

Gary Barrett, MBA

Adjunct Faculty

Email: gbarrett@georgefox.edu

Gary has taught with George Fox University since 2005. He has especially enjoyed getting to know his students on a personal level and experiencing their joy of learning and accomplishment. Gary has been a Business Consultant and Financial Manager with Barrett Corporation for the past 18+ years and is on the Board of two non-profit corporations as the Financial Administrator.

Academic Background

- MBA, Master of Business Administration, Marylhurst University
- BA, Concentration in Communication, Marylhurst University

Expertise and Interests

For more than 20 years Gary was the Director and Teacher at Barrett Schools, Inc., a state licensed Vocational School, training individuals to pass examinations in Insurance, Real Estate, and Registered Security Investments. He also taught for two years as an Adjunct Professor teaching Career Management within the MBA department at Marylhurst University. For the past several years Gary has conducted seminars for non-profit organizations in Personal Financial Management and Brand Management.

Primary Teaching Responsibilities

- MGOL 401 Organizational Behavior
- MGOL 404 Leadership Communication
- MGOL 413 Ethics for Managers
- MGOL 413 Data Informed Decision Making I
- MGOL 415 Data Informed Decision Making II
- MGOL 410 Financial Decision Making
- MGOL 450 Strategic Management

Outside the Classroom

Gary enjoys traveling with his family in their travel trailer. Favorite destinations are the Oregon and Washington coasts, as well as Western Canada. He enjoys riding mountain bikes with his family, and also can't resist taking time to read a great book.