2021-22

WELL - Master of Social Work

University Mission: George Fox University, a Christ-centered community, prepares students spiritually, academically, and professionally to think with clarity, act with integrity, and serve with passion.

Program Mission: Prepare graduates for worldwide leadership and service as social work professionals who integrate the values, knowledge, and skills of social work with the highest competence and ethical integrity within public and private human service organizations, faith communities, and religiously affiliated agencies.

Alignment With GFU Mission: Three themes relevant to the convergence of mission between the university and the MSW program are:

- (1) Competent, ethical integration of Christian faith and the highest standards of social work scholarship and professional practice.
- (2) Leadership in professionally oriented, globally engaged, experientially grounded education.
- (3) Commitment to social justice and service.

Degree Outcomes: Graduates will be able to:

- + Ethically integrate personal beliefs and competent professional practice
- + Work effectively with diverse spiritual and religious beliefs, practices and organizations
- + Meet human needs and seek social justice locally, nationally and globally
