

CW Perry Servant Leadership Award Nomination Form

The trustees of the Barney II and Moore Foundations have established the CW Perry Servant Leadership Award at George Fox University to reward leadership in the area of community and ministry service. ONLY SENIORS ARE ELIGIBLE FOR AWARD CONSIDERATION. Up to four $1,000 awards will be given annually (in the nominee's Senior year). Each award recipient will be required to set aside $250 of this gift to the charitable organization of his or her choice. The remaining $750 will be distributed to the award recipient in the form of a cash award.

The aim of this award is to promote the ideals of servant leadership in the George Fox University community. Do you know of a deserving senior who demonstrates outstanding service as a servant leader on campus or in the community? You can honor that person and the activity of voluntary service by nominating him/her for this Barnabas Servant Leadership Award.

In order for your nominee to qualify this nomination form MUST be received by Kristina Findley, Associate Dean of Student Leadership, by the specified due date.
