 Bible and Contemporary Culture II: Exploring Film

2 hours

As films fulfill the human need to “share a common memory,” this course investigates the use of biblical narratives and themes in a broad selection of films, both major studio and independent. Students will analyze and assess the methods in which the artists engage with biblical materials, expanding their ability to discuss biblical themes across popular culture. (Note: it is required that students take both BIST 556 and BIST 557).

BIST 562 Advanced Seminar in Greek I

2 hours

Through weekly readings in Greek in biblical and extra-biblical texts (Septuagint, Greek Apocrypha and Greek Pseudepigrapha, Attic Greek texts, etc), students will develop stronger competencies in all aspects of the biblical languages. Prerequisite: BIST521 or permission of instructor.

BIST 563 Advanced Seminar in Greek II

2 hours

Through weekly readings in Greek in biblical and extra-biblical texts (Septuagint, Dead Sea Scrolls, etc.), students will develop stronger competencies in all aspects of the biblical languages. Prerequisite: BIST 521 and BIST 562 or permission of instructor.

BIST 568 Teaching Apprenticeship I: Internship and Pedagogy

2 hours

This course combines instruction in pedagogy for higher education with a teaching internship in a higher-ed setting. Prerequisite: BIST 501 and BIST 503 or BIST 502 and BIST 504, dependent on emphasis.

BIST 569 Teaching Apprenticeship II: Internship and Pedagogy

1 hour

This course is the second part of a three-course sequence. It combines instruction in pedagogy for higher education with a teaching internship in a higher-ed setting. Prerequisite: BIST 568.

BIST 581 Thesis I: Research/Thesis

2 hours

First semester of research/thesis. The MA(TS) degree requires a thesis project. Students may choose either to write a traditional academic thesis or produce a project. The project is recommended for those students wishing to focus on a particular subject of interest, but who are not intending to go on to doctoral studies.

BIST 582 Thesis II: Research/Thesis

1 hour

Second semester of research/thesis. The MA(TS) degree requires a thesis/project studio. Students may choose either to write a traditional academic thesis or produce a project. The project is recommended for those students wishing to focus on a particular subject of interest, but who are not intending to go on to doctoral studies. Prerequisite: BIST 581. First semester of research/thesis.

BIST 585 Advanced Topics in Biblical Studies

3 hours

BIST 595 Special Study

1-3 hours

An individualized course of research, involving in-depth study of a particular question, problem, or issue. The student must make application for the study prior to registration for the semester in which the study will be carried out. The application must be approved by the faculty member overseeing the study and the department chair.

CHTH Course Descriptions

CHTH 503 Historical Theology I: Early Church to the Protestant Reformations

3 hours

Covers the development of Christianity and Christian theology from the end of the apostolic period to the 16th century. Examines the expansion of the Church, the unfolding of Christian institutions and practice, the conflicts that confronted the Church from within and without, and the development of central theological doctrines.

CHTH 504 Historical Theology II: Reformation through Contemporary Thought

3 hours

Covers the development of Christianity and Christian theology from the Reformation to the present outside North America. Examines the Reformation and its effects on the Continent and in England, important growth and changes in Roman Catholicism and Protestantism since the Reformation, key doctrinal developments, and implications from the global spread of Christianity.

CHTH 508 Essentials in Christian Theology

3 hours

Discusses the historical development and contemporary global expressions of core Christian beliefs and their relation to Christian practices. The course enables a well-informed, life-long creative engagement with theology, whether through studying, teaching, preaching, writing, or counseling.

CHTH 509 History of Christianity in America

3 hours

Examines how Christianity developed in North America from the 15th to the 21st centuries. Special attention will be paid to the role of evangelicalism in American churches, the creative ways that Americans contextualize Christianity, and the contributions that American religious innovators make to global theological conversations.

CHTH 510 World Religions and Christian Thought

3 hours

An introduction to the origins, histories, myths, and basic tenets of other religious traditions in the world and how Christians might engage them in meaningful interaction. Involving a research project and on site visits, a concerted effort will be made to show the common humanity of the people who follow other religions. Co-learners will guard against viewing people from other religions as the "excluded other" by understanding commonalities and celebrating differences.

CHTH 528 Intercultural Studies I: Cultural Anthropology for a Postmodern World

2 hours

Course studies the variety of human culture through the discipline of anthropology and indigenous scholars. Students engage perspectives from both non-indigenous anthropology and the indigenous community, particularly within the Indigenous North American context, and explore its relationship to today's world. (Note: it is required that students take both MLDR 548 and MLDR 549).

CHTH 530 Gender and Christian Thought

2 hours

Examines the status, roles, and contributions of women and men as they pertain to gender in the history of Christianity and explores the biblical and theological basis for gender equality. Investigating the effects of gender theory in culture and Christian thought, discussion will be aimed toward practical considerations for the flourishing of women and men in the church today.

CHTH 532 History of Spirituality & Renewal

3 hours

Examines movements and key individuals within Christianity, both East and West who have brought spiritual renewal to the church, including monasticism, the mystics, the reformers, Pietism, the Wesleyan/evangelical revival, and certain present-day examples. Focuses not only on history but also on themes within spiritual renewal and on insights that can be drawn for the contemporary believer and church.

CHTH 533 Christian Ethics

3 hours

An exploration of the guiding assumptions and frameworks undergirding various ethical positions and their claims, especially in relationship to Christian theology. The course also analyzes the relationship between context and ethics, specifically as it pertains to the church and its role in the formation of Christian ethics. Implications for the practice of ethics in personal, social, economic, and political problems of our contemporary world will be examined and evaluated.

CHTH 534 Poverty and Restorative Ecojustice

2 hours

Students will study current issues such as toxicity, population growth, and an activism rooted in solidarity.

CHTH 546 Ecotheology I

2 hours

Wrestles with Old Testament theologies of Creation, earthkeeping, and the role of humanity in the created order. Students will engage the history and development of these ideas within the Church, and consider how this legacy relates to the current state of the world. Students will explore the diverse issues corresponding to Sabbath and will engage in ecopraxis involving Sabbathkeeping. (Note: it is required that students take both CHTH 546 and CHTH 547).

CHTH 547 Ecotheology II: Hope and New Creation

2 hours

Explores ecotheology through the lens of the New Testament. Students will analyze how the doctrines of Trinity, pneumatology, and soteriology relate to the current state of the world. Students will also investigate the ecological issues of food, water, and waste and will engage in ecopraxis related to those issues. (Note: it is required that students take both CHTH 546 and CHTH 547).

CHTH 548 Ecopraxis I: Keeping the Garden

2 hours

Immerses students in an experience of the natural world during an extended retreat. Students will reflect on the wonder of Creation and the immanence of God. They will engage such issues as climate change, agrarianism, and the relationship between science and faith. Students will have the opportunity to explore practical ways to build simple living into their daily lives. (Note: it is required that students take both CHTH 548 and CHTH 549).

CHTH 549 Ecopraxis II: Greening the Church

2 hours

Course builds on Keeping the Garden by exploring how faith communities can "green" their local worship and ministry. Students will investigate "green teams," community gardens, educational programs, and advocacy for God's Creation. They will continue to have the opportunity to explore practical ways to build simple living into their lives and their faith communities. (Note: it is required that students take both CHTH 548 and CHTH 549).

CHTH 550 Indigenous Studies I: Indigenous Spiritualities

2 hours

An examination of Indigenous spiritualities from a Christian perspective and its relationship to Americans from every culture. Students will be exposed to the spirituality of America's First Nations and others through readings, shared experiences, and various media. The values associated with the Indigenous American harmony concept will be explored along with an understanding of Indigenous American theologies of the land. (Note: it is required that students take both CHTH 550 and CHTH 551).

CHTH 551 Indigenous Studies II: Theology and Place

2 hours

Immerses students in the natural world during a five-day retreat. Students will abide in Creation and experience the beauty and hope of our immanent God. They will consider Shalom and Indigenous understandings of the land and the relationship between science and faith. They will engage current issues such as agriculture, conservation, land use, and consumption of natural resources. (Note: it is required that students take both CHTH 550 and CHTH 551).

DMIN 507 Ministry Leadership

3 hours

A DMin MDiv equivalency leveling course. This course studies the biblical, historical, and cultural development of leadership as a response to God's concerns in the world. The history of leadership studies and the various leadership theories are explored. The qualities and skills of the ministry leader are discussed.

DMIN 508 Administration in Ministry

3 hours

A DMin MDiv equivalency leveling course. The purpose of this course is to enhance professional competence in ministry by providing insights and skills pertaining to the administration and management of the local church or small nonprofits. Particular attention will be given to time management, conflict resolution, delegation, conducting meetings, coordinating committees, communication among staff, managing the church office, volunteer recruitment, training and support, church finances, and tax and legal considerations.

DMIN 509 Mission, Church, and Society

3 hours

A DMin MDiv equivalency leveling course. Explores the work of God in the world by examining a missional ecclesiology that is biblical, historical, contextual, eschatological, and can be translated into practice. Attention is given to the gospel as it relates to culture. What is the church? What is the church for? What is our role in relationship to the church? These questions provide the framework for the course.

DMIN 595 Special Study- Leveling

1-3 hours

An individualized course of research, involving in-depth study of a particular question, problem, or issue. The student must make application for the study prior to registration for the semester in which the study will be carried out. The application must be approved by the faculty member overseeing the study and the department chair.

DMIN 701 Customized Course I

3 hours

In this cornerstone course, students develop a semester learning plan under the supervision of an assigned faculty advisor that proposes a semester reading list and proposed dates/times to contact the advisor for an advising session. Following faculty-advisor approval, students complete the course reading, and produce an annotated bibliography in keeping with the stated goals of their learning plan.

DMIN 702 Introduction to Research and Resources

1 hour

Introduces the tools for study and research in writing a Doctor of Ministry Dissertation. This will include orienting students to the library resources of George Fox University, Internet presence and capacities, etc., as well as how to use electronic communication and software tools effectively in research.

DMIN 703 Content Course I

MLDR 558 Advanced Leadership Studies I

2 hours

Part I of a course on advanced leadership which operationalizes the aspects of servant leadership theory. The first section will cover theory and tools for developing influence as a leader and working with a team to accomplish the vision and mission of the organization. (Note: it is required that students take both MLDR 558 and MLDR 559).

MLDR 559 Advanced Leadership Studies II

2 hours

Part II of a course on advanced leadership that will focus on influencing for positive systemic change in a group and elevates the character of individuals. Transformational leadership model is operationalized in this course by focusing on systems for managing self, others, programs, boards, finances, and communications. (Note: it is required that students take both MLDR 558 and MLDR 559).

MLDR 565 Seminar in Ministry Leadership II

2 hours

A small group of students study a specially selected topic with a professor. (Note: it is required that students take both MLDR 555 and MLDR 565).

MLDR 569 Specialized Apprenticeship II

2 hours

Part II of a unique practicum experience in which students participate in an internship in order to gain expertise in the tasks of their degree specialization. The practicum component is coupled with guidance and mentoring of a site supervisor and faculty who facilitate processes of integration. Prerequisite: MLDR 568 (Note: it is required that students take both MLDR 568 and MLDR 569).

MLDR 585 Advanced Topics in Leadership

3 hours

Explores the development of particular leadership and/or management skills needed for effective outcomes in an organization.

MLDR 595 Special Study

1-3 hours

The courses are designed to give a student an opportunity to customize his or her learning experience. A course facilitator will provide the format and structure for choosing the topic, gathering information and doing the study and work, and presenting the learnings in a written, artistic, or technological form.

PSTD Course Descriptions

PSTD 511 Theology/Practice of Worship

3 hours

Examines the purposes of worship and its biblical, theological, and historical roots. It also focuses on evaluating current trends in worship, understanding the connection of worship to evangelism, learning how to plan and lead worship, and exploring the role of music and the arts in worship.

PSTD 512 Essentials of Preaching

3 hours

Introduces students to the theology of preaching and to the principles of sermon construction and delivery. The purpose of preaching as an essential element in the ministry of the church will be considered, as well as the various sermon types and communication techniques used to convey the timeless message of Scripture within a contemporary setting.

PSTD 513 Pastoral Ministry

3 hours

Analyzes the theological, biblical, and historical basis of various models of pastoral ministry to guide students in reflecting upon their values and philosophy of pastoral ministry. Students will reflect on the meaning of call and ordination and work on developing professional competencies with presiding over the sacraments, performing funerals and weddings, and providing educational and prophetic leadership to the local community.

PSTD 514 Pastoral Ministry II

SFAD Course Descriptions

SFAD 510 Identity and Purpose in Christ

1 hour

Provides an opportunity for students to identify their deep longings and giftings as they discern their vocational way of being in the world for the sake of others. This discernment is rooted in a growing knowledge of the biblical and theological roots of identity and belonging. Students will be invited to integrate their way of being in the world with the God who calls them.

SFAD 511 Community and Belonging in the Life of God

1 hour

Provides an invitation for students to embrace the calling to belong within a faith community as an essential of Christian spirituality. Locating their past and present sources of belonging, students will integrate those experiences in order to grow in their understanding of self in relation to community. Students will support this awareness by reflecting on the cultural forces and narratives that shape both individuals and communities.

SFAD 512 Prayer and Practices in the Contemplative Life

1 hour

Provides an invitation for students to engage in prayer and other spiritual practices for greater awareness of self, others and God. As students practice they will be introduced to the gift of a contemplative life and will begin to experience a groundedness in Christ's presence. This groundedness helps them embrace themselves, God, and others. As students learn to experience this space, they will be able to invite others into a more contemplative life.

SFAD 513 Listening and Spiritual Discernment

1 hour

Introduces students to the concept of three-way listening: listening to another, listening to themselves, and listening to the Spirit with hospitality to all. Quaker, Wesleyan, and Ignatian spiritualities help shape this understanding of listening and discernment. Part of this journey is to begin to notice the barriers that arise in listening this way. Growth will occur as students learn how to sift through their interior and exterior experiences to determine their origin and the movement of the Spirit in themselves, their community, and the world.

SFAD 514 Sacramental Pathways: Ritual, Mystery & Beauty

1 hour

Introduces students to the rhythms of ritual, mystery, and beauty as pathways for Christian formation. Moving from the specific to the general, students will cultivate the ability to experience the sacred in the ordinary through tangible practices. These practices will be guided by theological reflection on the implications of the Incarnation, thus allowing students to both explore and notice God's recreative presence in the arts, creation, and all of life.

SFAD 516 Spiritual Leadership for Life and Community

1 hour

Leaning deeper in reflection on areas of disintegration and integration, students will be invited to practice self-acceptance, generosity of spirit, boundaries, and to recognize invitations of growth. Analyzing the theology of spiritual leadership and reviewing elements which invite leaders to sustain a leadership role with integrity and health, students will reflect and create a rhythm of life that will serve as a fluid document to sustain them as they live out their vocational call within the communities they serve.

SFAD 517 Christian Mysticism for the Everyday

1 hour

Invites students to experience and explore images of God and understandings of spirituality through Scripture and the writings of the mystical traditions of the Church. Studying the spiritual writings of others through history opens one to consider their own image of God and concept of spirituality. This recognition, often shaped from childhood and life experience, offers an invitation to an expanding understanding of God. Mystics invite us to move beyond knowledge about God into an experiential relationship with God that impacts everyday life.

SFAD 518 Restorative Justice and the Shalom of God

1 hour

Invites students to explore God's transformative action and desire for restorative justice and Shalom through the writings of the biblical prophets, Christian mystics, and activists. Students will broaden their awareness of unjust systems while considering their personal participation in oppressive structures. Reflective practices and discussion will invite students to actively join with God and create practices for response and reconciliation that extend God's hospitality and restores the humanity of all.

SFAD 520 Mystical Exper/ Images of God

1 hour

Gives students opportunities to explore images of God portrayed in the Scriptures and in the mystical traditions of the Church. Students compare these images and traditions to those that have shaped their own thoughts, emotions, and actions. Students are able to inform, strengthen, and transform their images and experiences.

SFAD 530 Christian Prayer

1 hour

Provides an opportunity for students to develop deeper and more satisfying prayer lives in the context of a global environment. As the essential relational discipline of the Christian journey, prayer is examined and experienced in its diverse ecclesial, ethnic, and cultural forms as found in Scripture, Christian history, and the Church.

SFAD 550 Shame, Grace, and Resilience

1 hour

Provides an opportunity for students to develop awareness to shame, that in its personal, relational, structural, and cultural dimensions can interfere with the ability to live into God's grace. Students will practice skills of reflecting on experiences of shame and grace, thereby beginning a process of developing resilience to shame.

SFAD 551 Awareness and Identity I

2 hours

Gives students the opportunity in a seminar format to come to a deeper awareness of who they are and why they do what they do. Through practices and tools such as centering prayer, the enneagram, and the Myers Briggs Type Indicator, students will become healthier servant leaders through an intentional formation of their identities. (Note: it is required that students take both SFAD 551 and SFAD 552).

SFAD 552 Awareness and Identity II

2 hours

Gives students the opportunity in a seminar format to come to a deeper awareness of who they are and why they do what they do. Through practices and tools such as centering prayer, the enneagram, and the Myers Briggs Type Indicator, students will become healthier servant leaders through an intentional formation of their identities. (Note: it is required that students take both SFAD 551 and SFAD 552).

SFAD 555 Seminar in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship I

2 hours

A small group of students study a specially selected topic with a professor in a seminar format. (Note: students are required to take both SFAD 555 and 565).

SFAD 560 Spiritual Leadership

1 hour

Examines the unique nature and responsibility of spiritual leadership. It analyzes the theology of spiritual leadership and reviews elements such as accountability, boundaries, devotional habits, life balance, retreats, solitude, and emotional, spiritual, and physical health. The course also delves into some of the things that inhibit the exercise of spiritual leadership.

SFAD 565 Seminary in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship II

2 hours

A small group of students study a specially selected topic with a professor in a seminar format. (Note: students are required to take both SFAD 555 and 565).

SFAD 571 Becoming a Spiritual Director I

3 hours

This course focuses on hosting spiritual conversations for soul companions. Generous listening is a core practice for intentionally guiding persons in their spiritual growth and at the center of training for spiritual directors. This course explores the historical, theological, biblical, and psychological premises for soul companionship and introduces students to core practices. Students will reflect on meaning and definitions of hosting spiritual conversations in light of their own experience and the course teachings and personal discernment regarding vocational spiritual direction. Note: it is required that students take SFAD 571 & SFAD 572.

SFAD 572 Becoming a Spiritual Director II

3 hours

This course continues the students' training in the discipline of spiritual direction. It addresses professional issues related to being a spiritual director and gives students practical experience in being spiritual directors, under the guidance of certified supervisors. (Note: it is required that students take both SFAD 571 & SFAD 572).

Additional fees: The cost of personal spiritual direction is covered by the student.)

SFAD 576 Spiritual Direction Certification I

1 hour

For those already trained as spiritual directors, this course and the second semester course SFAD 577 are designed to prepare a student for certification as spiritual directors. This occurs through an intensive exploration of one's spiritual life and its intersection with one's spiritual direction practice with the guidance of a trained spiritual direction supervisor. Additional course fee is required. Students take both SFAD 576-577. Pass/No Pass.

SFAD 577 Spiritual Direction Certification II

1 hour

For those already trained as spiritual directors, this course, as well as the prerequisite SFAD 576, are designed to prepare a student for certification as spiritual directors. This occurs through an intensive exploration of one's spiritual life and its intersection with one's spiritual direction practice with the guidance of a trained spiritual direction supervisor. Additional course fee is required. Prerequisite is SFAD 576. Pass/No Pass.

SFAD 585 Spiritual Formation Elective

1 hour

Explores topics of spiritual formation that support the deep work of transformation of students, communities, or cultures.

SFAD 595 Special Study in Spiritual Formation and Discipleship

1 hour

A specially designed and individually tailored course of research involving in-depth study of a particular question, problem, or issue presented by the student. The student must make application for the study prior to registration for the semester in which the study will be carried out. The application must be approved by the faculty member overseeing the study and the departmental chair.
