

Abigail Green

555-555-5555 | agreen@georgefox.edu | LinkedIn.com/name

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Highly dedicated and knowledgeable with an interest in molecular or microbiology research. Experience in high volumes of course load work while maintaining top priorities. Enjoys working cooperatively with strong communication skills to run specialized reports when needed. Passionate about learning scientific skills and further preparing for a prosperous future.

EDUCATION

George Fox University-Newberg, OR

Bachelor of Science- Cell and Molecular Biology

Expected- May, 2020

Relevant Coursework: Human Anatomy and Physiology I, Cell Biology, Essentials of Microbiology, Biochemistry I

EXPERIENCE

Professor's Assistant

George Fox University, Newberg, OR

August, 2015- Present

- Maintained cell cultures and aided in weekly labs.
- Demonstrated an organized, dependable, and self-sufficient work ethic.

Science Outreach

George Fox University, Newberg, OR

August, 2016 – April 2017

- Problem-solved with leaders to develop an excellent program.
- Instructed a weekly one-hour biology class to 6-9-year-olds.
- Designed content and lesson plans.

Waitress

Aloha Steakhouse

Summers 2014 – 2017

- Achieved individual and team goals through communication and persistence.
- Multi-tasked while providing great service in a fast-paced environment.

LAB SKILLS / TECHNIQUES

- Cell Culturing
- Gel Electrophoresis
- Southern and Western Blot
- PCR
- Confocal Microscope
- Aseptic Techniques

ACTIVITIES / AWARDS

- Middle school biology tutor 2016-Present
- George Fox Student Body Government; Blue Zone Director 2016- Present
- George Fox collegiate soccer 2014-2016
- Sigma Zeta National Honors Society Member