EDU - Master of Education

University Mission: George Fox University, a Christ-centered community, prepares students spiritually, academically, and professionally to think with clarity, act with integrity, and serve with passion.

Program Mission: With Christ at the center, the School of Education offers practical and challenging programs for professionals in education where excellence, innovation, and professional expertise are modeled by faculty members who continue their journeys of learning, teaching, and leading.

From its Quaker foundations, the university has emphasized the necessity of a genuinely experiential Christian faith. The George Fox School of Education builds upon this foundation as it seeks to prepare and support professionals who think critically, transform practice, and promote justice.

Alignment With GFU Mission: To enable students to hone the personal development and professional teaching skills needed to guide students in today's world
