

SUMMER WRITING CAMP

*Have you ever read a book and thought,
"I wish I could write like that?"*

Join other readers and writers for a fun online camp experience, exploring the OBOB books as guides to good writing. This one week, two hour per day, camp will improve your writing skills and help you connect with like-minded storytellers entering grades 7-9.

If you love the 2016-2017 Oregon Battle of the Books, this camp is for you!

Features:

- 100% online. Participate from any location with internet access.
- Individualized feedback from a certified writing instructor.
- Opportunity to share and discuss your work with other young writers.

2017 Camp Dates:

- Camp 1: June 26th to June 30th
- Camp 2: July 31st to August 4th

Fees:

- $80 ($70 by May 1st for the early bird discount)

Sponsored by the Oregon Writing Project Collaborative at George Fox University

- More info. at: http://www.georgefox.edu/oregon-writing-project/Young_Writers

Comments from past participants:

“By participating in the camp, I received a better idea of how to improve on my creative writing, and I was also able to experiment with different writing techniques.”

“I received a lot of great tips and I realized that I too could become an author.”

“The online camp gave me a deeper understand of how I write and what I can do better.”

“This camp helped me gain more confidence in my writing.”

“This camp was definitely one of the best things to happen this summer!”