

Sarah Jones

1234 College Rd. Newberg, OR 9132
(818) 555-4321
student@georgefox.edu
<https://www.linkedin.com/in/sarahjones>

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology

Expected: May 2016

Honors: Deans List 2012-2015

Activities: Residential Assistant, Cheerleading Captain

George Fox University, Newberg, OR

Diploma

May 2012

Honors: National Honor Society

Activities: Student Council President, JV and Varsity Track, JV and Varsity Cheerleading

Portland High School, Portland, OR

EXPERIENCE

Skills Trainer, Center for Children with Autism

September 2014 – Present

Newberg, OR

- Provide behavior therapy to children with autism in a structured clinic setting
- Teach functional skills and manage challenging behaviors such as tantrums, self-injury and non-compliance
- Follow supervisors recommendations and collaborate to make changes to programs

Mission Volunteer, Global Autism Projects' SkillCorp

Summer 2014

Kenya

- Educated parents about autism and provided resources to help their daily lives
- Established trusting relationships with children and their families to understand cultural needs

Retirement Home Volunteer, Woodview Living

Summer 2013

Tigard, OR

- Cared for individuals and their families, providing companionship during their transition to new housing
- Maintained a clean facility by changing linens, assisting with personal care and bathing patients
- Built rapport with patients by engaging in conversations and preferred activities

Music Teacher, Children's Play and Music

May 2012 – May 2013

Beaverton, OR

- Taught music classes to typically developing children, ages 2-10
- Engaged parents and children in developing an interest in musical instruments and singing
- Utilized child development research in developing age-appropriate classes

RELATED COURSES

- Psychology
- Research Design and Statistics
- Ethics
- Child Development
- Applied Behavior Analysis
- Gerontology