

NOVEMBER 2

WARS AND RUMORS OF WARS: FACING GENOCIDE

James Waller, Dean at Spokane Falls Community College

Hear a widely-recognized scholar in the field of Holocaust and genocide studies.

Jim Waller has spoken to the Department of State and the CIA. He is the author of several books on race relations and genocide, the most recent of which is Becoming Evil: How Ordinary People Commit Genocide and Mass Killing.

NOVEMBER 9

INTERNATIONAL VOICES: VIEWS OF THE WEST

George Fox International Student panel

Hear the perspectives of international students who have come from the majority world to study at George Fox University. Having interviewed American and Chinese students through the semester, they will share what they have learned, respond with recommendations, and answer audience questions.

NOVEMBER 23

LACI RESEARCH EXHIBIT

EHS and Hoover, 12:30-4pm

Hear what members of the senior class recommend to their communities after researching a topic related to the Majority World and the West.

Caitlin Corning
503-554-2673; ccorning@georgefox.edu

Elizabeth Todd
503-554-2648; detodd@georgefox.edu

Directors,
Liberal Arts and Critical Issues (LACI) Program

georgefox.edu/laci

LECTURE SCHEDULE

SEPTEMBER 7

WHO'S WHO IN THE MAJORITY WORLD

Tom Head, Ph.D. George Fox University

Hear why and how to learn about the majority world. Professor of economics and chairperson of the international studies program, Tom Head has been actively involved with a number of NGOs, including the Quaker Institute for the Future, the American Friends Service Committee, and the Quaker United Nations Office.

SEPTEMBER 14

YOU MIGHT SAY I'M A DREAMER, BUT I'M NOT THE ONLY ONE

Jason Fileta, Micah Challenge, USA

Hear about Christians, advocacy and the UN Millennium Goals. Jason Fileta is a field organizer for Micah Challenge, USA, a global Christian campaign that works to unite organizations in the effort to halve absolute global poverty by 2015. Jason travels to university campuses to help organize efforts to deepen engagement with the global poor.

SEPTEMBER 21

THERE AND BACK AGAIN: STORIES FROM RECENT GRADS

Hear a panel of former George Fox University students who served overseas after graduation. They will explain, from their own experience, the opportunities and challenges of living and working overseas. Their insights are useful for those who may go overseas in the future, or for those who are friends and family of those who go.

SEPTEMBER 28

BEYOND THREE CUPS OF TEA

Hear an update about the activities of Central Asia Institute and the situation in Afghanistan and Pakistan, particularly with regard to education in politically unstable areas.

OCTOBER 5

IMPACTING THE LIVES OF WOMEN

Taghrid Khuri, consultant and trainer

Hear about efforts to change the lives of women in the majority world. Dr. Taghrid Khuri has experience in development planning and management, gender and development and institutional capacity building. In her career she has worked extensively in the Middle East and taught in Jordan and the U.S.

OCTOBER 12

WINNING FRIENDS AND INFLUENCING PEOPLE

Ben Spotts, IDEAS

Hear how US tax dollars and faith-based offerings directed to the majority world impact people. Ben Spotts has worked in India as a communications consultant with a focus on human rights. People with IDEAS offer professional skills to meet the needs and transform the lives of forgotten people.

OCTOBER 19

TRASH TALK

Elizabeth Grossman, journalist and author

Hear connections between western habits and majority world health. Oregon author Elizabeth Grossman has contributed to The Washington Post, Chicago Tribune, and numerous other publications. Her books include High Tech Trash: Digital Devices, Hidden Toxics, and Human Health and Chasing Molecules: Poisonous Products, Human Health and the Promise of Green Technology.

OCTOBER 26

FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD.... CHRISTIANS OF THE MAJORITY WORLD

David Niyonzima, THARS (Trauma Healing and Reconciliation Services)

Hear the perspective of a person from the world church. David Niyonzima is a pastor in Burundi, Africa and the director of THARS, a program which promotes healing and rehabilitation for traumatized people (ex-combatants, victims of torture and sexual violence). He is the co-author of Unlocking Horns: Forgiveness and Reconciliation in Burundi.

