Introduction

Going forward, the following pages will serve as George Fox University's Aesthetics Branding Package, offering a straightforward, step by step process for all finish, color and furniture choices for all University spaces.

For the next time, any furniture selections are required for your spaces, follow this process for Furniture Aesthetic Decisions:

PROCESS FOR NEW FURNITURE

For new employees: An Office Setup Request Form must be submitted. This will also address furniture needs. Only this process starts with Plant Services.

For existing employees needing to replace dated or broken furniture, they will fill out the furniture request form. This process starts with Purchasing (gmorales@georgefox.edu) in partnership with Plant Services.

All departments are required to provide their furniture and equipment requirements on an annual basis. If an item was not budgeted for, they need to wait till the next fiscal year.

If a damaged item needs to be replaced, budget for that item should come from the department's budget.

All purchases, except for HR determined ergonomic items, need to be paid for by the requesting department. Especially ergonomic items belong to the George Fox University Purchasing Department and are to be returned once the requesting employee has left GFU.

Furniture Removal

Whenever any furniture needs to be removed from spaces on campus, follow this process for Furniture Removal:

PROCESS FOR FURNITURE REMOVAL

Aesthetic Finish Decisions - Materials & Finish Choices

Major Remodels + New Buildings

In the case that spaces are due for major remodels or new buildings are built and aesthetic decisions need to be made, this package should still be used to prescribe the type of furniture ordered and the aesthetic direction followed. Furniture and finish choices should be approved by Purchasing (gmorales@georgefox.edu) before purchasing in these instances.

Branding of Spaces + Professionalism of Spaces

As of September 2022, all spaces on George Fox University's campus should follow the branding guidelines set forth in this document, based on University-approved color schemes, finish selections and general aesthetic related to GFU branding in interior and exterior spaces. In an effort to create a cohesive look and feel throughout all University spaces, this Aesthetics Branding Package will serve as a guide to create spaces that fit within the branding message of George Fox University.

University spaces should feel professional, creating spaces that are within University guidelines. Those guidelines include the following rules to abide by:

- All furniture should follow the guidelines set forth in this document and should be approved by George Fox University before ordering.
- Elements from personal homes, with the exception of personal photographs or artwork, are not allowed in professional offices and classrooms - for clarity on which items are approved to be brought in, contact: purchasing@georgefox.edu
- Items such as lamps, rugs, and side chairs should follow the policy set forth in this document and fit within the guidelines of this Aesthetics Branding Package. These items should not be purchased from home stores and brought into University spaces without approval from purchasing@georgefox.edu
- Miscellaneous items such as bulletin boards, lighting and window coverings should be ordered through Purchasing with approval from purchasing@georgefox.edu
- In regards to Lamps specifically, these items should be purchased as strategic lighting for specific areas (seating areas, lobbies, etc.). Plug-in items can cause safety hazards and other complications with electrical outlets. Please get prior approval from purchasing@georgefox.edu for any lighting or lamp purchases prior to ordering.

Clarity of Process

With the inception of this Aesthetics Branding Package, all George Fox University spaces will follow the guidelines set forth in this document. For any new finish application (painting, carpet, etc.) or for any new furniture purchases, this document aims to clarify the process of those activities and streamline the way that any one person may edit their space.

Functionality

It's important to remember that furniture and finishes need to be functional for a University setting and any purchases or choices made going forward, should meet that requirement. All furniture for George Fox University education and professional settings should be commercial-grade. While small items such as side tables or small storage bins may be purchased from residential manufacturers, any large furniture items such as desks, sofas, task chairs, lounge furniture, etc., must be commercial-grade going forward. In an effort to create a longer lasting set of furniture within University settings, the goal of this initiative is that all furniture is functioning as it should for the use intended.

Big Picture

When purchasing commercial-grade furniture, the University is able to utilize warranties on those items so that if anything should occur with those items in the future, the University is able to replace or fix those items without additional cost. As well as warranties and maintenance perks, commercial grade furniture is built to withstand high use and will last longer than any residential furniture bought from residential manufacturers. To be able to keep furniture longer, even in high use settings, commercial-grade furniture is a better cost and use option for the University.

New Approved Color and Finish Schemes

For space renovations and updates going forward, George Fox University buildings will stay within this color and finish scheme for finishes. This will include all spaces that get renovated and updated. If a space is being added to the University or remodeled, approval for any variation on this color and finish scheme should be approved by Carl Anderson, Jeremiah Horton, and the Aesthetics Committee.
