Highway 18

This year, the George Fox University Players explore stories of traveling down Highway 18 - who we are, where we go, and what we encounter along the way. Interwoven with music and masks, they tell stories from their own lives on their journeys toward identity.

Their Stories are told in three acts. Act 1, Life: When we survey the road ahead and wonder which direction to take. Act 2, Death: When our journey is interrupted and we are stopped in our tracks. And Act 3, Resurrection: When out of the rubble, new life begins.

The George Fox University Players

For booking, available dates, and current and past season information, visit georgefox.edu/players or contact the student tour group coordinator at 503.554.2133 or tourgroup@georgefox.edu

University Theatre Mission Statement

The University Theatre is dedicated to cultivating artistic integrity in its students and its programs as we explore the craft of theatre in a Christ-centered environment. Our mission is to offer a safe, disciplined and nurturing theatre program that prepares artists to make meaningful contributions to our world.

theatre.georgefox.edu

A worship experience through story, drama, movement and song - performed by the -

George Fox University Players