

Michelle Cox, PhD

Adjunct Faculty

Email: mcox@georgefox.edu

I taught Human Development and Family Studies at Oregon State University for three years before joining the faculty at George Fox. I taught in the Graduate Department of Counseling for seven years. In addition to my role as Instructor for the Adult Degree Program at GFU, I currently teach masters students in counseling for Northwest University, Oregon State University, and Liberty University.

Academic Background

PhD, Human Development and Family Studies, Oregon State University (2008)
MA, Counseling, George Fox University (2003)
BS, Bachelor of Science, Interdisciplinary Studies, Western Oregon University (1989)

Primary Teaching Responsibilities

COMM 485 Nonverbal Communication Across Cultures
MSBS 426 Life Span Development
MSBS 427 Abnormal Psychology
MSBS 432 Personal and Professional Ethics
MSBS 433 Addiction Disorders
MSBS 429 Assessment and Referral
MSBS 430 Grant Proposal Writing

Outside the Classroom

I am married, have three children and a son-in-law as well as five purebred Australian Shepherds. I enjoy painting, crafts, working on our cabin in La Pine, and Pinterest.