Honor Statement

The university seeks to admit students who will best succeed and benefit from a distinctly Christ-centered education and environment. Members of the George Fox community demonstrate Christ-centered values and are committed to the integration of faith and learning. Chapel attendance and Bible/religion courses are required of all students.

Affirming the following honor statement is a condition of admission. Since signing it is a promise made to the university to maintain this standard for as long as a student is enrolled, it should be agreed to only by applicants who wholeheartedly support the lifestyle described therein.

In accordance with Christ-centered convictions honoring the body as the temple of the Holy Spirit, the George Fox University community expects its students to follow a lifestyle that excludes gambling, the use or possession of non-medicinal drugs, alcohol, tobacco, obscene or pornographic articles or literature, and forbids immoral sexual behavior.

I authorize investigation of all information provided during the application process and the references provided to give the university any and all information requested as well as pertinent information they may have, personal or otherwise, and release from all liability or responsibility this university, its agents and all persons, companies, or corporations providing information to the university about me.

The full lifestyle statement can be viewed on our website at http://www.georgefox.edu/offices/hr/lifestyle-statement.html.

By signing below, you agree to follow the Lifestyle Agreement as stated above.
