

Brent D. Fisk, PsyD

Adjunct Faculty

Email: bfisk@georgefox.edu

Currently, I am a psychologist and behavioral health provider with Providence Medical Group. Prior to clinical psychology, I spent some time in television/radio, higher education, and ministry. I have always enjoyed teaching, so I am grateful for the opportunity to rejoin George Fox as an adjunct instructor. For me, teaching is a collaborative partnership, and I hope our learning is as much meaningful as it is informative.
